KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.:

Gents-I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment.
I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and has not been lame.
Yours truly, WM. A. CURL. GERMANTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1889.

GERMANTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1839.

DR. E. J. KENDALL Co.,
Enceburgh Falls, Vt.

Gents: In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago Lhad a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and awoilen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, he became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvements immediately from its use, and before the bottle was used up I was satisfied that it was doing him a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April, showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a valuable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land. Respectfully yours.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS | THE HISTORY OF A WEEK

Their Twenty-third Annual Convention in Washington.

MRS. STANTON SPEAKS BY PROXY.

Susan B. Anthony Reads the Address of the Absent President. Mrs. Lucy Stone Reviews the Work for Forty Years-Isabella Hooker on Woman in Politics.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The opening session of the twenty-third women' national suffrage convention was held at Albaugh's grand opera house yester-day, and with two sessions each day will continue until Sunday. The same large audience that has characterized the meetings of the woman's council during the first four days of the week was present. The exercises were begun by music and singing, which were followed by the invocation by the Rev. Olympia Brown. The delegates were then welcomed to Wash-ington by Mrs. Eva M. S. Marble, president of the District Washington Suf-frage association. The annual address of the president of the Woman's Nat-MRS. STANTON. tional Suffrage association - Elizabeth Cady Stantonwas read by Susan B. Anthony. The announcement by Miss Anthony that Mrs. Stanton would, in June next, return to live out her remaining years in America, was received with enthusiastic applause.

The subject of her address was "The Degradation of Disfranchisement.' The address was a clear statement of the political status of woman today and a strong argument in favor of universal suffrage. The address was enthusiastically re-ceived. A solo "No Cross, No Crown,"

SUSAN B. ANTHONY. was then rendered with fine effect, after which Miss Anthony, acting president, introduced in a most felicitous and sympathetic manner the venerable Lucy Stone, of Boston. Mrs. Stone received a most enthusiastic and gratifying reception. She proceeded with an interesting and entertaining address entitled a 'Resume of the work from 1850 to 1890." Mrs. Stone reviewed the efforts of the reformers for the past forty years and gave many ISABELLA B. HOOKER. striking reminiscences which both pleased and encouraged her auditors. Isabella Beecher Hooker followed with a very able paper on "Woman in Politics and Jurisprudence.

Woman's National Council. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.-Temperance was the subject of discussion by the women's national council yesterday, and a number of interesting addresses were made.

Washington, Feb. 26.—"The Politi-cal Status of Women" was the subject elucidated at the woman's council yesterday. Albaugh's Opera house was crowded and much interest was manifested. Susan B. Anthony read a paper by Elizabeth Cady Stanton on "The Matriarchate, or Mother Age," which dealt with the bondage inflicted on the weaker sex by tyrant man from time immemorial.

Anna Dickinson Insane. WILKESBARRE, Feb. 27.—A decided sensation was created here by the removal of Miss Anna Dickinson to the insane asylum. She has been in failing health for some time. The unsuccessful results of the later years of her career gave her great depression of spirits. For many years she has lived in an humble cottage at West Pittston.

"Big Joe" Asks for Turkey. HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 28.-All of the rescued miners are stronger and cheerful. "Big Joe" asked for turkey, but instead was given eggs. He was then given orange juice, and said he would like to have a gallon of that. He is anxious to get home to see his baby boy that arrived there this week.

Five Hundred Millions Appropriated Washington, March 3.—Mr. Cannon stated yesterday that already this year appropriations to the amount of $500,000,000 have been provided for. This sum, he said, has entirely exhausted the sarplus and will exhaust the next year's surplus in the treasury.
