GALE ON THE COAST.

Great Damage Sustained on the New Jersey Beaches.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 25.-The New Jersey seacoast towns received their full share of the northeasterly storm that set in Thursday. All day yesterday it stormed with no abatement. The damage sustained to the shore towns from Sandy Hook to Barnegat inlet by the severe storm and heavy tides will foot up to thousands of dol-lars. The most severe damage was sus-tained at Monmouth Beach. The sea cut a big gap into the bluff and made a clean sweep across the driveway about thirty feet wide.

The Galilee fisheries just south of Seabright were in a terrible state. The sea had washed and made a clean sweep among the fishing houses, carrying de Struction with it. In front of the big Octagon house, at Seabright, the heavy sea dashed up over the breakwater and into the basement of the hotel. The bulkheads at this place were badly dam-

All along the Shrewsbury river on the other side of the driveway the high tide had caused sad havoc. Everything that was within reach of the tide was swept away, boat houses, summer houses, all could be oseen either adrift or standing in from eight to ten feet of water.

At Normandie-by-the-Sea the ocean swept over the tracks of the New Jersey

Southern railway and made such bad breaks that at 9 o'clock yesterday morning railroad traffic had to be suspended.

Much of the bluff at Asbury Park was swept away and at Ocean Beach the boat houses of Mr. Scofield were carried Blaine Speaks for McKinley, Reed Talks in Illinois and Hill Survives a Railroad Collision.

CANTON, O., Oct. 27.-The Blaine meeting here was a success as far as numbers were concerned. Fully 15,000 strangers were in the city. Mr. Blaine and his party were given a rousing reception at the depot and were escorted to the residence of Maj. McKinley, whose guest he was while in the city.

The following is a brief synopsis of Blaine's address: This is not a contest between the Republican and Demo-cratic parties. It is a contest between protection and free trade. Then he criticized the speech of Mr. Carl Schurz at some length.

Two nations, he said, must deal fairly with each other. There should be no decided advantage on either side: this is reciprocity. They tell you how strange reciprocity is. It is thus simple: Farmer Brown brings 100 bushels of wheat into

He closed with an appeal for all to votes for Maj. McKinley. He only al-luded to the McKinley bill in a general way. Maj. McKinley then spoke and thanked the citizens for the great reception tendered Mr. Blaine.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—James G. Blaine, Mrs. Blaine, and Miss Blaine arrived here yesterday morning from Canton, O. They were met at the station by Cyrus D. McCormick, whose guests they will be until Wednesday, when they will return to the East.

Governor Hill in Peril.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—Governor Hill's tour of West Virginia came nearly having a sudden termination. When the special train which is conveying the governor and his party over the Balti-more and Ohio railroad was nearing Moundsville, W. Va., it was run into by the Chicago express, just east of the station. The party on the governor's train were considerably frightened when the crash came, but fortunately they all escaped injury.

The train stopped at Banwood, Grafton and many other towns, and the governor addressed enthusiastic crowds Md., the governor was driven to the om the platform. At Cumberland, opera house, where he talked to 2,000 voters. The people hailed him as the next president of the United States,

People Are Permitted to Guess. BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Oct. 28.—Several merchants of this city are conducting guessing and voting schemes in advertising their business, and fearing that the newspapers carrying their advertise-ments might be suppressed, Postmaster Neville was requested to consult Post-master General Wanamaker whether the schemes were prohibited by the lot-tery law. Mr. Neville has received a letter from Attorney Genefal Miller saying that such advertisements of guessing and voting contests may for the time being be permitted to run in the newspaper.

St. Paul Operators Strike.

St. Paul., Oct. 28.—At 8 o'clock last evening the entire force at the Western Union office, consisting of 35 operators, walked out in a body, leaving only two chiefs to do their work. The men are all members of the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Telegantherical Brotherhood of Telegraphers recently organized here. The walkout was caused by the discharge of ten of their number yesterday, no reason being given for their dismissal. This will badly cripple the Western Union for several days, as they have been very short of operators for some time.

DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.:
Sirs:—Last Summer I cured a Curbupon my horse with your celebrated Kendall's Spavin Cure and it was the best job I ever saw done. I have a dozen empty bottles, having used it with perfect success, curing every thing I tried it on. My neighbor had a horse with a very bad Spavin that made him lame. He asked me how to cure it. I recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure. He cured the Spavin in just three weeks.

Yours respectfully.

Doar Sirs:—I have used several bottles of your Remdall's Spavin Cure with perfect success, on a valuable and blooded mare that was quite lame with a Bone Spavin. The mare is now entirely free from lameness and shows no bunch on the joint.

Respectfully, F. H. HUTCHING.

Dn. B. J. KENDALL Co.,
Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for your far famed Kendall's Spavin Cure.
I had a four year old filly which I prized very highly. She had a very severe swollen leg. I triedabout eight different kinds of medicines which did no good. I purchased a bottle of your Kendall's
