KEYSTONE NOTES.

Items of Real Interest Presented in Condensed Form.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND KNOW.

Gleanings of Importance from All Fields of News, Picked Up Here and There in the State.

In Bucks county last year 347 marriage licenses were granted. Sixteen hundred and one applicants for liquor licenses in Allegheny City.

Two thousand Potomac owners ask councils for two new fire engines. Eight hours time henceforth in the railroad shops at Susquehanna.

An iron ore vein in the Cornwall ore bank killed William Christ, aged 60. John McGowan, the iron king, died at Washington, Pa., aged about 50 years.

Charles Penn, of Freebornsburg, was cut to pieces by a Valley train at Bethlehem.

Lambert Daniel Stoyer, of the National, at West-Hamburg, is dead at the age of 63.

Adam S. Rhoads, aged 46, a well known musician of Lancaster, is dead of consumption.

The grounds of the Cumberland Agricultural society were sold on Saturday for $3,000.

Elias Hoffman was killed by an explosion of gas in Pine Brook colliery, near Scranton.

Huns have contributed liberally to the King's Daughters' hospital project at Pottsville.

A thief pried his way into the Central school at Lehigh and stole only the new dictionary.

Col. Frank J. Magee, of the Eighth regiment, it is said, is to be superintendent of the State arsenal.

A Bucks county jury has awarded Allen Tomlinson $3,313 damages for land taken by the Trenton cut-off road.

An observatory to cost $2,000 will be erected to the memory of the late Col. Theodore Hyatt on the Chester academy grounds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon, who had what she considered a $5,000 fall on a Delta borough sidewalk, accepts the jury's figures—$750.

L. M. Emmertson, of York, sues the Northern Central Railroad company for killing his son, an employe, at Marsh Run, a year ago.

A forlorn-looking pocketbook lay in the gutter at Lancaster for four hours. Lots of people saw it, but no one suspected it contained $55.

Edwin K. Myers, son of B. F. Meyers, of Harrisburg, is a candidate for quartermaster general in case of Col. Deming's rejection by the senate.

Bishop O'Hara, of Scranton, appeals to all the faithful of his diocese to contribute on the first Sunday in Lent to alleviate the distress in Sligo, Ireland.

Rev. Mr. Earle, of Chadd's Ford, has just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh, in searching for his son, who has been missing from home for fifteen months.

Samuel Baronowski, of Reading, misstated his age in joining a beneficial society and was expelled. He says he made a mistake; and has laid the case before a magistrate.

Penitentiary life does not agree with Ebenezer Shellenberger, of Doylestown. He is growing thin. He is doing clerical work, being an assistant in the bookkeeping department.

Frederick Plowfield, aged 70, a well known farmer of Morgantown, was stricken with apoplexy while returning home from the mill. On arriving at his home he was taken from his wagon unconscious and died soon after.

IN THE COKE REGION.

The Strike Now Fully on, and Trouble Brewing.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—No coal has been mined in any of the pits owned by the Frick, Schoenmaker or McClure Coke companies since Saturday, and no one but the coke drawers are at work.

Thirteen thousand men are out on a strike. There will be large additions to that number by to-morrow, and the duration of the conflict is merely a conjecture.

Operators and workers are equally firm in their determination and both are alert to prevent a repetition of the deprivations of previous strikes.

In the Dunbar district the men are nearly all at work, and some of them will remain at work if permitted to do so. The workers' scale demands an advance of wages of about 13 per cent., all coal to be weighed instead of measured, and eight hours to constitute a day's work.

The operators have demanded a reduction of 10 per cent. on all classes of labor. The current wage scale has expired. There are now no negotiations for a settlement pending.

During a drunken fight at Ft. Hill yesterday, Yard Boss Snyder and his assistant were beaten unmercifully by Hungarians. Snyder's assistant was probably fatally injured.

An Unsuccessful Launch.

CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 9.—Another unsuccessful attempt was made to get the Mallory line steamer Comto into the ways at Rosche's shipyard.

The vessel moved about eight feet more and then refused to budge. It was concluded to block the vessel up again and make a third attempt to baptize the vessel on Saturday next. It is probable that she will have to be pulled off with the aid of tugs.

A Table Glassware Trust Forming.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—Five table glassware houses in this city, one in Wheeling, one in Fostoria and one in Findlay, O., have made application for a new trust combination which will be known as the United States Glass company, with a capital of $1,000,000.

It is said to be the beginning of the combine which will soon embrace all the table glassware factories in the country.

Dead by the Side of the Track.

MEDIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—Dr. C. S. Mercer, a well known physician of Media, was found dead by the side of one of the tracks of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad station at Elwyn.

His neck was broken and the body badly bruised, and he had evidently been dead some time before the body was discovered.

CONGRESSIONAL RESUME.

The Week's Work of the Fifty-first Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—In the senate the credentials of Joseph H. Gallinger as a senator from New Hampshire were presented and read. The first session bill was then considered a part of a committee amendment.

The military appropriations bill was reported on and passed out over as unfinished business. The senate then, after a brief executive session, adjourned.

In the house J. A. Orenby, the silver pool witness was by resolution discharged from the custody of the sergeant-at-arms. In committee of the whole the house proceeded to a consideration of the sundry civil services appropriation bill. After a long discussion the committee rose and the diplomatic appropriation bill was passed. The house then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—In the senate, Mr. Ingalls, rising to a personal statement, defended his opposition to the closure rule and the election bill, and replied sarcastically to his critics.
