GEN. PALMER WINS.

It Costs Illinois $150,000 to Elect a Senator

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 12 .-- Gen. John M. Palmer was elected United States senator yesterday afternoon on the 154th ballot, which resulted as follows: Palmer, 103; Lindley, 100; Streeter, The fight over the senatorship lasted fifty days and has cost the state $150,000.

Gen. Palmer is 75 years old, but has, all the physical vigor of a strong man of 50. He has been closely identified with Illinois politics for forty years, having been a leader in both parties, and by each given all the honors it had to bestow.

Up to the opening of the war Palmer was a Democrat, but had never held office. He went into the war as a colonel and came out went into the war as a colonel and came out a major general. After the war he affiliated with the Republican party, and in 1886 he was elected governor. In 1872 Gen. Palmér's term as governor ended, and about that time he ceased all connection with the Republican party, and soon after openly joined the De-mecracy mocracy.

Quiet in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, March 17 .- There is not the least bit of excitement in the city today, matters having resumed their usual course. Business is going on as usual, and the stranger could not by outward signs guess that the city had been the scene of a tragedy which startled the country.

Many Italians who were under the Mafia ban are delighted at Saturday's uprising, and say that the Mafia will now be broken up. Even the Italian consul received a letter threatening him under consideration. in case he did not assist in getting the accused off. The district attorney is investigating the jury bribery charges.

The Government Not Responsible.

WASHINGTON. March 17 .- Secretary Blaine stated that there were no new developments in La Mafia troubles in New Orleans. On all hands in official circles the killing is deeply deplored, but as far as opinions expressed in diplomatic circles indicate, the United States cannot in any way be held responsible for the killing. It is purely a police matter of state jurisdiction, and if any indemnity is demended it must be face the state is demanded it must be from the state. The demand, of course, will come from the Italian government through its minister resident and transmitted to the governor of Louisiana through the state department. That is the diplomatic route, but it will not in any way commit the United States to the paying of an indemnity.

Secretary Blaine's Action.

WASHINGTON, March 16.-Baron Fava, the Italian minister, yesterday formally brought to the attention of the president brought to the attention of the president the slaughter of the Sicilian prisoners in the parish jail at New Orleans Satur-day. #### Satisfaction Promised.

ROME, March 16.-The Italian cabinet has sent instructions to the Italian minister at Washington, Baron De Fava, to protest vehemently against the murder of Italians in the prison in New Orleans on Saturday last. Baron De Fava has cabled in reply that he had presented the protest to the United States government and received in reply the promise that full satisfaction would be given.

The Murder of Chief Hennessy.

The Murder of Chief Hennessy. David C. Hennessy, chief of the police force of New Orieans, walked home from his office the night of Wednesday Oct. 15, 1890. A friend and feliow officer accompanied him to within one block of his house, which he reached just a little before mid-night. The street was then apparently de-serted, but no sooner had chief Hennessy mounted his doorstep than a volley of bullets struck him and he fell upon the sidewalk struck him and he fell upon the sidewalk mortally wounded.

The murder was attributed to the Mafia, an The murder was attributed to the Maffa, an organization of Sicilian assassing which the chief had been endeavoring to break up. This Maffa was originally an Italian political or-ganization, which taught the doctrine of as-sassination. To prevent treachery it became necessary to bind its members together with the strongest oaths, and those who disclosed the secrets knew that they were sacrificing their own lives by doing so. Nineteen of the Matrangas were indicted, nine of whom were brought before the jury for trial, with the result above noted.

The bill providing for compulsory education, introduced by Mr. Farr, of Lackawanna, was considerably discussed on second reading. The first section of the bill was amended so as to include parochial schools in its provisions, and providing that children be-tween 8 and 12 twelve years of age shall be compelled to attend school at least four months in each year. The section requiring police officers and constables to enforce the provisions of the act was stricken out. Mr. Lyttle offered a free

HARRISBURG, March 14 .- The bill appropriating $333,000 to reimburse Governor Beayer for money expended during the floods of 1889 was made a special order for next week in the house. Mr. Farrell, of Clearfield, warned the members against two swindlers who were collecting money alleging that it was for the striking miners in the Connelsville region. The calendar of bills on first reading was cleared.

Bills were favorably reported in the senate providing for the creation of a department of poor law administration: changing the time and places of regis-tering voters and amending the laws for the same; relating to the collection of delinquent state, county and poor taxes and providing for monthly returns and payments thereof; requiring the imprisonment of persons made liable for the payment of costs in any criminal prosecution by the finding of a grand jury and providing for their discharge.

Prayer Answered Quickly.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., March 16.-Just as Rev. J. L. Eberley, a United Brethren preacher conducting a revival meet-ing at the Brush Ridge school house, had reached his favorite phrase, "O Lord, shower down thy blessings upon us," in his opening prayer, the audience was startled by a drenching downpour of water from the trap door immedi-ately over the kneeling clergyman, sat-urating him through and through. The downpour was occasioned by mischievous John L. Smith, a 15-year-old boy, who had secreted himself in the attic before the meeting with two backets of water.
