WHERE IS THE RACKET?

Is a question often asked by persons not acquainted in Bellefonte. Do you come via L. & E. B. V., or B. R. Railroads, go up High Street about 2 1/2 squares to the Diamond; turn to the left; pass 1st Nat. Bank, Montgomery's Clothing House, Erhard & Co., grocers, and next you find "The Racket," being the middle room of Crider's Exchange...

G. R. SPIGELMYER, SHEN SPIGELMYER, Jr.

LOCAL ITEMS.

"Do you love me?" somewhat shyly asked the paper of the fly. "For tho' I myself may say it, there's no greater catch than I."

—Bob Foreman will soon have his new dwelling ready for occupancy.

—An Australian Specialty Co., exhibited two nights in town last week.

—A large party of Bellefonte's young folks are camping at Cherry Run.

—Esq. Herring, of Penn Hall, were are sorry to learn, is laid up of diarrhoea.

—Monday morning was quite cool, cloudy and indications for rain, sunshine set in in the afternoon.

—The Knights of the Golden Eagle, at Millheim, cleared about $125 at a festival on Saturday evening.

—Conductor Reamer on Sunday last killed a large four-foot rattlesnake on top of the mountain. It had ten rattles.

—Andy Reesman is having his tin-shop painted red. He confines it to the building and won't decorate the town a crimson hue.

—The report that Mrs. Moses Thompson had died was premature, the old lady was quite ill and is recovering again.

—Camp has had his new furniture store building painted and a new sign erected, which now makes quite a presentable appearance.

—The Bellefonte opera house which will soon be completed will be opened on September 11, by Frank Mayo and company, in "Davy Crockett."

—John Conley was unfortunate enough to have one of his roan horses tramp on an iron bolt, which resulted in lock jaw and was compelled to shoot it.

—The elegant new shoe store, of M Gilliam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all ages and sexes.

—John Frazier, living on ex-Sheriff Spangler's farm, near Tusseyville, was kicked in the side by a horse, but fortunately was not badly injured, though considerably bruised.

—An unfiled water ditch at the lower end of town last week resulted in several parties driving in it after night. One party's horse had its hind legs badly skinned, and another broke a buggy. Traps of the kind should have a lantern displayed after night, or a small sized suit for damages might result from an accident.

—A mysterious disease has seized upon the black bass and other fish in the Raystown branch in Huntingdon county. Thousands of dead bass, weighing from one-half to five pounds, are floating on the water's surface, or are piled up in drifts along its edges. This stream is far famed for its splendid fishing advantages, but during the past few days it has been depleted of nearly all its fish.

—There can be no doubt about it but that a marked improvement could be made by the pastors of the different religious congregations, if they would commence their services immediately after the ringing of the bell, instead of waiting ten or fifteen minutes before they begin. The congregation would not then become impatient and shift uneasily in their seats, doubting in their minds whether there will be services. Several minutes are enough for the churchgoers to get to church and they are not so tired as to need fifteen minutes to get there.

Democratic Convention.

The Democratic County Convention assembled in the court house at Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon, at two o'clock, and was called to order by chairman Heine. There was a full attendance, every district being represented, and the court room crowded. The stairways to the chamber being literally jammed one half hour before the doors were opened. The contest in Benner township delegates on the yotes was decided in allowing the two delegates cast one-half vote each on ballot. Baiser Weber, of Howard, moved a committee on resolutions to be appointed, and therefore the chairman appointed on said committee, Baiser Weber, William Pealer, Harry Fenlon, Isaac Frain and George McGaffey.

The balloting was then proceeded with, and congress was the first in order. Col. J. L. Spangler and Aaron Williams were nominated for the office. The name of Aaron Williams was withdrawn when Col. Spangler was nominated by acclamation.

For Senator, Hon. P. Gray Meek and Leonard Rhone were nominated, Rhone withdrawing, P. Gray Meek was nominated by acclamation.

For Assembly, Hon. J. H. Holt and John F. McCormick were nominated by acclamation. A resolution was offered by Mr. D. L. Zerby, appointing as congressional conferees Hon. John A. Woodward, William Wolf and Capt. Thomas E. Clark, and it was adopted by the convention.

The Senatorial conferees nominated and elected were Thomas Collins, A. J. Graham and William A. Tobias.

The balloting for Sheriff was then begun. Following is the result of the ballots:

Table with 5 columns (Ballot, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) and 6 rows (Butler, Dunkle, Parker, Ishler, Tanyer).

Mr. Heine's name was presented but the same was authorized to be withdrawn, after first ballot the name of Mr. Tanyer was withdrawn, after the third ballot, according to the rules of the convention, the name of Mr. Butler, being the lowest, was withdrawn, after fourth ballot the name of Mr. Dunkle was withdrawn under the rules, leaving Mr. Parker and Mr. Ishler in the race and on the fifth ballot Mr. Ishler received enough votes to elect him the nominee for Sheriff, and the nomination was made unanimous by the convention amid loud applause.

The office of County Treasurer was then balloted for: after the third ballot Mr. Eisenhuth's name was withdrawn under the rules of the convention, and Mr. Gramley received the nomination on the fourth ballot.

Table with 4 columns (Ballot, 1, 2, 3, 4) and 5 rows (Kimport, Eisenhuth, Herring, Gramley).

For Register, John A. Rupp, the present incumbent, was nominated by acclamation.

For Recorder the ballot was:

Table with 4 columns (Ballot, 1, 2, 3, 4) and 3 rows (Morrison, Mallory).

Frank Foreman's name was presented to the convention but withdrawn again. One ballot being necessary to decide choice of convention.

Resolutions.

The Democracy of Centre county in Convention assembled, adopted as their platform of principles the following:

1st. That we are earnestly in favor of Tariff Reform in the interest of the masses as against the classes.

2nd. That Ballot Reform is necessary and to this end we recommend the adoption of such a system as the Australian Ballot Law.

3rd. That State and Local Reform is necessary in order that the taxation for county municipal and township purposes may be equally adjusted, and the unjust discrimination against land be remedied.

4th. We are in favor of such legislation, both States and National, as will effectually prevent the creation of trust and monopolies.

5th. That we earnestly endorse the nomination of Robert E. Pattison and his associates on the State ticket and invite all good people to assist in their election, as a rebuke to the corrupt boresim of the Republican party.

ISAAC FRAIN, HALSEL WEBER, H. E. FENLON, WILLIAM PEALER, GEO. MCGAFFEY, Committee.

Deaths.

Mr. Philip Kemp, died at Pleasant Gap, on Friday last, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Kemp formerly lived at Centre Hill and was well known by all in this vicinity. He was a much respected citizen, honest and upright in all his doings and an ardent member of the Presbyterian church. His remains were taken to Centre Hill for burial on Sunday afternoon followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

Mr. Mickel, for a number of years a citizen of Boalsburg, died on last Saturday from the effects of a stroke of paralysis on Sunday previous. His remains were taken to New York city for burial, by his two sons who reside there. His age was sixty years. His widow, being his second wife, will continue to reside at Boalsburg.

Under New Management.

For several years past rumors have been afloat regarding the intended purchase from Long Bros. of the cave and hotel, and the last few days has founded still another, though as to its foundation we cannot say if correct or not. Mr. George Brandon, of the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, it is reported, has been negotiating for the property for some time lately, and at last has secured the consent of the present owners to sell to him, though nothing further has been done in the matter until Mr. Brandon had consulted with the parties whom he represents. The price we believe asked for the cave is $12,000, including the hotel building and several acres of land. The place is a bonanza for some party of the right stripe, and we think Mr. Brandon is fully capable of taking charge of it. It will be run on a modern scale and a prominent resort made of it. No finer location could be wished for and under good management will prove a paying investment for the right parties.

Camp Meeting.

Today, Thursday, the camp meeting in Lucas' woods, at Penn Cave station, commences under the auspices of the Evangelical association of Spring Mills and Centre Hall. It has been several years since a camp meeting has been held in these parts, and was thought they had died out, and remained only as a relic of by gone days, but it will be revived again with increased vigor and a success made of it. The grove is a large one and has a splendid location, only a few steps from the station, none better could have been selected for the purpose for conveniences. The attendance is expected to be large during the week it is held, and many remaining on the ground while the transient attendance will be proportionately great.

Doctors and Churches.

The Doctors of New York City say Speer's Port Grape Wine has proved to be pure, unadulterated, of a fine flavor, and tonic properties, and is unsurpassed for its restorative powers, and they prescribe it as a superior wine. Churches use it for communion.

—Mrs. Rev. Lisenring and family returned to their home at Chambersburg, after spending a week as guests of D. J. Meyer and family in this place.

Painters.

It was an inexcusable blunder that no arrangements were made with the railroad company to have a special train run from Bellefonte as far as Coburn by which delegates and others attending the convention on Tuesday could return to their homes in the evening instead of being obliged to remain over until next morning entailing expense and loss of time.

County conventions, hereafter, should be called to meet at 11 a. m., as all trains get in an hour before; the business of the convention could then be transacted in time to let all go home in the regular afternoon trains, and besides, it would cut off all the abominable wire-pulling done on the day of the convention up to 2 p. m.

Runaway Boy.

Our son, J. Morris Kimport, left home last Friday morning between the hours of one o'clock and daylight without cause or provocation and without saying a word to parents, (our only child) is nearly 16 years of age, his leaving has distressed the home. We advertise for his return and hope soon to welcome him back, the doors of which stand open for him. About 5ft 8in high, ruddy complexion, scar on upper lid of left eye; wears glasses, dark brown hair closely trimmed, dark cloth suit; barred hickory shirt, without collar, and wears a straw hat. Any information as to his whereabouts will be gladly received.

Address respectfully, John or Emma Kimport, Millheim, Centre Co., Pa.

Death of Miss Susie Wagner.

Yesterday morning, Wednesday, Miss Susie Wagner, of near Tusseyville, died of typhoid fever, the dread disease which has made such fearful ravages in the Wagner family. This is the second of Mr. Jacob Wagner's children to have died within one week, his son John having passed away last week from same disease, and one other son at present seriously ill with little hopes of his recovery. Mrs. Wagner is also ill but not seriously. Miss Susie was a young lady just entering womanhood and was aged about 14 years. The funeral will take place today, Thursday.

To Be Completed.

The Presbyterian church in this place, which has been in building two years or more and untouched for nearly a year when near completed, is expected to be finished soon. Rev. Baekerville does not wish to have the building completed and a church debt with it at the same time, but will finish as the money goes, though an effort will be made to hurry it thro in the shortest time possible. Several of his congregation are soliciting money for the cause.

Whereas, In the death of brother Wagner we have sustained the loss of a kind and generous friend and that we bear evidence to his moral and christian life.
