THE FLAG CAME DOWN

The German Emblem Mobbed in an Allegheny Labor Parade.

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS THE CRY

How Labor Day Was Observed in Other Cities—Henry George Welcomed in New York—Parades and Speeches in All the Principal Cities.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 2.—The German flag was pulled down, torn to shreds and trampled under foot yesterday afternoon in Allegheny by Junior Order United American Mechanics men. It was carried by the bakers contingent in the labor parade. At Arch street and North avenue, one aide was prevailed upon by some influential members of the Junior Order United American Mechanics to order the obnoxious flag hauled down.

The bearer refused and held the banner higher and unfurled it to the winds. The aide rode off and the spectators began to jeer. There were a large number of Junior Order men around and they were particularly incensed. They called back the aide and insisted that the German flag be removed.

Fighting for the Flag.

The officer thus urged rode into the ranks and took hold of the banner. He tried to take it from the man who carried it, but the men in the ranks quickly surrounded the aide and essayed to beat him off. Policeman Diebold, of the Allegheny force, dashed into the thick of the light and beat the horse and rider with his mace. For a time it seemed that the champions of the flag would win. Therefore the Junior Order United American Mechanics men who had encouraged the aide to remove the flag took a part. Canes and fists were used, resulting in black eyes and torn clothes. Policeman Diebold was roughly handled.

"America for Americans."

Despite the efforts of the bakers and the policemen the flag came down. The Junior Order men secured the banner and in about a minute all semblance to a country's emblem was gone. The silk was torn to shreds and the men trampled them under foot.

The Day in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The city bore a gala day appearance, flags and banners being liberally displayed. Business was generally suspended and those who did not participate in the labor demonstrations went into the country. There were two large parades, representing the two factions of the Central Labor union. A number of Single Tax men marched in a body to the Cunard steamship pier and welcomed Henry George, who arrived on the Servia from England and Australia.

Philadelphia's Labor Day.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—The banks and public offices were closed yesterday, but the day was not very generally observed otherwise. The United German Trades had a parade in which red flags were borne along with the stars and stripes. A large picnic was held at Pastime park under the auspices of the United Labor League. There were a good many sporting events in the vicinity.

Milwaukee Calls It Artisans' Day.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 2.—The labor organizations here observed Artisans' day with a procession and speaking at Shooting park. About 5,000 men were in the parade. Fully 10,000 people gathered at the park.

Lancaster's Big Parade.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 2.—Labor day was observed here with the largest industrial demonstration in the history of the city. All business was suspended. A labor mass meeting and picnic were held.

Partially Observed in Bethlehem.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 2.—The three silk mills here were idle and the banks were closed. All the iron works were in operation.

Baltimore Observes the Day.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—Labor day was generally observed by the wage earners here, although it is a municipal holiday merely.

Minister Mizner Makes Peace.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Acting Secretary Wharton received a telegram from Minister Mizner, at Guatemala, through Minister Ryan, at Mexico City, dated Aug. 28, as follows:

Went again to Acajutla, in Salvador, on Monday with three of the diplomatic corps. Met provisional president with several hundred leading men of the republic. Basis of peace explained; slightly modified; accepted and signed by Gen. Eteza. Returned here (Guatemala) yesterday afternoon, when Guatemala also accepted and signed. Both parties have been notified to retire their armies in forty-eight hours and to reduce them to peace footing in eight days. This establishes peace in Central America.

Assistant Secretary Wharton regarded this as a satisfactory settlement of the trouble.

The Franchise in Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 30.—The work of the committee on elective franchise was practically completed in the constitutional convention. The plan of suffrage agreed upon embraces the modification of the Australian ballot system known as the Dutch law; a residence of two years in the state and one in the voting precinct; the prepayment of a poll tax of 25 cents, and qualified woman suffrage based upon the possession by her or her husband, if married, of real property to the value of $200. The property qualification was abandoned and an educational qualification is provided for, limited to the ability of the voter to understand the constitution when read to him.

Pork Compensates for Art.

PARIS, Aug. 30.—Le Paris prints the following: "The negotiations between France and the United States relative to the American tariff are approaching a favorable conclusion. The Washington government will remove the duty on works of French art and France will remove the prohibition against American pork."

NEARLY DECAPITATED.

A Woman Slashes Her Throat with a Razor.

BRADFORD, Pa., Aug. 30.—Mrs. J. R. McKenzie, of Duke Centre, McKean county, Pennsylvania, committed suicide by cutting her throat with a razor during the parade of the Grand Army of the Republic yesterday. The body of the unfortunate woman was discovered by her husband at 3 p. m. The body was still warm, but life was extinct.

The woman used her husband's razor and slashed her neck in four places. The head was nearly severed from the body. The cause assigned was despondency over a wayward daughter, who is an inmate of a colored house of prostitution in this city. The unfortunate woman was highly esteemed.

Found Dead in Bed.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 1.—Joseph Brittain, of Butler, Pa., 40 years of age, single, and general manager of the Butler Salt Manufacturing Company and Chemical works, was found dead in bed at the Hotel Boyer, this city, at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, from an overdose of morphine. Mr. Brittain had been suffering from nervousness the past ten days and had been taking morphine. Whether he took the overdose with suicidal intent or ignorance is not known. Mr. Brittain organized the company of which he was general manager, with a capital of $400,000. It is stated Mr. Brittain was in trouble financially and had a great deal of personal indebtedness.

Interesting Church Reunion.

MACON, Ga., Aug. 30.—A reunion was held at the Jordan Lutheran church, near this borough. All the pastors of the congregation yet living attended, with representatives of the past ten years, who have ever worshipped in the church. The congregation was organized 146 years ago. The first church building was erected in 1749, and was a log structure. The second building was erected in 1771 and the present handsome edifice in 1842. The congregation numbers 600 communicant members and is one of the wealthiest in Lehigh county.

Footpads Stole His Tongue.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 1.—"Your money or your life" was the demand which met Samuel Francis while walking in the eastern portion of the city at an early hour Sunday morning. It came from footpads, and when Francis made a desperate resistance he was brutally assaulted and left to die. His tongue was wrenched from its roots in the attempt to keep him quiet, and his condition, when he crawled to a neighboring house unable to speak, was pitiable. He may recover. A large sum of money was taken from him.

Pennsylvania's Resources.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The census bulletin showing the financial condition of counties has been issued. Pennsylvania shows a considerable increase in her bonded indebtedness. The total bonded debt is $8,513,995, an increase of $2,000,850. She has nearly canceled her floating debt, decreasing it $3,137,399, leaving $141,337. The gross debt of the state is $8,654,943, a decrease of $1,136,441. Pennsylvania stands first of the middle states as to cash in treasury, the amount being $1,370,548. The debt of Philadelphia county is admitted.

Thievish Juveniles Jailed.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 1.—The Pottsville jail received a number of juvenile thieves. John Salmon, aged 14, was committed from Minersville for stealing a box of jewelry from a pony express wagon; Annie Cartright, of Galappo, obtained shoes by false representations; William Pheo, aged 12, and George Boehmer, aged 20, robbed one store; and Jacob Rifovich and Jacob Katcherinski, aged 12 and 13 respectively, robbed another store, and all four were committed.

Chained in a Smoke House.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—Word was received by Dr. Henry M. Wetherill, secretary of the state commission on lunacy, that the girl who has been confined in the smoke house and there chained, in Richland township, Venango county, has been transferred to the state hospital at Warren, Stewart Culp, of the county almshouse, succeeded in getting the girl. She had been receiving her food through a hole in the door, and the room was in a filthy condition.

Texas Fever in Pennsylvania.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Aug. 30.—A fatal disease has broken out among the cattle in the lower part of Berks county. It is pronounced by some to be Texas fever, and it is said to be spreading rapidly. James Kaigh, of Bristol township, has lost six cows, and several others have the disease. The farmers of the lower end townships are becoming alarmed at the state of affairs, and have notified the state authorities, who will investigate matters.

Drowned in the Susquehanna.

PLYMOUTH, Pa., Sept. 1.—The body of an unknown woman, about 35 years old, was found in the Susquehanna river here. Her attire indicated comfortable circumstances. In her pocket was $2.50, but there was nothing giving a clue to her identity. There were no marks of violence on the body and it was probably a case of suicide.

A Disastrous Parade.

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Caroline Martin, of Green township, and her daughter, Miss Manda Martin, drove into the city to look at a parade. Their team ran away, throwing both ladies out under the wheels. The old lady was fatally crushed and the young woman was so badly injured that her life is almost despaired of.

Weavers Come to Terms.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 1.—In the early part of last week the rug weavers of the Bethlehem Merino mills quit work on the announcement of a reduction of wages. The men have returned to work, accepting the firm's terms. The weavers were recently brought here from Philadelphia.

Harrisburg Call Changes Hands.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—Col. W. F. Jordan, proprietor of The Sunday Telegraph, has purchased The Morning Call, which made its first appearance under his management today. Under the new regime it will be a straight-out Republican paper.

Shot While Stealing Apples.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—Edward Farrell and Hugh Murphy, of Manayunk, each aged about 12 years, were stealing apples from an orchard yesterday afternoon, when Farrell was shot in the abdomen and fatally wounded.
