SIMON LOEB.

Snow, snow, snow!

Wade, wade, wade!
Shovel, shovel, shovel!
The whole brigade.
Pile it high, high!
There's more in the sky, sky,
Of beautiful snow, snow,
It will come down, down,
Laugh, fret or frown, frown,
The "beautiful snow," snow.

A big slaughter in Men's, Boy's Children's overcoats at S. Loeb's.
James Smetzer had a severe attack of pleurisy last week.

Shirts, underwear, hats, caps trunks and valises at cost.—S. Loeb.
Mr. M'Very, of this place, lost a horse on last Friday, from colic.

Daniel Bierly, of Tylersville, dropped dead while in the office of Justice of the Peace, Benjamin Greeninger.
The entire stock of Musser's shoe store, Bellefonte, must be sold before Feb. 1. There are bargains there.

The Daily News says, Clement Dale, Esq., is building up one of the largest practices of any member of the Centre county legal profession.

Wm. H. Runkle, jr., will sell farm implements, stock, household goods, etc., at public sale, on March 17th, preparatory to becoming a citizen of Centre Hall.
"Potatoes are away up," says the Daily News. Now don't you know that expression is obsolete? Why don't you say, Potatoes have gone McKinleyward.

Aronsbury is billed for a music convention, by one of the best instructors in the county, Prof. Wm. T. Meyer, of Bellefonte, commencing Feb. 19, with concerts Thursday and Friday nights.

Willis Weber had some of his ribs broken last week by falling against the horns of a wagon which he was endeavoring to lift, slipping on the ice throw him so as to cause the mishap.

The little red dwelling house, formerly occupied by Yony Deininger, up town, is on its march to the far end of the town, and will be lodged on one of Deininger's lots near the station.

Merchant Simon Harper is getting the lumber out for a new house on the Deininger lot purchased by him, adjoining Harper & Kramer's store, which will no doubt be a creditable one as he has the stamps, and be an improvement upon the little buildings heretofore on the lot.

A Mr. Hutter, of Harrisburg, was up at Bellefonte, last week, to look up the matter of $400 for county blanks ordered by gobbler Fiedler, and which the county did not order and the which John Decker brought his foot down on big as the Seven mountains.

Conductor Haupt is the oldest conductor on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, and yet he looks almost as young as he did 25 years ago, when he first started in as a railroad man. The conductor's even temper and general amiability of disposition has kept him even from the appearance of growing old.

The pile up of 12 to 15 inches of snow from 11 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock Sunday morning, must have beaten the record of any snow fall, in the same period of time known to the "oldest inhabitant." We imagine it came down like the emptying of feather ticks.

Friday evening last several of the boys of the town narrowly escaped serious injuries while coasting down the mountain road. They were on their way down while David Bradford with horse and sleigh was on his way across the road to allow the bob to pass, when the horse frightened and backed the sleigh on to the road when there was a collision, the bob striking the sleigh and a general scattering of boys followed. The horse fell from the shock and broke the shaft while the sleigh was badly broken. The boys escaped injury.

Institute.

A Teachers' and Directors' District Institute will be held in the Lutheran church, Rebersburg, Pa., beginning Friday evening, Jan. 30th, and continue during the following day.

The district includes the townships of Gregg, Penn, Haines and Miles, and Millheim borough, but all persons interested in the welfare of our schools are cordially invited to attend. County Superintendent, Etters has expressed a willingness to be present if he can possibly do so.

D. F. Fortney, Esq., of Bellefonte, will be with us, and on Friday evening will lecture on "Duties of School Directors." It is earnestly hoped that the Directors will be present the first session as Mr. Fortney has some very important things in store for them. Ex-county Superintendent Meyer, and Rev. Dotterer will also take an active part in the exercises. Teachers and Directors, it is our Institute, and let us all attend with the determination to make it a success.

More Snow.

This may be remembered as the winter of deep snows. Last Sunday morning people awoke to find another snow fallen during the night of 10 to 12 inches in depth, and a fierce storm prevailing, causing heavy drifts, and closing the roads.

The first snow we had was about 3 inches in depth. The next was a regular old time Jacksonian, of at least 24 inches and in some localities over 30. This was followed in two weeks by 12 to 15 inches more, and on Saturday night last another of 12 to 15 inches, which put activity into the school brigade on Sunday morning.

Taken altogether we have had no less than 54 inches of snow, thus far, this winter, and the season for snow not half over yet.

It strikes the stock on hand, which did not come down last winter and winter before, is coming in now on the home stretch.

Musical Convention.

There will be a week of song in the Evangelical church at Tusseyville, beginning Monday evening, Jan. 29th, and closing Saturday evening, Jan. 31st, with two grand concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings. The convention will be conducted by Prof. E. W. Crawford, of Tusseyville, assisted on the piano by Prof. Frank Reisk, of Spring Mills. Prof. Lowell Meyer will be in attendance during the week to enliven the occasion with some of his choice selections. A pleasant time and a large attendance is anticipated. All singers are respectfully invited to be in attendance. Books and entertainment furnished free. Prices of admission. Family Tickets $1.00; Class Tickets 50 cents; Single Session 10 cents; Concerts 25 cents. Singers coming by train will be met at Centre Hall station on Monday Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of each day by notifying the chairman, W. G. Runkle.

Attempted Burglary.

An attempt at robbery was made last Friday night at the grocery store of Sechler & Co., Bellefonte. The robbers entered the store by cutting out a panel of the rear door. They had drilled two holes in the safe and one had been filled with powder and set off but had failed to open the safe. This probably discouraged the thieves and fearing that the noise of the explosion would be heard outside, they fled, leaving all their tools behind them. The night clerk in the drug store next door heard the noise but thought it came from the hotel, which is in the same building. The watchman at the hotel also heard the noise, went and tried the door but hearing nothing thought he was mistaken. The thieves failed to get anything of value from the store, but the safe was ruined.

Communion Services.

The Communion will be administered at Centre Hill on Sunday Feb. 1st. Preparatory service on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Baptisms on Saturday morning, meeting of the Session on Saturday morning. Opportunity for joining the church on Saturday morning. Special collection on Sabbath morning. Arrangements for continuing services during the coming week will be announced at the time of the meeting. All are welcome. HENRY C. BASKERVILLE.

Closing Out.

Contemplating quitting business, the firm of J. H. Musser & Son, Brokerhoff Row, Bellefonte, offer their entire stock of boots and shoes at less than actual cost. The stock is all new and fresh, and every pair a bargain. They are bound to dispose of the stock by Feb. 1, and it will be your opportunity to buy at unprecedentedly low prices. Go at once and secure a bargain before it is too late.

Good substantial clothing for very little money at S. Loeb's.

Do you want hauling done for pretty nearly nothing? S. W. Smith.

The entire stock of Musser's shoe store, Bellefonte, must be sold before Feb. 1. There are bargains there.

Boots and shoes below actual cost at Musser's shoe store, Bellefonte. Get a bargain before it is too late.

Farmers' Institute.

A farmers' institute is in progress at Pine Grove Mills, this county. At the opening session Monday morning addresses were made upon "The Kind of a Farmer I Would Like to Be," "The Practical Farmer," and "Commercial Fertilizers," by Rev. George Elliot, Pine Grove Mills; J. K. Murray, Montour county, and Professor Frear, of Pennsylvania State College, respectively. In the afternoon some interesting points in the question box were discussed by Rev. A. L. Miller, Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Mary A. Miller, and R. S. Searle, of Susquehanna county. W. P. Young, of Columbia county, spoke on "Economy as Applied to Farming," Ex-Auditor General J. B. Niles, of Wellsboro, discussed the question of taxation as it affects the farmers, and D. F. Fortney, of Bellefonte, closed the evening exercises with a pithy address on "Duties and Privileges of Township Officers." The institute continues on Tuesday.

Convention at Linden Hall.

Linden Hall is billed for a musical convention, commencing on Monday evening, February 2, and to continue until Saturday evening, February 7. Two grand concerts will be given on Friday and Saturday evenings, 6th and 7th. The convention will be under the able supervision of Prof. E. W. Crawford, of Tusseyville, whose musical ability is well known, assisted at the piano by Prof. Frank Reisk, of Spring Mills. Prof. Lowell Meyer, the "Sweet Singer of Israel," will be present and charm the attendance with his unique selections. Entertainment to singers from a distance will be free. A large attendance is anticipated and it will be a big week for Linden Hall. The committee on arrangements are John Ross, and Adam Zeigler, to whom all inquiries should be addressed.

Murder in Snyder.

The Sunbury Daily says: Shamokin Dam was the scene of another tragedy Thursday night. A dance or an amusement of some kind was being held at Aurand's Hall, and while it was in progress Adam Comfort, a boatman from Juniata county who has been residing at the Dam for some time, became violent and abusive and brandishing a revolver said he would shoot somebody. Ulysses Heiser, John Michaels and John Snyder tried to quiet him. Comfort resisted and they attempted to quiet him by force. In the melee, which followed this attempt, Comfort shot Snyder in the abdomen. Snyder died next day, and Comfort was lodged in the jail at Middleburg.

Hymen.

On Thursday last a wedding took place near Axe Man, at which a former Penns Valley young gentleman, Mr. William H. Ott and Miss Belle M. Keller, were the contracting parties. There were many guests present, the wedding taking place at noon, after which an elaborate repast was served. The bride and groom received many ornamental and valuable presents. The groom is the son of Mr. James Ott, east of town and stands high in the respect of the citizens of this community. A reception was tendered the bride and groom at the home of his father on Monday evening last, and an enjoyable time was had.

Lecture.

Miss Emma Louise Parry of Cincinnati, Ohio, a highly cultivated and educated lady, will lecture in the Lutheran church, on Friday evening, February 6. Her subject will be: "Life among the Germans," describing the home, and natural life in Germany, the every day manner of living as contrasted with America. There will be an admission fee of 15 cents, children under 12 years of age 10 cents, under 6 years free. Proceeds will be used for liquidating the indebtedness yet upon the building.

More extended notices will appear in later issues of this paper.

Good Record.

Mr. A. A. Frank, secretary of the Lutheran Sunday school at Millheim presented the following annual statement of the school which is a very good record and denotes the school in a very flourishing condition, of which Mr. H. E. Duck, is Superintendent.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Number of Officers (6), Teachers (12), Scholars on roll (180), Average attendance during year (134), Collections for School purposes ($93.34), Missions, &c. (34.97).

Monkeyed With a Buzz Saw.

Last week Hayes Solt, employed at Collier's saw mill, near Tusseyville, endeavored to ascertain if the saw which was in motion, was hot, by placing his hand on it, and got it into the teeth, with the result of having the ends of three last fingers on his hand neatly amputated near the first joint. Dr. Emerick was in the mill at the time of the accident and dressed the wounds.

Personal.

George Homan is at present in Rebersburg.
Our Democratic friend, Jacob Neese, gave our sanctum a call.

John H. Meyer, of Tusseyville, was one of Centre Hall's visitors on Tuesday.
Mr. Joseph Grossman, of Tusseyville was in town Monday on business.

Dr. Hosterman spent several days in Rebersburg and vicinity this week.

Mr. Wm. Farmer, of near Potters Mills, made us a pop visit on Tuesday morning.

Miss Alice Hazelet, after a two weeks' visit with Mr. Wm. Wolf's, departed for her home in Williamsport on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Wilson I. Fleming, the tailor, of Bellefonte, spent Monday night in Centre Hall. He attended Masonic lodge of which he is a member of high degree.

Mr. Joseph Gilliland, of Potters Mills, gave us a call last week. Mr. Gilliland is one of the intelligent farmers of his section, and highly respected.

Mr. John H. Bible, of near Centre Hill, gave us a call Monday. Mr. Bible will sell farm implements and stock at public sale on Saturday, March 7.

Mr. Michael F. Rossman, of Tusseyville, was in town last week and paid his respects to the Reporter's office. Our lute string always hangs out to such as him.

James Bennet, of Latrobe, Pa., arrived in town on Wednesday to see his old friends. James several years ago was employed by Andy Reesman, whose guest he is during his short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, Mrs. Flora Bairfoot and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wolf attended a reception at the residence of Mr. C. M. Bower, Bellefonte, last Thursday evening.

Mr. Uriah Fleisher, of Tusseyville, graded the Reporter's office with his presence last week. Mr. Fleisher is teaching school this winter near his section, and as a pedagogue has met with success in instructing the young.

Death of King Kalkaua.

King Kalkaua, the Hawaiian monarch, who had come to the United States a few weeks ago on a visit, died at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, on Tuesday morning, of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Kalkaua was to have returned to his kingdom this week on the United States flagship Charleston. He had returned to San Francisco last week from a trip through Southern California when he was taken ill. He was in poor health when he arrived in San Francisco some time ago, and it is believed that the banquets and receptions which he was called upon to attend caused the fatal termination of the disease.

Will be Tendered a Reception.

A meeting of the citizens of Bellefonte irrespective of party, was held in the arbitration room of the court house on Tuesday evening, at which arrangements were perfected for a big reception to Governor Beaver and General Hastings on their arrival home from Harrisburg on Thursday evening, 23d, inst. They will be met at the station by a committee and accompanied by bands of music and escorted to the court house, where the reception will be held.

Pay Your Taxes.

To those who have not as yet paid their taxes we wish to state that if not paid before February 1st, 5 per cent additional will be charged. Saturday, Jan. 31 is the last day in which to pay them, after that day the 5 per cent will be added. Don't neglect this or pass it over, but pay at once.

Revival.

Rev. O. Hicks this week commenced a revival in the Methodist church. The meetings are fairly well attended and we hope much good may be forthcoming from the gentlemen's endeavors.

Nicely Brothers To Hang.

Governor Beaver, on Monday signed the death warrants of David and Joseph Nicely, the Somerset county murderers, who will be hanged on Thursday, Apr. 2, 1891.

Any of our Centre county ladies who may wish to ape royalty can take their first lesson from the following item: Queen Victoria has five maids to assist at her toilet—viz, three dressers and two wardrobe women. We are told also by high authority that the senior dresser, who has been many years with her majesty, is especially charged with the task of conveying orders to different trades-people—jewelers, drapers and dressmakers; one dresser and one wardrobe woman are in constant attendance on the queen, taking alternate days. All this when the royal lady is well—and in good spirits. At other times the maids are made to retire to the lower apartments and told to stay there until called for.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Farmers' Mills.

George Long returned home from Altoona, Pa., recently, and intends spending the balance of the winter with his parents.

The mild winter prospects are all snowed shut, or are about to come out, since our solid winter set in.

Present indications there will be a good bit of flitting about in this vicinity next spring. Messrs. J. and S. Homan attended the funeral of their cousin, John Cooney, of Coburn, at Tusseyville last week.

Mrs. Mary Grimes, of Millheim, and Mrs. Sinkeminder, of Clearfield, were visiting relatives here recently.

George Meiss had auction several times recently and intends having on next Saturday afternoon and evening. He will remove the balance of his goods to the Loop, in the near future.

The protracted meeting is still in progress but will likely soon close.

The appointment of Robert Hunter, as commissioner's clerk proved more satisfactory, about here, than if one of our Republican backers and betrayers of pure Democracy, who have audacity to ask to be rewarded with the best appointments of the Democratic party, had been placed there. It may have been a disappointment to the Bloomburg student, who was engaged to become the successor of the "all right" applicant.

Madisonburg.

Every person was busy shoveling snow last Sunday morning.

George Wise and wife, S. B. Shafer and family were visiting at Frank Yearicks on Sunday.

We are sorry to state that Miss Ida Ocker is on the sick list.

Rev. Aurand of this place is having a protracted meeting at Rebersburg.

Miss Bertha Fiedler, Sadie Ocker and Cora Gettig have gone to the convention in Penn Hall.

The Orchestra of this place is in full bloom again, they met at L. B. Stovers residence on last Saturday evening, there were about twenty five young ladies and gentlemen present.

There will be a good deal of moving done in town. George says: Ich bilb net un won ich woons kun far six.

The Philad Branch is thoroughly reliable, and Lewins has in stock a line of clothing that leads in quality and low prices. Satisfaction always given.

At this season of the year when malaria lurks in the air, and had could not an unfrequent visitor we long for a quick and effective remedy. There is scarcely a home without a sufferer from some of the many ill-effects of this disease. A stimulant is after the intermediary. It is quick and effective. It brings relief and saves doctor bills. We are recommending Mr. Max Klein for anything in the liquor line. His Silver Age Eye at $1.00 per quart is the best whiskey in the market. He will sell any Pennsylvania Eye Whiskey, six year old at $1.00 for each quart, or six for $5.00. Send for his price list and catalogue and mention this paper.
