For Auditors,
J. R. MITCHELL,
SAMUEL KLINE.

The fellow in the Bellefonte jail for shooting Waterhouse, must be a disciple of Quay—he keeps his mouth shut, after committing a great crime.

Well, farmers, who raised your valuations? A Republican board of commissioners did it—and you don't want any more of 'em.

Taxpayers, who spent the county's surplus? A Republican board of commissioners spent it—and you don't want any more of 'em.

Besancon, the French aeronaut, and Hermite, the astronomer propose to make a balloon expedition to the North pole, starting from Spitzbergen. The Reporter wishes Besancon success and trusts he will keep cool until he reaches the pole.

Arkansas held its election on Tuesday, and carry the news to the fellows on the Rush township Republican county ticket—the Democrats doubled their majority. The Democrats claim the state by from 25,000 to 30,000 majority.

Could Bellefonte's post master walk straight after Delamater left that town last Monday? or did he describe curves, corners and zigzags, as usual? He cheered for Parti-mater and when told he was mixed he righted himself and cheered for Dilatation.

Who scattered the surplus of our county, left in the treasury when Greist and Wolf went out of office? It was the present Republican officials who did the job—hoelers, favorites, 365-days-in-the-year-commissioners, and gutter-snipe politicians got the boodle, in fraudulent bridge contracts and such like jobs.

The Independent Republican leaders have been in conference at Altoona, and have determined on a plan of organization and work which will be made public in due time. It is stated ex-Senators Lee and Emery and ex-Representative Mapes are active in the movement. Many other prominent names are mentioned.

Delamater was at Bellefonte, on Monday. His reception was as cold as ice, and he left our county in anything but a hopeful mood. Very, very few Republicans called to see him. He took a warm supper at the home of Gen. Hastings and that was the only warm thing he met with in Bellefonte. Delamater, at this hour, is an overwhe mingly licked man.

The honest people of this county for three years have been crying for a change in the sheriff's and commissioners' offices, and they mean to have it the coming fall. Good men of all parties see the necessity of a change, and they have their eyes on the Democratic ticket as being properly manned for the work of reform. Ishler as sheriff and Goodhart and Adams as commissioners will give the people hope for better things. It is time, too, for another three years of the Henderson-Cook gang and our county would be a byword all over the state.

The Gazette Again Proven A Slanderer.

The documents below, sworn to by Wm. Ishler, and Mr. Valentine, a life-long Republican, again prove the wretch, Fiedler, to be a liar, which he has been proven heretofore; he is crooked in what he says as he is in his boozey walks.

BELLEFONTE, Aug. 27, 1890.

My attention was called to an article in the Keystone Gazette, of the 15th inst., and reiterated in the issue of the same paper Aug. 22, intimating that I had secured my nomination at the Democratic convention for the office of Sheriff, by an agreement or deal with others, whereby I was to pay nine hundred dollars. It may therefore be due to those of my friends with whom I am not personally acquainted and who are not familiar with the extravagant and untruthful utterances of that paper to say that there is not a word of truth in it, and to emphasize my denial of the charge I have appended my affidavit:

CENTRE COUNTY, s. s.:

Before me, a Notary Public, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, personally appeared Wm. A. Ishler, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: that he did not pay, agree to pay, nor had he made any arrangement or promise with any one person or combination of persons, for money or place, whereby his nomination was secured or his election is to be advanced, nor was he asked to do so by any one. Wm. A. ISHLER.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 27th day of Aug., 1890.

E. M. Blanchard,
Notary Public.

Following this we give a letter from one of Bellefonte's old and most respected citizens, and still further an ardent and life-long republican, who denounces the infamous charge and further says that he will vote for Mr. Ishler next November. Read what Mr. Robert Valentine has to say:

BELLEFONTE, Sept. 2, 1890.

I have read the statement and affidavit of Mr. William A. Ishler, above. He has been farming for me for the past twenty-two years, and I have found him perfectly truthful, honest and reliable in all respects, and I would not believe that he could be induced to engage in any disreputable method to enhance his personal interests in business transactions, or for his political preferment; and if elected, I have the most implicit confidence in the honest, honorable and capable management of the trust committed to his care. I certainly do not believe the allegations of partisan newspapers, that Mr. Ishler procured his nomination by either the payment of money, or the promise of position, and I propose to vote for him, knowing that he is a man of rigid integrity and excellent character.

ROBERT VALENTINE.

The Philadelphia Lincoln Club, a Republican organization, has issued its declaration, signed by a long list of names, to support Pattison.

CONGRESSMAN KENNEDY of Ohio, a Republican denounces Quay as a self-convicted criminal; the Philadelphia News, one of the leading Republican papers of the Quaker City, denounces Quay as an embezzler and declares it will support Pattison for governor; the Herald of Canonsburg, Washington county, heretofore a Republican paper, places the Democratic ticket at the head of its editorial column and announces that it will support Pattison; at a meeting Wednesday at Bradford of the Republican committee of McKean county two members, J. C. Smith and Harold Day, announced publicly that they would not support Delamater. These are a few of this week's incidents showing how strongly the political tide is running in favor of the Democratic party and candidates. What can the other side show to offset them?

In the senate by the joint action of the Democratic senators and Western Republicans, binding twine was put on the free list. This is of importance to Western wheat growers. Then the Southern members asked for horse cotton bagging, which is of like importance to cotton growers, also added to the free list. It was voted down, which was a display of narrowminded sectionalism by Western Republicans, who had just got binding twine on the free list. In five-minute speeches Carlisle Vance and others scored these bogus reformers.

Mrs James G. Blaine, Jr., had a rather heroic operation performed on her rheumatism on Wednesday. The surgeons broke her right arm, near elbow and next week they will break her right leg, at the knee, with the hope of also straightening that member.

The candidacy of General Hastings for the position of Director General of the World's Fair at Chicago is authoritatively announced by his friends.

The National World's Fair Commission will meet in Chicago on September 15, when the office of Director General will be formally created, its powers defined, and its salary fixed. It is generally understood her that the position will be one of great consequence, and it will control quite as much influence and involve quite as many opportunities to make a national reputation for executive ability as did the position held by General Hawley in 1876. It is said that the salary of the Director General will be not less than $25,000 a year. The position will involve, however, such large expenditures that it is not likely that the appointment will be sought by General Hastings or any one else merely on account of the salary.

General Hastings has already secured the unanimous support of both the Pennsylvania and the Ohio delegations in Congress for the appointment, and he has also the support of many other influential persons. It is understood that both the Pennsylvania Senators have been acting in unison in forwarding the interests of General Hastings. Should the Director General of the World's Fair be a Pennsylvania and such a Pennsylvania as General Hastings, his friends urge that the natural consequence will be of great benefit to the Keystone State.

The customs tax on coal is an absurdity, and injuriously affects important Pennsylvania interests, as it impelled the Canadians to impose a like tax, and thus destroyed a promising market in central Canada for our bituminous product. Galusha A. Grow stated the case exactly a short time ago he said:

If there was no duty on coal between Canada and the United States, I think the Nova Scotia region would supply Canadian territory east of Montreal and most of the states of Maine, and perhaps some in Boston; and Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana would supply all the territory west of Montreal to the Rocky mountains. We should supply ten miles of territory to their one.

Senator Sherman, like Secretary Blaine sees the signs of the times, and yesterday in the senate he proposed to take off the seventy-five cents a ton duty we levy on coal conditional that Canada will repeal its sixty cents duty. Here is free grade for you. When democrats proposed to do this same thing—and the Mills bill did not go that far—we were all blasted as "British free traders."

Bob Kennedy, Repub. of Ohio, scared Quay in a speech, in the house, one day last week, in a manner that took the flesh from the bone. Bob Kennedy is an Ohio leader and ex-lieut. governor.

Here are some of the gems of Buckeye oratory Kennedy let loose on the devoted head of the lone fisherman:

The Judas Iscariot of 2,000 years ago is to find a counterpart in the Judas Iscariot of to-day. The Judas who took the 30 pieces of silver and went and hanged himself has left an example for the Matt Quays that is well worthy of their imitation.

I do know in that face these charges [that is, of plundering the treasury of Pennsylvania] Matt Quay has remained silent and has neither sought nor attempted to seek opportunity to vindicate himself.

He has not done so, for this I denounce him.

The Republican party cannot afford to follow the lead of a branded criminal.

His (Quay's) silence under such circumstances is the confession of guilt. An honorable man does not long dally when his honor is assailed.

He (Quay) has delayed too long to justify the belief in his innocence, and he stands a convicted criminal before the bar of public opinion. Under such circumstances he should be driven from the head of a party whose very life his presence imperils.

The Republican party has done enough for its pretended leader. Let him be relegated to the rear.

It is no longer a question of the vindication; it is now a question of the life of the party itself.

Speaking of candidate Delamater, the Philad. Times says:

Sunday, the seventh day of the month, will find the Senator at Bellefonte, in Centre county, as the guest of General Daniel H. Hastings, his principal competitor for the Governor's nomination at Harrisburg. On Monday the Senator and the General will visit a number of the Republicans of Centre county, and both will be called upon some time during the day to make speeches, it being the first for the adjutant general since the convention. It is presumed that General Hastings will, in his address define his position.

Wm. Ishler, as sheriff wont take any illegal fees. Ishler is an honest man.

Local Briefs

The Puddlers Still Out.

The heaters and nailers at the Bellefonte works, who, with the puddlers, have been on a strike, have gone back to work and will continue until all the iron is used. The puddlers are still out. The proprietors refuse to sign the scale.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Herald writes as follows:

There is serious alarm among the republican managers here over the outlook in Pennsylvania. Quay is now weakening on his claim that Delamater will be elected by 50,000 majority, and has called on his friends, Clarkson and Dudley to devise some means of salvation for him. One of Quay's greatest troubles is the lack of money. The manufacturers who were tried by him in 1888 do not like the way in which the tariff bill has been delayed, and are very slow in coming down with their subscriptions. Meanwhile alarming reports are heard from all over the states of republican disaffection and gathering of labor voters and independents around the Pattison standard. The defeat of Delamater, according to the gossip here, would not only be the end of Matt Quay; it would bring a new factor into the democratic presidential field.

Fred Dupree, a half-blood Sioux Indian, has two charming daughters that he wishes to marry to white men. He said when he found suitable young men of good business qualifications who would promise to treat them well he would give their hands in marriage, whether they (the girls) were willing or not and would present each couple the day they were wed with $10,000 worth of horses and cattle and 400 acres of land. Dupree's oldest daughter was married on the terms to Douglass Carlin, a "society leader" of Pierre, two years ago.

The north bound Louisville and Nashville express train from New Orleans was held up over the big Escambia river near Flomaton on Monday night. Just after the train left Flomaton two masked men got on the engine, covered the engineer and ordered him to hold up over the river. They forced him to go back and open the express and baggage cars. The robbers kept up a continual firing and terrified the train crew and passengers. They robbed the express car and got a considerable sum of money the exact amount not being known. The robbers are supposed to be Rube Burrows and his gang.

After going through the train the thieves made off through the woods. The sheriff of Escambia county, with a posse of men and a pack of bloodhounds is in hot pursuit.

A Kind Friend.

Is what they call that famous remedy, Red Flag Oil, it quickly cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, cuts, Bruises, Burns, Sores and all pain. It is good for man or beast. No other medicine has won for itself such confidence as Dr. Lee's Liver Regulator. It is the best combination for the cure of all Kidney and Liver Complaints. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

There is excitement and deep indignation in the ranks of the British aristocracy. The dean of Christ church college, Oxford, has intimated that it is going down to the lowest abyss of degradation and carrying with it the honor and greatness of England. This severe disciplinarian annoyed by the frequent cases of intoxication and immorality reported to him, "called up" some recently arrived Eton collegians, all of whom are sons of lords, baronets, ambassadors and representatives of wealth generally. Said he: "Students of Christ Church—I wish I could also say young gentlemen—the time has come to call you to very serious account. It pains me to receive reports that you so behave yourselves within the precincts of this seat of learning—whence have arisen some of England's greatest and noblest men—as to be called a nuisance and disturbers of the common peace. Your brawls and indisciplinable scandalize the residents, whose wives and daughters fear you as they would savage animals of the lower order. "You consider that because you are the sons of nobility you are entitled to exultation. You are laboring under a delusion from which you may have a very rude awakening. This college is not intended for well-born dunces such as you.

"You are not content with manly recreations such as your forefathers delighted to enjoy—the pleasures of the field, of the river, of the home. You court fierce and disreputable pleasures—drinking to excess in public places, to your quality, it is said; gambling in gilded parlors, to show how wealthy you are following after women, whose presence by the side of your mothers and sisters you would resent as contagious contact. Yet you do not hesitate to place yourselves on a level with them and lay a foundation for degradation which must follow you through life.

"What husbands and fathers of the future! It is such as you who have demoralized tutors and guardians who have toiled to wealth and position for personal benefit. You should be examples to the poor and struggling. You are, I repeat only a disgrace."

The Republican majority in Vermont has got down to 12,692. Last election it was 28,000. Never before, since the organization of the Republican party has its majority fallen so near zero.

Will sheriff Cook make a show of the man who killed Waterhouse? We know if Wm. Ishler gets into the sheriff's office, no circus will be made of murders.

The total population of the State of Vermont is announced as 332,295, a decrease in ten years of 81. Yes, and her Republican majority is decreasing too.

Married.

GEHRET-WIAN.—On August 28, 1890, at the Lutheran parsonage on Spring street, by Rev. Ed. F. Honour, Mr. William Gehret, and Miss Maggie M. Wain both of Bellefonte.

—THE REPORTER for the campaign 20 cents cash, only.

—Our merchants request us to state that they will pay 22 cents for nice fresh butter, but in no case will packed or rickety butter be received at that price.

—The elegant new shoe store, of M. Gillam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all ages and sexes.

A Glorious Record.

Since the introduction of the Famous Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure in this vicinity, the death rate from Consumption has decreased wonderfully; it never fails to effect a cure. Price 25 cents. Try it. Trial size bottle free. Dr. Lee's Liver Regulator has done more to relieve the suffering of mankind than all other medicines; it cures all Stomach and Liver troubles. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

The Only One.

Again it affords us much pleasure to be able to record the fact that the Pittsburg Exposition opened its doors promptly as advertised. Many things to be seen are worthy of much of our space, but we will dwell only on one of its kind at the great show. Well may we say it is worthy of comment. We refer with pride to the display of Mr. Max Klein, the wholesale liquor merchant. There you will find a complete distillery in full operation. His Silver Age Eye stands on a pyramid high enough to overlook all other displays; the blue, and cases show at once the extent of his trade, conveying the impression, that he ships to all parts of the country. His Pennsylvania Eye Whiskies, his imported and domestic wines, brandies and cordials are prominent features. No other liquor house in the country would dare to compete with him in making a display and to other home in his line can or will sell goods as pure and at such reasonable prices. You can leave orders at his stand or apply to him direct for his complete catalogue and price list. Such a house should receive the custom of all who wish fair treatment and to Max Klein & Federal St., Allegheny, Pa., we can recommend you.
