A Letter of Thanks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 .- The specia funeral train which carried the body of Gen. Sherman to St. Louis for buria returned to this city bearing the family of the dead general and military office who accompanied the body. One of the first things done after arrival was the writing of a letter testifying their appreciation of the honors paid t the beloved dead and the nation's hero The letter was signed by Father Thoma Sherman. The letter is as follows:

NEW YORK, Feb. 23, It is fitting that some public acknowledg ment should be made by the family of Gen Sherman of the very many heartfelt token of sympathy which they have re eived in their bereavement. We can only say that such universal and such evidently profound sorrow, manifested as it has been in a thom sand ways, sustains and comforts us in ou desolation. For the entire nation, by its gen erous expression of condolence, has lightened the burden of our grief and helped us to hear our irreparable loss.

The friends of the family are asked to ac cept this slight token of our grateful appre clation in lieu of any more direct or more personal communication, while it would be more gratifying to us, we have not the strength or courage to offer to each and all.

Charles Foster was born in Seneca township, Seneca county, O., April 12, 1828, and his school education was limited to that af-forded in the common school of his district and the academy at Norwalk. His father had been a pioneer settler and merchant, and when Charles left the academy he followed his father's footsteps, becoming a partner in the business of a country store in Fostoria, and at once became a leading man in the locality. In 1879 he was elected a member of congress from the Ninth Ohio district. He was re-elected in 1872, 1874 and 1876.

In 1878 the boundaries of the district had been changed and Mr. Foster was defeated. During his service in congress he took high rank among the practical leaders of the Republican party. In 1879 he was elected gover-nor of Ohio, securing a majority of 18,30 votes over Gen. Thomas Ewing, the Domo-cratic and Greenback nominee. He was re-nominated in 1881, when he defeated Book-walter by 25,000 majority. He ran again for congress last fail, when his great popularity cut down the Democratic majority in the Eighth congressional district from 1,900 to 2.0

AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

Two Men Instantly Killed and Several Wounded. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24.-A horrible tragedy occurred here shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Two men were killed and several wounded in a fusiliade of pistol shots. The terrible affair was the outgrowth of a newspaper feud, which has been raging for several weeks between the publishers of The Sunday World and Sunday Capital, of this city.

Col. W. J. Elliott, editor of The Capital, shot and instantly killed Albert Osborne, city editor of The World. W. L. Hughes, an old gentleman, who was standing near by, was shot and killed with a stray bullet from Elliort's pistol. The tragedy, as before stated, was the result of a newspaper war. Two weeks ago The World made charges against Elliott's family, insinuating that a fe-male relative of Elliott was unchaste. Elliott retaliated on the following Sunday with a four-column article, charging F. W. Levering, editor of The World, with being the joint proprietor of an assignation house and being associated with a woman named Lou Buring also implicated Claude Meeker. Governer Campbell's private secretary. Levering and his city editor, Mr. Os-borne, retaliated Sunday with a sensa-tional article charging Elliott with nearly all the crimes in the calendar.

Miners' Bodies Recovered.

JEANESVILLE, Pa., Feb. 24.- The bodies of McCloskey, Griffiths and a Hungarian were brought to the surface. They are in a terribly bloated condition. Another Hungarian was found late yesterday. Both Hungarian bodies are unrecognizable. Their bodies were float-ing in a dog hole in the main gangway. McCloskey and Griffiths were dug from a pile of timbers and coal dirt.

Miners Starved to Death.

HAZLETON. Pa., Feb. 23.-The bodies of Larry Reed, Harry Hall, Mike Smith and John Bullock were recovered from the Jeanesville mine yesterday. They were found in Ball's breast. This is situated about seventy feet above the water line, and the men had suffered the terrible pangs of hunger and thirst for ten or twelve days before they succumbed. The bodies were fearfully mutilated by rats. The bodies of the other victims, eight in number, will probably be recovered.
