DISGRUNTLED KNIGHTS.

Class Workers' Assemblies Contemplate Secession.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18.—A movement has been started by local assembly 6111, Knights of Labor, composed of green glass workers, which threatens to end in a big secession from the Knights of Labor ranks. The movement originated in the alleged improper conduct of Louis Arrington, master workman of the green glass workers' national assembly, owing to that gentleman's plan to build a co-operative green glass factory, which caused general dissatisfaction to the Pittsburgh assembly. A committee composed of leading members of local assembly 6111 has been at work for several weeks and according to reports is meeting with solid encouragement. The plan of the committee is to interest five of the strongest green glass workers' assemblies in the plan of seceding.

Dissatisfaction against Mr. Powderly has also been brooding in the Pittsburgh assembly for three years. The secession of the green glass workers would take from the Knights of Labor at least 3,000 members. A report on the subject is expected next Friday night.

BLOWN INTO ETERNITY.

Three Men Killed by a Boiler Explosion.

READING, Pa., Nov. 18.—A terrible accident took place at Merztown, this county, which resulted in the death of three men and the serious injury of five others. While the employees of Edward Trexler's steam factory were repairing to start work for the day and the engineer was getting up steam in the boilers, one of the large boilers exploded. The building was completely wrecked and Henry Epler, aged 21; Samsman Hilbert, aged 25, and Charles Oswald, aged 45, were instantly killed. The boiler was 10 feet long and was torn into three pieces, one of which, 23 feet long, was hurled a distance of 150 yards. The three men killed were thrown 140 feet away and lay side by side. The bodies were not much mutilated. The injured were found in the debris and removed to their homes.

Delinquent Railroads.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 15.—The secretary of internal affairs has prepared for the attorney general a list of steam and street railway companies that have failed to comply with the act of 1889, which requires them to make reports to the department of internal affairs the 31st day of August, 1890. Among the companies that have failed to make reports are the Pittsburgh and Western railroad, Western Maryland railroad and the roads operated by it, Ligonier Valley railroad, Baltimore and Cumberland Valley railroad and Harrisburg and Western railroad. Among the street railway companies are the Central passenger railway, of Pittsburgh; the Scranton passenger railway, of Scranton; and the Braddock street railway, of Pittsburgh.

The Keystone Company Wins.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 17.—The court dismissed the equity suit of certain Lancaster stockholders of the Keystone Standard Watch company against the Philadelphia management of that concern and the Keystone Watch Club company of Philadelphia. The decision sets aside so far as this court is concerned the allegation that the stock issued by the watch company was illegal. It dismisses the charge that George M. Franklin and W. Z. Semer, prominent Lancasterians, had appropriated to themselves $50,000 paid them by Charles N. Shellenberger, of Philadelphia, for the watch company. It also legalizes the assignment for the company to D. Ramsay Patterson.

THE O'SHEA SCANDAL

A Report That Parnell Will Marry Mrs. O'Shea.

INTENSE INTEREST IN THE CASE.

News of the Divorce Creates a Sensation in England and Ireland. Denial of the Rumor That Parnell is Already Married—Irish Leaders Refuse to Talk.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The latest report current in connection with the O'Shea scandal is that Mr. Parnell will marry Mrs. O'Shea as soon as she is clear from her husband. Owing to the delay of the British divorce system about seven months will pass before the marriage can take place. The rumors that Mr. Parnell has a wife to whom he was secretly united in wedlock do not find any credit and no substantial ground has been given for them.

Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood, who is not on the best of terms with Mr. O'Shea, has openly stated that as a man of honor Parnell can take but one step adequate to make the public condone his misconduct and that was to marry Mrs. O'Shea. It is thought that Mr. Parnell, unless there is something in the story of another marriage, will not be adverse to this, as he is believed to be deeply attached to Mrs. O'Shea, who retains much of her youthful beauty and whose family will compare favorably with that of Mr. Parnell as to position and public distinction.

The Balcony Scene.

A rival sheet has been circulating in London containing a caricature of Mr. Parnell in the so-called balcony scene, when he is said to have jumped off a balcony to escape the pursuit of Capt. O'Shea. Accompanying it is a parody on the balcony scene in "Romeo and Juliet." The sheet is having a large sale.

On Sunday such a large number of people went to Eltham that the local police were obliged to muster in force and turn a number of the crowd back to London.

The Dublin correspondents state that great excitement reigns in that city over the revelations and that bodies of men gathered in the streets discussing the case, and threaten to mob any one who expresses a belief in Parnell's guilt.

At Tipperary a profound sensation was caused by the news, to which the police, apparently acting under instructions, are giving the utmost publicity.

A Ghastly Scene of Shipwreck.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The account of the wrecking operations at the scene of the loss of the Serpent give some ghastly particulars. Many of the bodies of the victims are found to be headless, others are cut in twain, and all are mutilated in some way by the cruel rocks. The parish priest at Camaranis declares that there is a current of resistless strength at that point of the coast, which has given it the reputation of being the most dangerous spot on the whole Spanish shores. Numerous wrecks occur there every year.

Alarm at Mandan.

MANDAN, N. D., Nov. 18.—Superintendent Greene, at the Riverside ranch, whose ranch is between Mandan and the Sioux reservation, came in yesterday, being alarmed at the behavior and boldness of the Indians, who are coming north well armed and acting in an unfriendly manner. Yesterday a number of Indians armed with two guns each and plenty of ammunition passed through this town, presumably en route to stir up the Indians on the reservation north.

Alarm at Mandan.

A friendly Indian brings a warning from the Sioux reservation. He says there is the greatest danger and that the Indians propose to attack Fort Abraham Lincoln, knowing that there are only fifty soldiers there. Then they propose to capture Mandan, massacre the citizens and burn the town. The greatest alarm prevails among the people here. It is reported that the Indian police at Standing Rock have torn off their badges and revolted.

Preparations for War.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 18.—Adj. Gen. Devoy received a telegram from Governor Miller last night at Bismarck, requesting him to report at the latter city immediately and make active preparation for suppressing the impending outbreak of Indians at Mandan. Word was brought by a friendly Indian to Mandan that the Sioux were on the war path and ready for an outbreak.

The Knights of Labor.

DENVER, Nov. 18.—The troublesome resolution of Saturday was taken up again yesterday by the Knights of Labor general assembly and an amicable understanding reached, though no final action was taken upon it. The assembly then took up the report of the committee on finance and was still considering it when a recess was taken.

Wyoming Elects a Senator.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 17.—J. M. Carey, ex-delegate to congress, was elected United States senator from Wyoming. He received every one of the 39 Republican votes in the legislature, while George W. Baxter, the late Democratic nominee for governor, received the vote of every Democrat.

BIRCHALL DIES BRAVELY.

He Reaffirms in Writing His Innocence of the Crime.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Nov. 15.—Reginald Birchall was hanged here yesterday for the murder of F. C. Benwell last February. Death was caused by strangulation, and he was pronounced dead six minutes after the drop fell.

BIRCHALL.

Birchall walked to the gallows with a firm step but was very pale. After the reading of the service Birchall stepped forward and took his place under the scaffold, with his face turned up slightly. He took Lee-then's hand in his and the friends kissed each other under the gallows. He spoke no word after leaving his cell. For Birchall fear that by some means a counterfeit confession might be worked off on the public after his death. Birchall made out this document: WOODSTOCK GAZ., Nov. 10, 1890.—(All rights reserved.) If after my death there shall appear in the press or in any other manner whatsoever any confession that I had any hand in the murder of Mr. F. C. Benwell, or any personal knowledge of said murder with intent or malice aforethought, or any personal connection with the murder on or after the day of February or any other day, or any knowledge that any such murder was likely to be committed, or any statement further than any that I have made public previous to this date, I hand this statement to the care of Mr. George Perry, of Woodstock, Ont., that he may know that any confession or partial confession are entirely fictitious and in no way were ever written by me, neither emanated from me in any way whatsoever to any person, and the whole are fictitious and without a word of truth. This likewise applies to my story in The Mail, in which I have made no such confession or partial confession. This holds good throughout. REG. BIRCHALL.

Mrs. Birchall was kept under the influence of opiates all day. She slept nearly continuously and seems to fully realize her widowhood.

The autopsy revealed that Birchall had an unusually large brain. It weighed 501 ounces. The verdict of the jury is to the effect that no dislocation of the neck had taken place. The vertebrae were crushed in. Death was the result of strangulation. The doctors agree, however, that there was no sensibility of pain after the jerk. Before the execution Birchall had a long talk with Dr. Rice about it, expressing the hope that it would be well done.

Birchall was buried in the jail yard soon after the verdict was reached. Thus ends the story of Birchall's crime and expiation.

TO TRY THE CURE.

Boston Will Have a Koch Consumption Cure Institute.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—It is announced that the project to establish in Boston an institute where consumptive patients may be treated by Koch's tuberculosis cure is to be put into operation at once. A well known local physician, and enthusiast on the subject of tuberculosis, who has just returned from Berlin, where he had an opportunity to investigate the proposed new cure for consumption, is about to take active steps to provide a hospital for the reception of those afflicted with the disease.

The lymph for the inoculations is on the way to this city, and arrangements have been completed to make cultures of it, so that a full supply will be constantly at hand for the members of the medical profession who will use it.

The Bridge Gave Way.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 18.—As a freight train loaded with hogs and grain was crossing the bridge over the Kaw river, in this city, on the Kansas, Wyandotte and Northwestern railroad, one span of the bridge gave way and precipitated five cars into the river thirty feet below. A colored man named Allen Moore, who was stealing a ride, was killed. Fireman Fred Allen, of Lawrence, who went down with the engine, is under the wreck and probably killed. Engineer F. H. Patch jumped and was fatally injured by falling timbers and iron.

A Reaction in South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Congressman Cothran, of South Carolina, who is in the city, says that a reaction in favor of Senator Hampton has set in, and that he will be returned to the senate. "If the Haskell ticket had won," said Mr. Cothran, "the Alliance members of the legislature being in the majority, would certainly have made Tillman United States senator."

Ingalls Is Hopeful.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Deputy Second Auditor Franklin has received a letter from Senator Ingalls, in which he declares himself to be hopeful and even confident of re-election. The epistle concludes with the quotation: "The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong, but he that endures to the end, the same shall be saved."
