Dr. B. J. KENDALL, CO., BROOKLYN, CORN., May 5, '93. Dear Sirs—Last Summer I found a Curd upon my horse with your celebrated Kendall's Spavin Cure and it was the best I ever saw done. I have a dozen empty bottles, having used it with perfect success, curing every thing I tried it on. My neighbor had a horse with a very bad spavin that made him lame. He asked me how to cure it. I recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure. He cured the spavin in just three weeks. Yours respectfully, WOLCOTT WITTEL.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL, CO., COLUMBUS, OHIO, April 4, '93. Dear Sirs—I have been selling more of Kendall's Spavin Cure than I could sell in any other place I ever before. One man said to me, it was the best I ever used. Respectfully, F. H. HOFFMAN.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL, CO., CLEVELAND, N. Y., May 14, '93. Dear Sirs—I have used several bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with perfect success. It is a valuable and blood-purifying medicine that is free from any toxic substance and shows no effect on the joints. Respectfully, F. H. HOFFMAN.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL, CO., MONROE, LA., May 3, '93. Gents—I think it my duty to tender you my thanks for your far famed Kendall's Spavin Cure. I had a four year old horse that was very high, I tried about eight different kinds of medicines which did no good. I purchased a bottle of your Kendall's Spavin Cure which cured her in four days. I remain yours, KANON DOWNES.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL, CO., Easton, Pa., Vermont.

DIVIDED IRELAND.

The Little Island Ablaze with Excitement.

FARNELL WILL STUMP IRELAND.

The Seceders Organize and Enter Parliament in a Body, When Parnell Sits Beside McCarthy and the Irish Members Vote Together, Parnell to Visit Ireland.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—In response to the call issued by Mr. Justin McCarthy, the leader of the anti-Parnellite section of the Irish party, all the members of the party who are opposed to Mr. Parnell assembled to consider further the line of policy to be adopted. Copies of the call had been addressed to Mr. Parnell and his supporters, but it is hardly necessary to state that none of them was present.

A council, comprising eight members, Messrs. Abraham, Dillon, Healy, O'Brien, Arthur O'Connor, Thomas Power O'Connor, Sexton and Sheehy, was appointed to assist Mr. McCarthy in deciding the future action of the party. The meeting was presided over by Mr. McCarthy.

Mr. McCarthy was authorized to prepare an address to the Irish people, home and abroad giving the present aspect of the Irish question and outlining the future policy of his party. Sir Thomas Grattan Esmond was appointed an additional whip.

In the Commons. The anti-Parnellite members of the house of commons made an early appearance in the house. Forty-one of them entered the chamber in a body and took the principal places on the first four benches below the gangway, with a view to prevent the Parnellites from occupying their usual seats. Col. Nolan and Mr. John Deasy entered later and contrived to secure seats. Mr. Parnell's seat had also been reserved, he having at an early hour affixed a ticket to it.

Mr. Parnell took a seat next to Mr. McCarthy and voted with all Irish members present, of both factions. During the coming week Mr. Parnell will make addresses at Dublin, Cork, Limerick and Waterford. He is announced to speak at Leicester hall, Dublin, on Thursday.

Division at Last. LONDON, Dec. 8.—The Parnellites and their enemies rested on their oars yesterday after the exciting scene of Saturday. That last memorable meeting of the united Parnellites was unquestionably the stormiest that has ever been held in a parliamentary committee room. After Mr. Parnell had repeatedly refused to put the motion of Mr. Abraham requesting him (Parnell) to retire, forty-four members withdrew from the meeting and organized in another room, electing Justin McCarthy chairman and passed a resolution deposing Parnell from the leadership.

Excitement in Ireland. Ireland was ablaze with excitement yesterday, many public meetings being held, and the split in the party being the universal topic of conversation and discussion everywhere. The mass meeting in Phoenix park, Dublin, was not as large as had been anticipated, but was not a formidable undertaking in itself. It was distinctly a Parnell meeting, and Healy and other opponents of that leader were burned in effigy. Judging from the bitterness of the denunciations against them they would have been burned in person had they been present. So far as returns have been received, most of the meetings were held in Parnell's favor.

The bishops' manifesto condemning Parnell was read in all the churches at mass, and the priests added exhortations to obey the spirit of the document in action. The people did not seem to take kindly to this interference in some cases, and at Mitchelstown and Kilkenny the Nationalists met after service and adopted resolutions supporting Parnell in his fight against the bishops. It is believed, however, that on the whole the church will confine itself to moral suasion.

Stricken in the Pulpit. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Dec. 9.—While preaching to a large congregation at the East Mill Street Reformed church Sunday night, the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. P. Strong, said: "A man might fall as easy as a star from the heavens." The next instant his face turned ashy pale, he clutched wildly at the pulpit for support, and then dropped on the floor in a fit of apoplexy. The horrified congregation was silent for a moment. The leaders then rushed to the prostrate pastor and raised him from the floor. He was taken home and died yesterday. He was about 60 years of age.

A National Conservatory of Music. WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Mr. Gibson introduced in the senate, by request, a bill to incorporate the national conservatory of music, with headquarters in the District of Columbia, with the following incorporators: Jeannette M. Thurber, W. O. Choate, C. M. Dewey, A. S. Hewitt, William Pinkney White, Enoch Pratt, Fitzhugh Lee, John Jay, Anthony Pollak, Gen. Schofield and others.

DELAMATER ASSIGNS.

Failure of His Banking Firm at Meadville, Pa.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Dec. 6.—A profound sensation was created in this city yesterday afternoon by the announcement that the banking firm of Delamater & Co. had suspended business and made an assignment.

This banking house has done a large business, and its head is Senator George Wallace Delamater, the Republican candidate for governor at the late election. At 9 o'clock, the hour for the bank to open, an anxious crowd had collected on the street in front of the building. Shortly after the following notice was pasted on the windows on the Water and Chestnut street sides of the bank: "Bank closed. Delamater & Co. have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. V. M. DELAMATER, 'December 5, 1890.' 'Cashier.' The assignees are Lawyers John O. McClintock and George W. Haskins. They immediately took possession and began the work of preparing a statement. This has not yet been completed, and the only thing the public knows about the condition of things is the report that the liabilities of the firm are $300,000 and the assets about the same.

Besides being the head of Delamater & Co., Senator Delamater was also one of the directors and a heavy stockholder of the Merchants National bank of Meadville. He is also the president and owner of a controlling interest in the Meadville and Linesville railroad. He is also the president of the Meadville Fuel Gas company. State Funds Safe. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—"If my bondsmen stand by me, as I believe they will, I will not lose a dollar through the failure of Senator Delamater," said State Treasurer Henry K. Boyer when the stories relative to his loss of $100,000 of state funds in the suspended Delamater bank were mentioned to him. Treasurer Boyer's bondsmen are George F. Tyler, William C. Bullitt, president of the Pochonts Coal company; William H. Kimble, president of the Philadelphia Traction company; Henry Baum, William H. Kerns, president of the People's bank; Louis S. Hart, ex-estate printer; Col. W. W. Jennings, president of the Commonwealth Trust company of Harrisburg; Jacob Bomberger, banker of Harrisburg; Frederick Gwinner, contractor of Allegheny county; John Reeves, president of the Bank of the Economical society, Beaver; and Gen. William Lilly, the coal operator, of Mauch Chunk.

Judgment Bond for Boyer. EBENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 8.—A judgment bond in the sum of $300,000 was entered on the records of Cambria county against Delamater & Co., of Meadville, in favor of State Treasurer Boyer. Assets and Liabilities. MEADVILLE, Pa., Dec. 9.—A preliminary statement, made by the assignees of the Delamater bank last evening, show liabilities $544,700; assets, $472,549.72.

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED. Suspicious Concerning the Tragic Death of Emma Pitzemeyer. CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 6.—What was originally reported as a sensational suicide now appears to have been murder. As reported in these dispatches yesterday, Miss Emma Pitzemeyer was found dead in her room Wednesday night, shortly after returning from a ball where she had been the gayest of the gay.

At the inquest some startling evidence was given which will render a thorough investigation necessary. Dr. Graham, the first physician to see the body, said it was evident that she did not kill herself, nor was she killed standing up, as there were no blood marks on the top of the bureau, which there should have been from such a wound, had she stood. He could not see above the pools of blood which had collected on the floor.

Dr. J. L. Forwood said there were six wounds. Only one caused the death. The deep thrust in the back of the neck could not have been self-inflicted with the knife found. Some great bruise on her forehead, knees would have taken a fairly strong man in good health to inflict such wounds. Did not believe she did it herself. Saw evidences in doors as though grasped with bloody hands.

CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 9.—There are no new developments in the Pitzemeyer case. The public are slowly coming to the conclusion that the young girl did not kill herself, and there is little doubt that the coroner's jury will render a verdict of murder. The constable repudiates the printed reports that he is guarding the Walther residence on Parker street, nor has he, he says, had any warrants in his pocket for the arrest of any one. It is true, however, that Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt are under police surveillance, and could not leave Chester without danger of arrest.

Important Miners' Meeting. PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6.—A convention of coal miners of central Pennsylvania, comprising the counties of Centre, Clearfield, Cambria, Blair, Bedford, Huntingdon and Jefferson, has been called to meet at Altoona next Wednesday to consider a proposition to establish a fund to pay the wages of check weighmen at the mines and to vote on the advisability of demanding a general advance in the price of mining on Jan. 1. The convention will be one of the most important ever held in central Pennsylvania, as a strike, if ordered, would affect 20,000 men. It would also seriously interfere with ocean steamships, the bulk of the seaboard coal mined coming from this district.

Steel Mills Resume Work. BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 9.—The Bethlehem iron company's steel mills, which were shut down a week ago for an indefinite period, were started up yesterday and the 1,600 idle men are again at work. The resumption is due to large orders received a day or two after the shut down, and which will keep the plant in operation the greater part of the winter. During the idle spell a large force of machinists were at work night and day changing the machinery and making repairs that are generally made during the holiday season.

A Locomotive Explodes. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 9.—A locomotive boiler on the Lehigh Valley road blew up at Dale at 11 o'clock today evening, instantly killing a passenger and injuring several others. The train was en route from Lyons, brakeman, and M. McDonald.

Scribner's Magazine

For the coming year will be noteworthy for a number of special features which the Publishers believe are of unusual interest, and among them the following may be mentioned: Sir Edwin Arnold contributes to the December number the first series of four articles upon Japan, its people, its ways and its thoughts. Mr. Robert Blum, who was commissioned to go to Japan for Scribner's Magazine has prepared a very remarkable series of drawings to illustrate Sir Edwin's papers. Articles upon the recent Japanese Festival will follow, illustrated by Mr. Blum.

Henry M. Stanley has prepared for the January number an important article upon "The Fingines of the Great African Forest." Another contribution in this field will be Mr. J. Scott Keltie's account of the recent African Exhibition held in London. Both papers will be amply illustrated.

The Wrecker, a serial novel by Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne, will run through a large part of the year. Illustrated by Hule. A two part story by Frank R. Stockton will also appear.

Prof. James Bryce, M. P., author of "The American Commonwealth," will write a series of four articles upon India, embodying the results of his recent journey and studies on this land of never ending interest.

Ocean Steamships will be the subject of an important series somewhat upon the lines of the successful "Railroad Articles," and some of the subjects touched upon and illustrated.

Great Streets of the World is the title of a novel collection of articles on which the author and artist will collaborate to give the characteristics of famous thoroughfares. The first, on Broadway, will be written by Richard Boulevard, Paris; The Corso, Rome.

The price of Scribner's Magazine admits of adding an subscription to one's other reading at very small cost. Orders should be sent at once. $3.00 A YEAR. 25 CENTS A NUMBER. Charles Scribner's Sons, Publishers, 743-745 Broadway, New York.
