A Big Canadian Failure. MONTREAL, Jan. 20.-McLachlen Bros. & Co., wholesale drygoods dealers, are in financial difficulties. The senate passed a few bills of minor importance. Senator Sherman spoke for four portance. Senator Sherman spoke for four hours against the finance bill. Washington, Jan. 15.—The house passed the army appropriation bill. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was taken up and debate limited to five hours. The senate remained in session for fourteen hours and a quarter, and after passing the Stewart free coinage and several other amendments, agreed to a substitute offered by Mr. Vest—a purely free coinage bill. Mr. Ingalls made a brilliant and sensational speech in favor of free coinage.

washington, Jan. 16.—The house devoted most of its session to a discussion of conference reports on public building bills. The speaker appointed Messrs. Dingley, Payne, Rowell, Oates and Peel a committee to investigate the alleged silver pool. The free coinage silver bill was received by the house and sent to the speaker's table, and subsequently referred to the committee on coinage. referred to the committee on coinage weights and measures.

bill of minor importance was passed, and at 5:20 the house adjourned. In the senate an bour and a half was con-sumed discussing a point of order raised by Mr. Gorman, taking issue with the vice president's ruling last Friday, to the effect that an appeal from the decision of the chair of a non-debatable question was itself not debatable. The matter was finally dropped, and after the introduction of a number of bills the elections bill was then taken up, and Mr. George addressed the senate in opposition to the bill.

GEORGE BANCROFT DEAD.

The Long and Useful Career of the Great Historian.

Washington, Jan. 19 .- The com munity was greatly shocked Saturday evening by the news that George Bancroft, the venerable historian, was dead. Death occurred at 3:40 o'clock. The end was quiet and peaceful and came after a period of unconsciousness lasting about twenty-four hours.

It has been decided to hold funeral services at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning in St. John's Episcopal church. The interment will take place at Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Bancroft's wife is buried. George Bancroft was born Oct. 3, 180). He was a native of Worcester, Mass., but his life had so long been passed in other towns and states that the exact place of his New England birth was seldom kept in mind. He was five years a student in Germany, he lived several years in Springfield, and several in Boston; he was in Europe for many years as an American minister: he lived in New York for several years, and he had had homes in Washington and Newport.

He received the best education which the times afforded. After preliminary training in the famous old school at Exeter, he entered Harvard college and graduated at the early age of 17. He then went to Europe, and for some years was a close student under the best minds of the day. Mr. Bancroft was a Democrat. Andrew Jackson received his support, and so did Van Buren. In 1838 Van Buren made him collector of the port of Boston. Four years later the Democrats of Massachusette made him the Democrats of Massachusette made him their candidate for governor, and he polled a very large vote, though not enough to give him the office in that Whig state. Then Polk was elected president he called Mr. Bancroft into his cabinet as secretary of the navy. It was in his time that the naval academy at Annapolis came into being, with other improvements of great influence thereafter in the development of the navy. Mr. Bancroft's next services in a public office were not rendered uatil 18%, when he was were not rendered until 18%, when he was made minister to Russia by President John son. A year later he was transferred to the North German Confederation, and in 1871 to the newly framed German empire. From the latter post he was recalled, at his own request, in 1874.

But it was as a historian that Mr. Bancroft's name will live as long as the language in which he wrote. The first volume of his "History of the United States" was written in 1834. The others appeared at irregular inter-vals, his public services interfering more or less with the preparation of them.

A Fraud Upon the Negroes. ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 20.—This city is being filled with negroes from the west who have been promised happiness in Africa. The scheme of the emigrant agents is to promise passage from Savannah to Africa for $1.02 each; each single man ten acres of land; each married man twenty-five acres and $100 in money; this to come from the United States government. A few days ago Atlanta negroes sent $1,500 to the headquarters of the supposed company at Washington. Tickets reading from Savannah to Africa were given in return, but now the agent announces that the ships are not ready and the passen-gers must wait. All efforts to show them they are being defrauded are unavailing.

A Universal Female Notary. New York, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Ella F. Brannan, of No. 1270 Broadway, has received from Attorney General Miller a ceived from Attorney General Miller a commission as notary for the District of Columbia, to which office she has been appointed by the president. She is the first woman ever appointed to this position. Mrs. Brannan holds a like office for forty states and territories and provinces. The woman's suffrage party are in high glee over the president's appointment.

A Baby with Two Faces. DANVILLE, Ky., Jan. 19.—Mrs. William Freeman, of Jessamine county, gave birth to a female child which had two perfectly formed faces. They are located at right angles on either side of the front of the head. Both at the same time exhibit the same signs of the child's feelings, both crying or in repose as the child's humor changes. When last heard from the infant was doing
