Another Arrested for Wilson.

Bellefonte was again thrown into a great state of excitement on Wednesday evening when the train from Tyrone arrived nere at 4:30 o'clock. The cause of this was that what was thought to be John Wilson, the murderer of Harry Waterhouse, had been captured and brought to town. The criminal was in charge of Bruce Chambers, Chief of Police of Big Run, accompanied by Fred Hummet. When District Attorney J. C. 5 mar 4t Myer saw the man he said he was not the man, although there was some re semblance. He was taken to the jail and searched, but nothing was found but an old penknife. He gave his name as P. F. Burnette, of Greenville, Indiana county Pa. He said he was a tight rope walker and trapeze performer. After being kept in jail over night he was re-
