Death of Mrs. Dale.

We are grieved to chronicle the death of an estimable lady, Mrs. Kate M., wife of C. Dale, jr., of near Pleasant Gap, on Friday last, at 1 p. m. Mrs. Dale had been ill for a number of weeks, and her sufferings were great, but she bore all with true Christian fortitude and often forgot her sufferings in her desire to speak of things Heavenly. She was a consistent and devoted member of the Lutheran church, and the Pleasant Gap congregation will miss her greatly. She was a daughter of Wm. Musser, dec'd., of near Pine Grove, and was married to Mr. Dale some 21 years ago. She was born August 7, 1837, her age being 53 years, 2 months and 10 days. Her funeral at Pleasant Gap cemetery, on Monday, in spite of the inclemency of the weather was one of the largest yet held there, and the many eyes filled with tears indicated that one universally loved and esteemed had departed for the realms where there is neither pain or sorrow. Rev. Trossie preached the funeral sermon.

The Horses Ran Away.

Last week a drummer named English hired a team of horses from Boozer Bros. livery in this place, for a few days trip through the western part of the county, and while stopping at a store in Port Matilda, near the railroad, a freight train came along, and the horses took fright, running away, completely demolishing the light wagon, and cutting themselves badly about the legs. The horses were so badly injured that they were unable to be moved from Port Matilda to this place until Tuesday last, when the horses and wrecked wagon arrived in a freight car. Both horses, a black team are in bad shape, and one, Doc, will have to be killed, a leader in the hind leg being cut off, and the horse otherwise cut up. The other horse it is thought will recover. The team was left untied while the drummer was in the store.

Price—Emerick.

Thursday evening, last, October 16, the home of Mr. John Emerick, on church street, was the scene of a pretty and charming wedding, at which Miss Mary H., the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerick was wedded to Mr. John H. Price, a gentleman of Stephenson county, Illinois. Rev. W. E. Fischer, of the Lutheran church performed the ceremony, which was private, only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride being present. The bride and groom have tarried in town for a few days and will shortly take their departure for Mr. Price's western home in Illinois, where he has business interests.

Killed a Bear.

Last week a hunting party from Tylerville, Clinton county, accompanied by Willis Weber and Alf. Krapp, of this place, seven in all, were putting in several days after deer at Cherry Run, near the scene of the Culby murder, and succeeded in killing a black bear which weighed, when dressed, over three hundred pounds. The bear was killed by Willis Weber, the first shot bringing her down, it only ran a short distance into the bushes after being shot, where she was found dead. Willis can live off of bear meat for some time for brain was very fat and not old.

Wedding at Penn Hall.

At Penn Hall, Wednesday, the marriage of Miss Sarah C. Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Herring, of that place, to Mr. John Hoesterman took place at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. S. G. Shannon officiated at the ceremony which took place at 12 o'clock. About thirty invited guests were present, and the couple received many pretty and valuable presents. After the ceremony an elaborate dinner was spread and all partook heartily thereof. The groom is a resident of Penn Hall, and is held in high esteem by his acquaintances, and has made an enviable choice in Miss Sarah. All join in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Installation Services.

The installation of Rev. Henry C. Baskerville of the Sinking Creek and Spring Mills congregations, will take place on Tuesday Oct. 28. Rev. Robert Hamill, D.D. will preside and propound the constitutional questions. Rev. Dr. Laurie, of Bellefonte, to preach the sermon. Rev. Dr. Hamill to charge the people. Rev. Eliot, of Bellefonte, to make the charge to the pastor. Services at Centre Hill at 10 a. m., at Spring Mills at 1:30 p. m.

He Was a Jumbo Indeed.

Last Saturday afternoon a man weighing 616 pounds passed through Harrisburg on his way to Washington, D. C. A circular told his weight and it gave him the name of "Jumbo." He was too large to move himself, and he was lying flat on his stomach in the baggage car. It required the combined efforts of nine men to lift him on a truck and transfer him to the Washington train. A great crowd of people gathered around the car to see him.

"Think not the clothes will make the man," but they help. It is an undisputed fact that the Philad. Branch has more handsome styles, finer goods and better assortment of clothing than any two stores in Bellefonte.

—Butter and eggs 20 cents.—C. P. Long, Spring Mills.

Almost Buncoed.

Philip Hillpush, Esq., is one of the most prominent citizens of Selinsgrove, Snyder county, says the Sunbury Daily, on Tuesday came near losing a large sum of money. It is the old story over again of the bunco game as played by the latter day sharps. In fact it was the same game that so successfully cheated farmer Keller out of his hard earned cash. In this case the strangers approached Mr. Hillpush on the street, and both of them being well dressed and with pleasing manner introduced themselves to him. The usual long conversation followed, in which both young men knew a great many people who Mr. Hillpush was acquainted with, and in fact they knew a great deal about him and his affairs. So slick do they play their hands that it is almost impossible to detect them in their game. At last a box was produced and the two young men began to draw from the envelopes in the box.

The one acted as banker and the other would draw, sometimes a blank but often a prize which would be paid by the other. At length Mr. Hillpush was requested to draw, which he did and his ticket was numbered in large figures $5000. He was at once informed that he had drawn the largest prize in the lottery but to have the money he must show that he had a like amount. It was then agreed that the two men should meet Mr. Hillpush on High street, which is one of the back and lonely streets of that town, in fifteen minutes, which would give him time to go to the bank and draw out the $5000. Mr. Hillpush went to the bank and drew a check for $5000 payable to himself. It at once flashed across the officials of the bank that something was wrong in Mr. Hillpush drawing out such a large amount of money. Of course his check was good for that amount and there was nothing to do but to pay it, but they took at least half an hour in doing so. This delay not only saved Mr. Hillpush his money but possibly his life. He took the money and started for High street but when he arrived there the men had been gone a few minutes as they suspected by his long delay that he was getting out a warrant for them. When the men first commenced the game they produced ten thousand dollars in bills which possibly made Mr. Hillpush think the game was genuine. All traces of the men were lost.

G. F. Kribbas.

Our candidate for congress, Mr. Kribbas, was thro this side the county last week stopping at Coburn, Aaronsburg, Millheim, Penn Hall, and Centre Hall, and shook hands with many of our people. He is a plain man in appearance, nothing fopish or snobbish about him, but shows to be a man every inch, honest, intelligent and straightforward, just the kind of man the people would like to represent them in congress. He went away pleased with the favorable impression he made among our people.

A Warning.

Under the new lottery law now in force, newspapers are prohibited from publishing any notice or advertisement of the nature of a lottery, whether foreign or local. All schemes to increase sales whereby the awarding of a prize is to be decided by lot or drawing—whether for the benefit of churches, societies or individuals, is a violation of the law and the advertiser, as well as the newspaper publishing the advertisement, are liable to a heavy fine and imprisonment. Newspapers publishing such advertisements cannot be admitted to the mails and when offered will be forfeited or seized by the postmaster where offered for mailing.

Edward Riggles killed.

Edward Riggles, of Howard, Centre county, was killed on Saturday while out on a squirrel hunt. In making an effort to dislodge a squirrel from a young sapling it appears that he used the butt of his gun to jar the tree, by which foolish act the weapon was discharged and the contents entered his abdomen. Dr. Mothensburgh, of Beech Creek, was summoned, but the unfortunate victim died before his arrival.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

The ladies of the Evangelical congregation in this place will hold a Thanksgiving dinner on that day, at the parsonage in this place, for the benefit of the church. It is for a benevolent purpose and should receive proper encouragement from the citizens.

The Republicans of this district, on Tuesday nominated D. P. Oyster, of Eik county, for congress.

Krebbs will take this oyster on the half shell.

To have an honest administration of county affairs, let every Democrat vote for Adams and Goodhart and every Republican for Henry P. Sankey, and you have an honest board of commissioners.

Prices of all household necessities have gone up since the passage of the McKinley tax bill. Now let every household hit back by voting to put Patton's majority up higher.

The nomination of Mr. Krebbs, for congress, is accepted by the Democracy of this district in general. The dissatisfaction that was caused by the defeat of Mr. Kerr, has been dispelled, as Mr. Krebbs in no manner was responsible for it, and got the nomination honorably so far as he was concerned. We were among the disappointed ones, but fail to see any wrong at all in Mr. Krebbs, who is a perfectly honorable man, of level head and a sound Democrat. Stand by Mr. Krebbs, Democrats, as the Democracy need him in their efforts to carry the next House.

John A. Rupp will get just such a vote as an honest and faithful officer deserves. Why don't the Republicans withdraw their candidate for register and thus spare him the humiliation of a crushing defeat. By running against Rupp Mr. Fisher will find himself knocked so high that he won't come down in time for the Chicago fair.

Oyster will be in the soup, sure.

Every Home should Have It.

The Only One.

Again it affords us much pleasure to be able to record the fact that the Pittsburgh Exposition opened its doors promptly as advertised. The many things to be seen are worthy of much of our space, but we will dwell only on one of the greatest shows. Well may we say it is worthy of comment. We refer with pride to the display of Mr. Mack Klein, the wholesale liquor merchant. There you will find a complete display of his operation. His silver Age Eye stands on a pyramid high enough to overlook all other displays of the show, and seems show at once the extent of his trade, conveying the impression, that no ships at all parts of the country. His Pennsylvania Eye stands on a pedestal and shows the extent of his trade, conveying the impression, that no ships at all parts of the country. His Pennsylvania Eye stands on a pedestal and shows the extent of his trade, conveying the impression, that no ships at all parts of the country.
