WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND KNOW.

Gleanings of Importance from All Fields of News, Picked Up Here and There Through the State, Political, Military and All Other Departments.

Allentown has 3,807 children enrolled in the public schools. There are 75 teachers.

Frederick D. Keighley, mine inspector of the Uniontown district, has resigned, and will be succeeded by William Dunbar, of Buena Vista.

John Blake has been arrested on the charge of having robbed the residence of Mr. Herbert Cox, in West Whiteland, Chester county.

Eben Clinton Hess, ex-deputy warden of the Northampton county prison, died suddenly at his home in Upper Mt. Bethel, of apoplexy, aged 49.

William West, the colored man on trial for the murder and robbery of the Crouch family, was convicted of murder in the first degree. He was remanded for sentence.

Abram S. Hull, master mechanic of the Cumberland Valley railroad for thirty years past, fell dead in front of his residence, from apoplexy. He was 64 years old.

While watching the workmen at one of his oil wells performing some labor James McElhenny, a well known oil producer of Butler, was instantly killed by a board falling from the top of the oil well derrick.

James March had a writ of attachment for $35,000 issued against the South Mountain Railroad company. Sheriff Miller will make levies in Dauphin, Lebanon, Berks, Lehigh and Northampton counties.

In an agray at an unlicensed liquor saloon, or "speak easy," in Allegheny City, John Bothwell was stabbed to death by William Flinn, a late arrival from Louisville. The affray was caused by a dispute over a woman. Flinn is in jail.

John Donley, of Philadelphia, an employe in the train service of the Pennsylvania railroad, was instantly killed near Mountville station. He fell from his train and was run over. His head was completely severed from his body.

At Pittsburg a big cut in the price of glass jars has been made in the price of glass jars. The jobbers are buying at from 15 to 20 per cent. under the list and are reaping a harvest. The Manufacturers' association has split and every manufacturer is selling for almost any price he can get.

While engaged in one of the mills of the Mt. Holly Paper company, at Mt. Holly Springs, six miles south of Carlisle, Theodore Sweigert, aged 41 years, was caught by a fly wheel and instantly killed. His body was mangled terribly. A wife and four small children survive him.

John Wilson, a negro hostler in Phillips' livery stable, murdered Timothy Slay, an Irishman. They got in a quarrel over the hire of a team and Wilson struck Slay with the pitchfork, breaking his neck. He was arrested and taken to Chester county jail. The coroner's inquest will be concluded today.

The miners at the Snodgrass mines, up the Monongahela river, are out on strike. The cause of the trouble is that the firm discharged a blacksmith, whereupon the miners all quit. The miners demand the reinstatement of the discharged men, but up to this time the operators have firmly refused to concede the demand.

David McElroy, a section hand on the Baltimore and Ohio road, was killed at Hogssett's cut, a mile north of Uniontown. Five men were on a handcar and were run into by an engine. Four of the men jumped off when they heard the engine whistle for the cut, but McElroy stayed on the car and was fatally injured. He was 50 years old and unmarried.

The building 967 Liberty street, Pittsburg, occupied by D. J. Rox, box manufacturer; Dean & Neibaum, flour merchants; and several other firms, was damaged by fire and water Friday night to the extent of about $15,000. The loss is divided between the different occupants and is covered by insurance. Chief Evans and two firemen were injured at the fire.

Albert Bowman, a shoe dealer worth $15,000 and doing a good business, had become partially insane by the fear, as he said, of poverty, and for some time had almost starved himself. Some time ago he bought a pistol with the intention of killing himself, but his wife took it away from him. Early yesterday morning he ran to his wife and cried, "Give me my pistol, quick! There are burglars in the store." The woman, not suspecting his intent, gave him the pistol. He ran down stairs and then shot himself fatally.

The working mill of the large Dupont powder works at Wapwallopen, seven miles below Shickshinny, was exploded with terrific force from some unknown cause. The explosion took place before the employes had assembled for work. Three men engaged at the magazine, who were near by when it occurred, were burned. The force of the explosion was distinctly felt over an area of eight miles. Houses shook until the windows fell out, while large trees in the vicinity of the mills were torn from their roots and carried clear across the river.

A serious freight wreck occurred at Cresson Saturday in which a brakeman named Fee was instantly killed. A number of cars were piled up and the four tracks were blocked for several hours. The wreck was caused by a west bound train crossing from one track to another. Another west bound train crashed into it. At the same time an east bound freight came crashing along and piled into the first named train. About fifteen cars were knocked into kindling wood. Passenger traffic was considerably delayed in consequence.

In the United Brethren conference at Mountville the committee on grievances reported that Rev. Z. C. Mower had, after due consideration, been found guilty of "immorality and fraudulent transactions," and recommended his expulsion from the conference and church; also that Rev. P. H. Garrett was found guilty of conduct unbecoming a Christian minister, and recommended his expulsion. Both recommendations were adopted. H. T. McNally was granted a license to preach. A. S. Snyder, J. F. Smith and U. S. G. Renna, having finished the three years' course of reading, were passed and referred to the committee on ordination. The committee on boundaries reported, making a number of changes in the circuits.

James M. Dougherty, the insane lover of Mary Anderson, who murdered Dr. Lloyd at the Kings county lunatic asylum, New York, was four years ago a telegraph operator at Dundaff, a summer resort in Susquehanna county, six miles from Carbondale. While there he claimed that Dougherty was but an assumed name, he coming east from Nevada, where he said he was interested with Mackay in silver mining operations, in order to get a quiet place where he could perfect a perpetual motor on which he was working. He contributed many articles on this scheme to local papers, and left Dundaff, after two years' residence, because of an alleged intimacy with a young woman. He went first to Scranton and then to New York.

THE BREWMASTERS.

They Meet in Annual Convention in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The 600 members of the Brewmasters' Union of the United States, who came to this city from New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis to hold a three days' convention, begun business by registering their names at the Philadelphia German society's headquarters, Franklin and Fairmount avenues.

This morning the convention was opened formally at a meeting in Maenner hall, at which an address was delivered by Bund. President William Gerst, of Cincinnati. At this meeting officers will be elected to serve during the year. This evening Amberg's company will give a special performance in the Grand Opera house for the visiting delegates and their friends.

To-morrow afternoon 600 brewmasters will drive through Fairmount park, stopping to inspect Brewerton, Lehigh, Lebanon, Berks, Lehigh and Northampton counties.
