TExT: "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold."-Jolin X., 16.  There is no monopoly in religion. Thi grace of God is not a nice little proparty fenced ofr all for ournolves. It is not aking't park \& \& watick we look through a barred                                      many in all thase denominations. We ag gregate them, and we think we are giving an intelligent and an accurate account, but Christ comes and  counted them right. There are those whom you have never seen, those of whom you have never heard. I have My children in all parts of the earth, on all the islands of the  sea, on all the continents, in all the mount- ains and in all the valleys. Do you think that these fow sheep You have counted are all the sheep I have? There is a great minl-      In the first place I remark the Heavenly Bhepherd will find many of His sheep among those whe are at preseat non-churchzoers There are different kinds of churches. Some- times you will find a church made up only of Christians. Everything seems finished. The  church remeinds you of those skeleton pianta from which by chemical preparation all the greenness and the verdure Lave been takeen and they are cold and white and delicate and beantiful and finished. All that is wanted is  a glase case put over them. The minister on the Sabbath has only to talre an ostrich feather and brush of the dust that has ac- cumulated in the last six daas of businoss, and then fhey are as cold and besutifnl and $\square$  sound of dram and fife calling more recruita to the Iord's army.
