STRIKERS RIOTING.

They Assault the Works at Morewood and Other Places.

ARMED DEPUTIES ARE ON DUTY.

A Dynamite Bomb Exploded at Leisenring Plant-Great Disorder Throughout the District-A Striking Foreigner Badly Beaten at

SCOTTDALE, Pa., March 31.—Rioting prevails throughout the coke regions. The Jimtown works were raided yesterday by 1,500 strikers, and the twenty workmen there were driven from the yard in great confusion. Work was to have been started at the Warewood plant yesterday, but the strikers prevented it.

A dynamite bomb was exploded at mdoah City colliery.

Miss Laura Orlady, daughter of the ate Dr. Martin Orlady, of Huntingdon ounty, has died suddenly.

the Leisenring No. 3 plant, which tore a hole six feet deep in the ground, but no one was severely hurt. Great disorder prevails at the Leith and Leisen. ring and other plants.

The Situation at Morewood. Mt. Pleasant, Pa., March 31. -The striking coke workers gathered at the Morewood, Standard Alice and Bridgeport plants and concentrated their forces on the hills around the Morewood plant. Morewood is admirably situated for a raid. Two thousand strikers, armed with clubs, iron burs. stones, revolvers and other weapons, commenced firing revolvers and made a dash toward the ovens. The deputies, hearing the bullets whiz by their neads uncomfortably close, commenced seeking places of safety.

The strikers then began tearing up Larry tracks for a distance of 500 or 600 feet. They burned other property, tore down fences and committed other depredations. So far as known no one has been seriously injured.

A riot occurred at Everson last night in which a striking foreigner was badly beaten. The fight, however, was not caused by the strike.

Warrants have been issued at Uniontown for eleven of the Leith and twenty-seven of the Jimtown rioters. A serious riot is reported from Home stead, in which a number of Hungarians, Italians and others were engaged. The trouble occurred in the upper portion of the town, and thirty men were engaged in it. Seven or eight were seriously wounded. One of the participants has been arrested, and it is feared that further trouble may occur.

The Cedar Brook Murderer in Jail. CAMDEN, N. J., March 31 .- Dominico Philippo Coco, the Italian scavenger of this city, who plunged a stiletto into the breast of his sister-in-law, Geovanno Dionore, at Cedar Brook Saturday night, is securely guarded in the Camden jail. He was captured while alighting from a train at Kaign's Point. There is a cut on his head, which he claims was inflicted with an ax by his victim before he stabbed her. This is believed to be false, and the probability is that the Italian cut himself with a knife to support the theory of self defense. There was an ugly, jagged wound in her breast, where the dirk knife let out her life blood while e was endeavoring to save Mrs. Coco, from the furious husband.

A Serious Error Discovered. TRENTON, March 31 .- A serious error has been discovered by the attorney general in the amendments made by the legislature to the ballot reform laws. It was the intent of the laws to exempt towns of less than 4,000 from using election booths in their local elections. The word "not" was put in in Chester portraying the form divine the wrong place and it makes the use of booths applicable to towns of less than 4,000 inhabitants. The attorney general expresses the opinion that the intent of the law will hold, notwitnstanding the error.

Woman's Home Missionary Society. New York, March 31.-The annual meeting of the New York branch of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church was held yesterday in St. Andrew's church. HARRISBURG, March 26.—When the senate was called to order yesterday a number of petitions were received asking for the passage of a bill creating a forestry commission. The house bill amending the Brooks law came up as the special order on sec ond reading. It provides that cities of the first and second class shall pay a fee of $500, and cities of the third class $300. A motion was made indefinitely to postpone the bill. The motion was carried by a vote of 23 to 22. The house met at 10 o'clock. Speaker Thompson has obtained leave of absence for the rest of the week. Mr. Hays (Venango) is acting as speaker pro tem. Mr. Bain introduced a bill xeluding aliens from the holding of office or position under any department of the state government, or any county or municipal government within this mmonwealth.

HARRISBURG, March 27.-In the house esterday the governor's message, returning without his approval the bill validating private sales of real estate of decedents heretofore made under authority of orphans' courts upon petition of executors or administrators for payment of debts, was received. An attempt to pass the bill over the veto was defeated by a vote of 93 to 46, 166 votes being necessary to override a veto.

The act to reimburse the counties for the re-erection of county bridges swept away by the flood during the latter part of May and the first part of June, 1889, was discussed on second reading. The house at 9:30 p. m., adjourned until April 6. In the senate Mr. Mylin offered a resution that an equestrian oil portrait of Maj. Gen. Samuel Peter Heintzelman, of Lancaster, offered by Brevet Maj. Gen. J. Watts De Peyster, for the collection in the state library, be accepted by the senate and house of representatives. The resolution was adopted, and subsequently concurred in

Bills were passed finally as follows: Appropriating $10,000 to the Philadelna Society for Organizing Charity for the purpose of improving and maintaining the Wayfarers' lodge; appropriating $101,000 to the Pennsylvania State Normal school, of the Second district, located at Millersville, Lancaster county, for the purpose of erecting additional buildings and for other general school purposes: providing for the expense of the care and treatment of the indigent insane in county or like alm.s-

Preparing for a Big Strike.

Huntingdon, Pa., March 30.-Quiet but extensive preparations are being made by the Central Pennsylvania coal miners for a general strike on May 1. Their grievances, they say, are beyond further endurance and only a sweeping shut down will avail them anything. The scale provided by the Columbus convention for 50 cents per ton of 2,000 pounds has been ignored by all the operators, who exact 2,240 pounds per ton. The miners will also demand the eight hour day and the absolute free-dom from the pluck me stores.
