James M'Clanahan on Wednesday hauled Bushman's safe, weighing over three tons from the hotel building to his new store, with one horse. Jim feels proud of the feat. It was a heavy load.

The Milton Record says: Rev. M. J. Carothers, whom we noted last week as having been stricken with paralysis, is, we are glad to note, improving, and his friends have hope of his entire recovery.

Postal cards of a dainty color will soon be sold by the postoffice department. The unattractive and jammed card now in use will give place to a pretty little oblong tablet of all the subdued tints in rose, blue and gold.

Among some of the first official acts of Governor Pattison was the attaching of his official signature to the commission of Dr. H. W. Buckingham, of Phillipsburg, Coroner of Centre county, which act was done on Thursday, the 22d inst.

The Bellefonte and Eastern Railway may perhaps be completed in time to give the Sugar Valley people an opportunity to attend the World's Fair at Chicago in '93, but at present the prospect is not very encouraging says Sugar Valley Journal.

Ex-Mayor Sternberg, of Bellefonte is going to Seattle, W. T., next spring, where he has three sons, who write him glowing accounts of that far-off country. Sternberg will go out and grow up with that country, and make it Democratic.

The revival is still in progress in the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Hicks. The reverend gentlemen has met with very good success in the past and we hope his labors in this place will not be without a harvest in the conversion of sinners.

Last Saturday evening the Centre County Bar Association held a banquet at the residence of James H. Rankin, in honor of Mr. Rankin having been a member of that association for fifty years. They presented him with a handsome gold watch and chain as a token of their esteem.

The bowlers of Phillipsburg have formed themselves into a social for the purpose of protection. The system of credit has been the source of much loss on their part as the result, as also to those who carry cash for all they have because charges are made to cover part of losses through bad debts. Credit is to be abolished after March 1st so that the former lame ones may have the opportunity of making their arrangements accordingly. Uniform charges will also be made for the several joints, so that quality of meat will hereafter be the standard to entire customers.

Court.

Court convened on Monday morning, with Judge Furst and associates Riley and Rhoads on the bench. Mr. J. A. Aikens, of Bellefonte, was chosen foreman of the grand jury after same had been polled. Several petitions were presented before the court upon which action was taken. Judge Furst in his instructions to the grand jury, said that crime in the county was on the decrease, and that the District Attorney had only three bills of indictment to lay before them and being rather insignificant ones thought if they were expedited they could be discharged from their duties the same evening. Application was made by Mr. D. F. Fortney, esq., for appointment by the court of commissioners relative to the sale of the stranded Centre Iron Co's., real estate. The court postponed action.

The various county constables were then called and their reports presented to the court.

The first case before the court for trial was called on Monday afternoon. Commonwealth vs. Samuel Cooper, for surety of peace. Action was brought by his wife. Several witnesses were called, who testified they heard defendant make threats against his wife. Defendant denied same, and said he desired to gain possession of his little daughter, who was in possession of his wife. The parties are from Phillipsburg. The court sentenced both parties to pay half the costs and defendant to enter bond of surety of peace for the sum of $100 and stand committed until sentence was complied with.

Next case was Commonwealth vs. Robert Devlin, charged with assault and battery. Defendant testified that he was assisting a constable to make an arrest in Phillipsburg and was corroborated by constable. Jury found him not guilty, and prosecutor, Mr. Nevlin to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Pennington charge, assault and battery and indecent assault upon Georgiana Beck. Defendant plead guilty to both indictments and the court sentenced him to a fine of $100, costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for a period of one year.

Commonwealth vs. Arthur Rothrock was first case on trial Tuesday morning. Defendant plead guilty to indictment and was sentenced to a fine of $25, costs of prosecution and usual allowance of money, etc.

The grand jury ignored bill vs. Charles Stewart and Peter May, charged with larceny, and put costs on county.

Commonwealth vs. Frank Ingram, charged with assault and battery upon wife. Defendant plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay fine of $1, costs of prosecution and enter bond to amount of $100 as surety of peace. This was the last of commonwealth cases and court declared ready for civil cases.

The first case was that of L. F. Wetzler use of William Harper vs. C. M. Bower, administrator of John Fetzer, deceased. Without going to trial a verdict was found for the defendant in the sum of $5013.67.

The grand jury completed their duties and made their report and received their discharge on Tuesday morning. In their report in substance, they condemned all the water closets in and about the public premises and recommended making better arrangements for the accommodation of ladies. They also advised the removal of the iron fence enclosing the court house yard, and of the telephone pole down which the colored murderer Wilson slid and escaped. A bath room was recommended for the convenience of the prisoners confined in the jail, and condemned the practice of allowing visitors in the jail at all times and that two days of the week be appointed as visiting days only. They also recommended some needed improvements about and in the court house.

Communion Services. The Communion will be administered at Centre Hill on Sunday Feb. 1st. Preparatory service on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Baptisms on Saturday morning, meeting of the Session on Saturday morning. Opportunity for joining the church on Saturday morning. Special collection on Sabbath morning. Arrangements for continuing services during the coming week will be announced at the time of the meeting. All are welcome. HENRY C. BASKERVILLE.

Shot a Catamount. On Tuesday last while Jacob From and Christ Durst were engaged in cutting wood on the Durst tract on the mountain, a short distance above town, they discovered two catamounts and were successful in treeing one where they held it until one came down to town and got a gun when they shot it. It was large but not fat, showing that the winter had been rather hard on the animals. It attracted quite a great deal of attention in town Tuesday evening where it was exhibited.

Good substantial clothing for very little money at S. Loeb's.

The entire stock of Musser's shoe store, Bellefonte, must be sold before Feb. 1. There are bargains there.

Have you been to A. C. Mingle's shoe store in the Brokerhoff house block? Never miss going there when at Bellefonte, he always has something new and offers none but genuine goods which he warrants. For low prices in boots and shoes Mingle's is the place.

Lecture.

We call special attention this week to the lecture to be delivered in the Lutheran church, at Centre Hall Feb. 6, in the evening, by Miss Emma Louise Parry, of Cincinnati, O. The subject will be "Life among the Germans," covering home and national life,—the every day living as contrasted with America, &c. Miss Parry enjoys an enviable reputation as a writer and lecturer, is a graduate of one of our best Seminaries, and has added to her many accomplishments an extensive acquaintance with the manners and customs of foreign nations, through years of travel abroad. The lecture cannot fail to please and satisfy. The proceeds are to go towards wiping out the remaining indebtedness on the church building. We offer the people a good thing for little money, and have a good reason to ask for a large attendance. Admission 15 cents, children under 12, 10 cents, under 6 free.

W. E. FISCHER.

Short Pickups.

Reedsville is to have a new bank. Potatoes are $1.50 per bushel in Clearfield.

Daniel Rankle, of Spring Mills is on the sick list.

Mrs. Anna Albright, of Millheim, had a stroke of palsy last week.

A farmers' alliance was organized in Union county last week.

George Ulrich was appointed notary public for Millheim, by Gov. Beaver.

The deepest hole ever bored into the earth is the artesian well at Potsdam, which is 5,500 feet deep.

The Union and Northumberland folks had only six inches of snow Sunday 18, while we had 12 to 14 inches.

There is prospect of organizing a farmers' alliance in Centre county—some prominent agriculturists are favoring it.

About Again.

The many friends of Gov. Curtin will be pleased to know that the old "war governor" has recovered from his recent illness, and is able to be about again. Some two weeks ago we found him still confined to his room, and he felt certain of being able to go out in a few days. He keeps up his interest in public affairs and the important happenings of the day. Altho too ill then to read the papers, happily his estimable wife reads the papers for him, and thus the governor keeps right up with the times, and in discussing the topics of the day can put in a fitting joke here and there' so characteristic of his whole life, and entertain a caller with his old-time pleasant and agreeableness.

The Deadly Cigarette Again.

Eugene Heims, a young son of T. C. Heims, a wealthy coal operator of Oceola, was taken to his home from the State College Saturday. The whole side of his face was completely paralyzed, the cause being the excessive use of cigarettes. Eugene is a grand son of Daniel Hess, of Linden Hall, and a young man of promise which, sad to say, may be clouded by the excessive use of the cursed cigarette. We know Eugene intimately, and were glad to see him growing into manhood, and we hope he may get over his present trouble and give tobacco the go-by.

Closing Out.

Contemplating quitting business, the firm of J. H. Musser & Son, Brokerhoff Row, Bellefonte, offer their entire stock of boots and shoes at less than actual cost. The stock is all new and fresh and every pair a bargain. They are bound to dispose of the stock by Feb. 1, and it will be your opportunity to buy at unprecedentedly low prices. Go at once and secure a bargain before it is too late.

Can't do it.

There are two things a full-blooded Indian cannot learn to do—box or wrestle. He is all right as runner, jumper and rough-and-tumble, but anything like science puts him out. His way is to bite and kick and pull hair and he can't be broken in to stand up and take one on the nose.

An Expensive Ticket.

Levi Eicholz, of Dillsburg, York county, was arrested on Saturday for sending money for lottery tickets to New Orleans. Eicholz was taken to Harrisburg and held in $600 bail for a hearing before United States Commissioner Wolfe.

Flood Money.

Hon. Ed. T. McNeelis presented a bill in the House at Harrisburg, Wednesday to pay back to banker Kemble the $400,000 borrowed from him by Governor Beaver for the benefit of flood sufferers.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms of Bellefonte have been closed for want of funds to sustain the Association. This is not only a case of the kind in this State; but interest in this good cause seems to be on the decline everywhere. It is unfortunate that such should be the case, but it evidently is.

A good warm boot or shoe is needed by all during this winter weather. A. C. Mingle, Bellefonte, keeps a complete stock and at low prices. Gum boots, shoes, etc., a specialty. It will not be regretted if you buy your clothing from Lewins, at the Philad. Branch. He guarantees his on tire stock.

Personal.

Aaron Harter attended court this week as traverse juror.

Mr. Daniel Horner, of Tusseyville, came to Centre Hall on business Tuesday.

Mr. William Bitner, of near Tusseyville, spent a short time with us this week.

Mrs. Christ, Moiz, of Woodward, spent several days this week with Mrs. Flora Bairfoot.

Squire M. L. Rishell, of Farmers Mills, lit up our sanctum with his presence this week.

Auctioneer James Leitzell, of Spring Mills, was in town this week. James has the usual number of sales to cry this spring and always gives satisfaction.

Mr. James Kimpfort, of Boalsburg, a gentleman of sociability and pleasing manners, spent an hour with us on Saturday last, in our sanctum. Mr. Kimpfort was in Centre Hall, on business, and took time to favor us with a call.

Mr. George Dale, of Lemont, was in town on Tuesday. Mr. Dale was on the picnic committee last year as superintendent of exhibits and did noble work in the fulfillment of his duties. He is a prominent granger and will some day stand among the prominent's of the order.

George Toyer has contracted to put up a barn 50 by 35 feet, for J. H. Malin, on the old barn site, which Malin bought a part. The latter sold his home in Millheim and intends moving on his farm as soon as the buildings are up.

J. H. Kimpfort is on the sick list. No one was surprised when the news reached us that there was no money in the county treasury, every one foretold that. The new officials about take warning and remember that they are Democrats. Take our present Governor for an example.

The Pennsylvania Tours to California.

The wonderful popularity of the Pennsylvania tours to the Golden Gate is best illustrated by the fact that the full complement of passengers for the first, starting on February 7th, registered six week before the date of the tour.

The space in the first train being all taken engagements are now being made for the remainder of the series. The second tour, fixed for March 3d, is an exceedingly desirable one, in account of the interesting route traversed, as well by reason of the fact that its members are in California at what many consider the most delightful season of the year. Eastern people who desire to see the Golden Coast in its most attractive garb could not choose a more desirable opportunity.

Names are being registered very rapidly for the second tour, those who wish to make their going certain should apply at once for tickets.

The magnificent appointed train, presenting all the comforts of home or hotel, is not the least conspicuous feature of these great transcontinental trips.

For itineraries and tickets apply with out delay to Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agents Philadelphia or Tourist Agents Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 233 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, or 849 Broadway, New York.

Special Announcement.

We have made arrangements with Dr B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr B. J. KENDALL CO., ENOXBURGH FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.

Madisonburg.

A Ocker's made a flying visit to Madisonburg last Sunday.

Mr. Ira Shaffer, who left here six years ago for Kansas is here visiting his aged parents and other relatives.

Last Saturday evening Henry Feldler hitched in his big sled and brought the Orchestra, and also a number of our young ladies and gentlemen to his home. There were twenty-five on his sled besides two sleighs. The orchestra was accompanied on the organ by Miss Gertrude Wise, and on the piano by E. G. Zeigler, which made some of the very best music. After the boys were done playing, the party were served to all kinds of refreshments. The boys say they all had a good time and will always be glad to see Mr. Feldler come.

We are glad to say that Miss Ida Ocker has recovered from her sickness.

Millheim.

Mr. Abraham Baum was in this place last week on business. Mr. Baum has the best Livery and Exchange stables in Bellefonte.

The snow that fell in this place last Saturday night was about 4 inches in depth, just enough to give the snow shovel brigade a light job of it.

Miss Etta Harter, of Canton, Ohio, was seen on our streets Saturday, she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell, on West Main street. Miss Harter is a very intelligent and accomplished young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Harter are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Kurenkabe, of Harrisburg, at their pleasant home on East Penn street.

Mrs. Anna Albright had a very severe stroke of paralysis, which affected her face, neck and arms. Dr. Frank was called, and at this writing she is improving.

Armed band No. 2, gave the citizens of this place a delightful serenade last Saturday night, after playing three excellent pieces they passed on to Coburn. Call again boys and bring your instruments with you, we will welcome you.

Walnut Grove.

Messrs D. R. Smith, of Loganton, and Samuel Barnitz, of York, two lively drummers, spent last Tuesday night in our vicinity.

Viola From attended the convention at Shiloh last week, and quite a number attended the concert.

Those in attendance at Tusseyville convention this week are Bettie Kimpfort, Cora Durst, John Meyer and George Durst, they pronounce it a success.

David Meyer, of Centre Hall, met with quite a misfortune last Wednesday morning, while coming across the cross roads, his horse got out of the track which caused one runner of the sleigh to get on the banks, the sleigh was upset and the horse started off at break neck speed, dragging Mr. Meyer several rods, the horse got away from him and ran on to the saw mill where it was caught.

The folks who attended the party at Samuel Durst's, near Old Fort, on last Monday night, say they had a very nice time, and were royally entertained, the crowd numbered about fifty.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of Progress Orange, held at Centre Hall, Jan. 23, 1891, the following resolutions relating to the death of James C. Ruble, who suddenly and unexpectedly demise occurred Jan. 3, 1891, were adopted:

Whereas, It having pleased the Grand Architect of the Universe, to summon to a state of endless duration, our worthy brother, James C. Ruble, we, while bowing with submission to the inevitable decree that "The dust shall return to earth, as it was, and the spirit shall return unto God, who gave it," deeply deplore the severance of another link from our fraternal chain.

Therefore, Be it resolved, that we extend to the bereaved family and mourning friends, over whom sorrow has hung her sable mantle, our sincere sympathy, and pray that Infinite goodness may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts, and inspire them with the consolation that hope in futurity, and faith in God give, even in the shadow of the tomb.

That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased brother, and also be published in the Farmers' Friend and county papers.
