CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., DEC. 4.

ONLY 18 MONTHS OLD.

"The Racket" is today the most popular store in Bellefonte among all classes of people. There is a reason for this. The crowds that visit us daily are increasing. Bargains in fine Dress Goods and Trimmings, Notions, Novelties, Fancy Goods, Shoes, etc., arrive daily and are carried away in great bundles by our customers. You may just as well have your share of the Kuriosities.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Special Notice.

As I contemplate a change in my business, by the 1st of March, I now offer my entire stock of clothing and gents furnishing goods regardless of cost. This is no humbug, but a straight offer.

SIMON LOEB.

- Pork is selling at $5 dressed. Beef the same. -Thanksgiving was a fine day with a wintry atmosphere. -Good substantial clothing for very little money at S. Loeb's. -Some three or four new houses are to go up again in the next 6 months, in this place. -Joseph Jordoa, of Aaronsburg, formerly of Potter township, has passed his 86th year. -Do not fail to read notice and advertisement of Simon Loeb in this week's issue. -Byron Garis has finished the wall for Will Runkle's new house, and a good job it is. -Wm. Colyer has fitted up a room for a new store near his saw mill on the south side of the valley. -The Evangelical congregation of Millheim will hold a Sunday School convention on Jan. 9 to 10. -Jacob Bible, we are informed, will open a store at Potters Mills, in the room formerly occupied by Mr. Strong. -Rev. Stover of the Evang. church had an interesting protracted meeting in operation at Coburn, last week, doing much good. -Barnet E. Sanbuth, died on Friday in Penn township. He had been an invalid for near fifteen years. He was aged about 80 years. -Centre Hall will have a musical Convention commencing Jan. 5, to be held in the Reformed church, under a auspices of Ladies Aid Society. -The boys are utilizing the pavements for coasting, and a fellow will have to do some dodging or find himself wiping up the pavement from being run into by a "jumper." -We direct the attention of the reader to the announcement of G. W. Bushman, in another column. He has received an exquisite assortment of goods suitable for holiday presents, and at modern prices. -On last Saturday, about noon, the dwelling of Mr. Condo, the blacksmith near Penn Hall, took fire on the roof, and quite a hole had been burned around the chimney, when it was discovered in time by a neighbor to raise the alarm, and the fire was put out. -A scheme is now on foot in various parts of the state for numbering the county roads and numbering the farm houses as they are in the city, putting up sign-boards at the corners, and in fact making it very easy to find a given point in the rural district. -The grand musical convention to be held in Pine Grove Mills, under the direction of Prof. J. A. Weaver, during the week of Dec. 15th inclusive, gives promise of being one of the best and most successful entertainments that part of the county has yet had. -One of the largest and most fashionable church weddings celebrated in Lock Haven, was that of William M. Fredericks, son of D. H. Moore Fredericks, the banker, and Jennie R., daughter of W. P. Michael, who were married Thanksgiving morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Episcopal church. -B. K. Jameson, the well-known Philadelphia banker, failed last week. We are told he at one time drove stage thro here, on the Bellefonte, and Law is town line, perhaps 30 or 40 years back, and is known to some of our people. By energy, perseverance and shrewd business tact, he became the head of a prominent banking house in Philadelphia.

Program of Institute.

The 14th Annual session of the Teachers Institute will be held in the Court House at Bellefonte, commencing Monday, Dec. 15th, and closing Friday, 19th.

Co. Supt. Etters has been successful in securing a competent and efficient corps of instructors for the week and it promises to be of more than usual interest. The instructors he has secured are Dr. E. E. White, of Cincinnati, O.; Dr. E. O. Lytle, of Millersville Normal, Pa.; Mrs. M. C. Eastman, Cortland Normal, N. Y.; Dr. G. G. Groff, of Bucknell University; Prof. W. A. Buckhout, State College; Prof. Langdon S. Thompson, Jersey City, N. J.; Prof. G. G. Pond, State College.

For the evening entertainment, Dr. E. E. White, will lecture on Monday evening, on "Character." The Ariel-Thomson Concert Company of Boston, will be present on Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening, Col. James P. Sanford, of Marshalltown, Ia., will discourse on "Old Times and New." Prof. A. M. Hammers, of Indiana, Pa., is billed for Thursday evening on "From Paris to Pompeii," with realistic scenes. It will be seen from the above the evening entertainments will be of high character, instructive and interesting, and Mr. Etters is to be commended for having secured them.

Enrollment begins at 10 a. m. Monday, 15th. The Teachers are requested to report promptly on their arrival. An enrollment fee of $1 will be charged, for which a membership ticket will be given, admitting the holder to all evening entertainments.

Thursday, 18th, will be Directors' day. The Directors will meet in session at 10 o'clock, a. m. Dr. G. G. Groff, President of State Board of Health, will discourse on "Heating, Lighting and Ventilating of School Houses," and Prof. Wm. A. Buckhout, of State College, on "Tree Culture." By a resolution adopted at the last meeting of the Directors, each district was to annually contribute one dollar for the purpose of enabling the Directors association to carry on its work.

It is earnestly desired that each district will be prepared to pay this small annual fee. The executive committee of the Association have sent to the secretary of each board a petition to be signed by the members, asking the Legislature to pass a bill authorizing school boards to pay at least the director's actual expenses of attending the annual triennial conventions. The question will be discussed at the meeting.

Orders for Excursion tickets can be secured from Co. Supt. Etters up to Friday, 12th, by enclosing return postage. In sending for orders state name, post office address, and station at which train is taken. It is requested that orders not used will be returned to Supt. Etters.

Strehle's Millinery—Allegheny St. Brokerhoff Block—Bellefonte, Pa.

Preparing His Own Grave.

Mr. Samuel G. Mans, during an interval of leisure, is engaged at a job that to those less philosophic is shuddering to contemplate, says the Lewisburg News. He is the patentee of an air tight grave vault, and not having anything to do at his trade as a brick layer during the winter months, is now at work in the cemetery walling up by the side of his deceased wife the sepulcher that will eventually contain his mortal remains. Mentally physically and financially Mr. Mans is all sound enough, and he has always been one of our best citizens, but being somewhat past the meridian of life he has taken advantage of his remaining strength to prepare his own tomb. With the perfect resignation of the Christian that he is, and without any terror, he looks forward to the day when body and soul must separate.

Will Not be Photographed.

Wilson, the man awaiting trial for the murder of Harry Waterhouse, has frustrated all efforts to have him photographed. All the photographers in Bellefonte have attempted to take his likeness but were only met with failures. Nothing whatever is known of his identity, and he is as silent as ever, refusing to reveal anything concerning his past.

Have you been to A. C. Mingle's shoe store in the Brokerhoff house block? Never miss going there when at Bellefonte. He always has something new and offers none but genuine goods which he warrants. For low prices in boots and shoes Mingle's is the place.

Murder in Jefferson.

On Sunday, 23d ult., several boys in roaming through the woods near Falls Creek, came across an abandoned lumber camp, and seeing smoke coming out of the windows, went up to make an investigation. They were badly frightened to find there a dead man slowly roasting on a pile of red-hot coals. They spread the alarm and other heads gathered and removed the body. C. H. Barrett, Esq., of DuBois, informs us that it is likely a case of a quarrel, and the unfortunate man was shot by some of his companions and then they attempted to consume his body by fire. He had the looks of an Ike and is unknown by any person in the neighborhood. The left side was so badly burned that it was with difficulty that the remains could be kept intact. The bullet that done the killing entered the right side of the head near the forehead, and came out under the left side of the lower jaw. The Coroner held an inquest and returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a pistol ball in the head from some person or persons unknown. There are all sorts of rumors, but one is that the deceased had been quietly removed by his gang and that the law will hardly be swift enough to overtake the offenders.—Clearfield Republican.

Hunting Notes.

The Horners, Gentzels, & Co., hunters of near Pleasant Gap, were out in the Green woods, Clearfield county, and came home with 7 or 8 deer.

Harter, Riesel & Co., hunters of Tylerstown, were successful in killing a deer and a wild cat week before last on the mountains east of that place.

A lot of Sunbury hunters, from Sunbury.—The party consisted of E. W. Greenough, P. C. Oberdorf, I. W. Ziegler, E. G. Scott and H. F. Mann, of Sunbury, and Jas. K. Reish, the treasurer-elect of Union county. The gentlemen put in a full week in the Allegheny mountains in Centre county and did not kill a single thing.

C. K. Sober, the noted wig shot, this county, killed 120 pheasants this fall. If we could go for pheasants with our skilled friend Sober, no matter whether we hit any of the birds, we would get home with a bunch of pheasants anyhow.

A party of Clinton county hunters, went to the Scotac region and brought out five deer.

Snow.

Well, folks who had almost forgotten what snow looks like, had their memory refreshed last Monday, by an old-fashioned snow fall that began in the morning and continued at a moderate rate until night. And it is as white as any we ever saw or read of, and it came down just so noiselessly that you could not tell it was snowing unless you actually saw it come down. Snow does not begin to make the racket as does its cousin, the rain. Some folks were afraid we were going to have a snowless winter, but as it looks now, there will be use for the merry, merry bells yet, and the jumpers may as well have the dust of three winters brushed away, for there is every prospect of a revival of the ancient sleigh ride, of which we need to hear our grandfathers tell.

The juvenile crowd will be ready with their boards, and sleds, and gals, for a slide down the hillside at arrow speed. There's fun ahead boys.

Marriage Licenses.

Following is the list of marriage licenses issued during the past week from the register's office, Bellefonte:

Samuel Ray, of Roopburg, and Cora E. Dubbs, of Potter township. Robert Smith, of Johnstown and Emma C. Heckman, of Penn Hall. Franklin P. Hendricks, of Winterburg and Sadie C. Hoy, of Madisonburg. Charles E. Barner, of Hablesburg, and Elsie I. Boal, of Tusseyville.

Edward Page, of Curtis township and Lizzie Coble, of Harris township. A. J. Harter, of Coburn, and Sallie P. Shirk, of Potters Mills.

The Sale Postponed.

The Sheriff's sale of the Centre Iron Company, which was to have taken place on Friday last, has been postponed for a week. The failure of B. K. Jamison will still further complicate the furnace company's affairs and adds interest to the libel suit brought by the Valentines against James Milliken, who they allege, is responsible for an article recently published in Philadelphia, which they claim depreciated the value of the company's bonds.

Mr. Milliken is said to have engaged Daniel Dougherty, to defend him.

Stone Crusher.

The turnpike company has purchased a stone crusher to be used on the section between Centre Hall and the 7 Mts. It is a monstrous machine, weighing four tons, with powerful iron jaws, that will chew up stones the size of a loaf of bread as readily as a boy will a chestnut. The machine can be set to break the stones into any desired sizes for use on the turnpike. Its cost is about $450, and with it manager Brisiba will amuse himself in using up stones at a big rate.

Choice Evap. Peaches, next Saturday only 19 cents.—G. O. Benner.

What is nicer than a gettoel, neat fitting overcoat. Lewtas at the Philad. Branch will guarantee satisfaction in this direction.

—Thanksgiving was appropriately observed in our town—more so than in former years. A union service was held in the Lutheran church, in the forenoon, at which all the ministers of the town churches attended, namely, Rev. Baskerville, Presbyterian; Rev. Eisenberg, Reformed; Rev. Davis, Evangelical; Rev. H. Hicks, Methodist, and Rev. Fischer, Lutheran. A male choir, composed of a representative from each of the churches foreaaid, rendered charming music. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Baskerville, and was a very excellent discourse. Why not have these union services oftener? We know of one place where they have them all the time, and where the participants forget all denominationalism—the place is Heaven.

—The Clearfield coal region is enjoying a boom. Operators are greatly rejoiced in the outlook and feel sanguine that the sales during the coming winter will greatly surpass those of last year. The output is growing, shipments increasing and prices are such as will enable them to secure a good margin on all sales made. Then, again, there is not so much complaint as to a scarcity of cars as in the past. This has always been a great drawback to that region. On account of it miners have too frequently been only able to get in four or five days in a month, and sometimes not so much as that. Thus far this season, however, no such difficulty is heard of. The men are working steady and making good wages.

—Among the many improvements in storerooms in our neighboring town of Bellefonte, we know of none in which such a radical improvement has been effected as in the Drug Store of F. Potts Green in the Bush House Block. The old front has been torn away and replaced with a plate glass front. The room has been repainted and papered and with the changes made in the internal arrangements of the store it is now one of the handsomest, as it has always been the oldest, largest and leading Drug Store in the county.—It will pay our friends when in town to call and we can assure every one of a cordial welcome, whether they go to make purchases or not.

—Tyronne is in an uproar, and all owing to what is supposed to be a pure, undiluted ghost of the genuine caste. It travels about the streets at the mystic hour when graveyards yawn, attired in black, and deeply veiled. The "spook" seems to be searching diligently for some one, and apparently enjoys the pastime of stopping people by flourishing a revolver silently in their faces. This is the only uncomfortable trait her ghostship has displayed as yet, but there is no telling what will happen when the right fellow is found wandering at large. This causes a very uneasy sensation to tingle the nerves of more than one inhabitant of that city. Occasionally, and before moving the revolver, the ghost asks the accommodation of a match, but for what purpose the giver never stops long enough to inquire. He has urgent business elsewhere.

Spring Mills.

Last week we had very pleasant weather, but not bitingly cold. Miss Lill Krise and Miss Garbrick, from over the mountains, spent Thanksgiving at the former's home, at this place. Miss Rebecca Grove has gone to Lock Haven, where she will spend the winter. Miss Blanche Duck and Maggie Condo, two of the finest young ladies of our town, are always at their place of business, every morning they are seen going to the mill. Miss Blanche to the milliner store and Miss Maggie to the seamstress shop. Our merchant G. H. Long is happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy. W. B. Kraspe expects to build a hotel at this place by the first of April. Our town is dull at present, Mrs. Kate Leitzell and Miss Ida Condo are on the sick list.

Want Grove.

Jacob Meyer and wife, W. H. Bohn and Mary Hays, George and Cora Durr represented this place at the reopening of the Reformed church at Houserville. Our school has changed teachers on account of Mr. Potter's health failing. Mr. Hoover of Shingletown has now taken charge of the school. Visitors the past week were, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Korman, of Wolf's store, Mr. Hiram Katherman and wife and J. J. Showalter all of Laurelton and Miss Amanda Meyer of Bouldersburg. John H. Meyer expects to go to Spring Mills next month to learn the art of milling with Wm. From, sorry to see you leave John. Daniel Bohn will make sale of farm stock and implements in the spring and move to Lemont, at least so says rumor. Abraham Harsburger and wife had a birthday party on Saturday evening for their daughter Lottie, and a very pleasant affair it was. She received many presents. Lloyd McClintock spent several days in Brush valley, last week.

BARTHOLOMEW, Centre Hall, Sept. 1, 1890.

The Breaker Remedies Company.

From Hazelton Plain Speaker, Oct 25, 1890. Those indefatigable pushers, the Breaker Remedies Company, compounders of Doonee's famed remedies for stock, are bound to make our town famed throughout the land, however much the old mossback element would like to keep us secluded. Not content with having from six to twenty agents in every county from Central New York to Southern Maryland and West to the Allegheny Mountains to sing their praise they are pressing on, not alone new States and countries to conquer but they propose to be heralded wherever Uncle Sam has a postoffice and to that end they ask the co-operation of wide awake boys. And right here let us say to the boys who read this article, bestir yourselves and if possible get into the swim, for from our knowledge of the promoters of the project, you'll not regret it. Read, out and return the slip in their advertisement and see what it will bring.
