The Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust company of Philadelphia, receiver of the American Life Insurance company, has petitioned the court of Dauphin county to grant it authority to enter into an agreement with William G. Knowles for the transfer to him of bonds of the Goshen Gas Machinery company for Goshen Gas Machinery company for $10,000. These bonds were appraised at $14,500 in the inventory, but the petitioners set forth that no more than $10,-009 can be obtained for them. There was some question as to the ownership of the bonds and the receiver is of the opinion that the transfer to Knowles would be most advantageous to the policy holders.

TRADES UNION CONVENTION.

To Form a Pennsylvania Branch of the Federation of Labor. HARRISBURG, Oct. 21. — Representatives of many of the trades unions throughout the state met in the hall of the house of representatives and effected a temporary organization by the election of J. W. Bisbing, of Philadelphia, president, and C. K. Willetts, of Erie, secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of C. A. Miller, Harrisburg; D. J. Kramer, Erie; George Kreider, Lancaster; Mahlon Barnes, Philadelphia, and D. H. Cris-man, Pittsburg. The convention has been called at the instance of the Central Labor union, of Erie, for the purpose of organizing a state branch of the American Federation of Labor, the object being to secure the union of all the trades organizations in Pennsylvania under a central jurisdiction. A series of resolutions will be adopted setting forth the purposes and aims of the Federation of Labor. Some important legislation will also be discussed. It is the purpose of the convention to appoint a legislative committee to guard the interests of the trades unions before the coming session of the legislature. "Politics will be ignored," said one of the leading delegates, "and any attempt to introduce anything of the kind will be downed."

Among the prominent trade unionists in attendance are John S. Kirchner, of Philadelphia, and Daniel Kramer, of Erie, two of the national organizers of the Federation of Labor; J. W. Bisbing, of Philadelphia, general organizer of the gathering "Indian tobies" as they fell from a tree.
