THE CENTRE REPORTER Kennedy's Speech in the Re-

ceedings of congress differs from the speech as originally delivered in the elimination of certain passages which, it has been asserted, were contrary to parliamentary rules and usages. The revised speech is hardly less severe than as originally delivered, but it is believed by the congressmen from Ohio to be now in conformity with the rules of the house governing criticisms in the debate of the other branch of the legislature. The first part of the speech, which was devoted to the federal election bill, is unchanged. Coming down to the attack upon the senate no change is made in that part referring to the high character and standing of Webster, Clay, Fessenden and Wade. Then after declaring that Ohio has twice within a decade been disgraced by senators chosen simply because they were able to outbid other contestants, there is this sentence: "Surely the cloak of senatorial courtesy has been used to hide the infamy and the corruption which has dishonored and disgraced a body which was once the proudest in the land." This is the only reference to the "cloak of senatorial courtesy," all of that part declaring that senatorial courtesy had become a stench in the nostrils of the people and a cloak to cover up infamies be omitted. The only change made so far as Senator Quay is concerned, consists in the elision of the
