Pennsylvania Finances. HARRISBURG, Dec. 16.—The state financial officers—State Treasurer Boyer and Auditor General McCannant—have completed their report of the receipts and expenditures for the year ending Nov. 30, 1890. A comparison of some of the principal figures in this statement with the corresponding figures for the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1889, makes the following showing:

Receipts for year, $8,825,919.10

Expenses of govern't, 1,322,830.51

Total expenditures, 4,158,861.18

Balance in treasury, 4,158,861.18

Killed by Tramps. ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 16.—Mrs. Jane Lewis, who resided in the Kettle, near Altoona, died from injuries inflicted by tramps. Her face and head were horribly cut in several places and her tongue was almost cut in two. The deed was committed on Wednesday. The affair has caused considerable excitement here. The murdered woman was 66 years of age.

Says She Knows Her Father. PITTSBURG, Dec. 15.—Miss Carrie Painter or Groevy, the Homestead heiress to $500,000 through the death of her uncle, George Groevy, of Newport, insists that she is the daughter of Thomas H. Groevy, the late Democratic congressional candidate of Altoona, notwithstanding his denial.

Pattison Calls on Beaver. HARRISBURG, Dec. 15.—Governor-elect Pattison called on Governor Beaver at the executive department and spent two hours with him in pleasant conversation.

CONGRESSIONAL RESUME.

The Week's Work of the Fifty-first Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—In the house Representative-elect Thomas J. Geary, of California, was sworn in. The resolution looking to the removal of the remains of Gen. Grant to Arlington was defeated (95 to 153). A number of public building bills were passed.

In the senate some minor measures were passed, including a bill relating to circulation. Mr. Plumb said he would soon ask to have the election bill laid aside and financial matters considered. Debate on the election bill was resumed, and Mr. Berry and Mr. Daniel spoke against it.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The senate passed the bill providing for the payment of a rebate on tobacco. Mr. Geary spoke in opposition to the election bill.

The house devoted the day to business reported by the committee on Indian affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The senate passed the bill appropriating $25,000 for a vessel for boarding purposes at Chicago. A resolution was passed instructing the postoffice committee to investigate the safety of postal savings banks. Mr. Plumb's resolution for early meeting and night sessions was debated until 2 o'clock, when the election bill was taken up and Messrs. Wilson and Geary made speeches.

In the house the fortification and deficiency appropriations bills, the bill providing for the removal of causes from state courts, the bill to prevent the manufacture of counterfeit bills, and the bill to provide a penalty for the alteration of election returns with intent to effect the result were passed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The senate passed a resolution providing that, beginning Monday next, the senate meet at 10 o'clock and that the morning hour conclude at 11 o'clock. Mr. Dolph's resolution requiring the committee on privileges and elections to inquire whether the right of suffrage denied or abridged in any state, was debated at length but went over without action. Mr. Blodgett and Mr. Waltham spoke in opposition to the election bill.

The house passed a number of private relief bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The house discussed the bill for the inspection of cattle and hogs and referred it to the committee on agriculture. The rest of the day was devoted to legislation for the territories.

The senate continued the debate on the federal elections bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—In the senate the bill giving settlers opposite unsurveyed land the privilege of taking an additional 160 acres of it passed. Mr. Wilson, of Maryland, and Mr. Vance addressed the senate on the federal election bill.

The house adopted a resolution calling for information about national banks used as government depositories. The bill to adjust and pay Indian deprecation claims was passed.

A Little Girl's Strange Crime. HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 16.—Sarah Hunter, an orphan, aged 13, employed as a domestic in the family of W. H. Smith, a farmer living near Wincosa, poisoned herself by taking "Rough on Rats." She suffered extreme pain. A doctor was called, but before he could do anything to relieve the girl she died. Before her death the girl confessed to having attempted about a week ago to poison the Smith family by putting poison in the kettle. All the family were taken sick, but had no suspicion of the real cause.

Senator Hampton Defeated. COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 12.—John Laurens Manning Irby, the young reformer, was elected in the general assembly to succeed Gen. Wade Hampton as United States senator. The fourth ballot resulted: Hampton, 36; Donaldson, 37; Irby, 82. Irby lacking only one vote of election. The Donaldson men then changed their votes to Irby, electing him by 105 votes; Donaldson, 10; Hampton, 42. Irby was greeted with loud cheers by the Reformers and hissed by the straight outs and crowds in the galleries.

Convicted of Heresy. PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 12.—The Pittsburg presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian church found the five of its ministers who have been on trial before it the past three days guilty as indicted of the sin and scandal of following divisive courses in advocating the admission of voting citizens of the United States into their congregation. Sentence was passed suspending them from the exercise of their ministerial functions until they repent.

Extending the Bonded Period. WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The decision of the ways and means committee to report to the house a resolution extending the period for withdrawing imported goods, from bond to July 1, is believed to settle the matter for all intents and purposes. The house will hardly fail to pass such an amendment when recommended by the Republican majority of the committee responsible for the tariff act.

Birds and Beasts at Sea. NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Nearly 8,000 Canada birds arrived on the steamship Trave from Bremen. They were raised in Harzburg, Germany. The Trave also brought a lion, two tigers, a hyena, two bears, eight otters and other animals for the Central Park menagerie. The lion was very seakick for two days.

His Hallucination Verified. WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 13.—James Clark, aged 47 years, living at Kentmere, attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself with a horse pistol loaded with shot. He is now in the hospital here and is in a serious condition. He was out of work and had a hallucination that some one was going to shoot him.

Vanquished the White Caps. NEW ALBANY, Ind., Dec. 13.—White Caps visited the house of Thomas Burgess, a farmer living in Meade county, Ky., to whip him. He shot and killed one of the raiders and wounded two others. With his wife Burgess fled to the woods through a rear door and reached friends in New Amsterdam, Ind.

Died in Her Pew. NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Catherine Quaid, 69 years of age, died yesterday in a pew, while attending services in the church of St. Thomas Aquinas in Brooklyn. Mrs. Quaid was the mother-in-law of Thomas F. Nevins, chief engineer of the Brooklyn fire department.

Princess Louise Shocked. LONDON, Dec. 13.—Joseph Edgar Boehm, the eminent sculptor, died suddenly in his studio last evening. The Princess Louise, who called to inquire as to the progress of a bust which he was making of herself, was horrified to find him dead in his chair.

Holidays by the Sea. CAPE MAY, Dec. 16.—It is rumored that President Harrison and family will arrive here and open their cottage at the Point for a week during the Christmas vacation. Gen. William J. Sewell's family arrived at their cottage yesterday.
