

WOLFF'S DOCTORS DISAGREE.

SENSATIONAL EVIDENCE IN THE TRIAL OF MRS. SCHMIDT.

THE DEAD GIRL'S NECK IN COURT.

The Judicial Investigation in the Famous Chester Tragedy, in which a Woman is Charged with the Murder of Her Sister, Emma Pfitzenmeyer.

Media, Pa., March 25.—The attendance at the opening of court on the second day of the trial of Mrs. Caroline Schmidt for the murder of Emma Pfitzenmeyer, her maiden sister, was much larger than on Monday, and great interest was manifested. A number of witnesses were examined as to the condition of the body when discovered. Coroner Bullock gave the reasons for his disbelief in the suicide plea. Dr. J. L. Formad gave evidence to show that the wounds could not have been self-inflicted.

Professor Formad Testifies.
Media, Pa., March 26.—Dr. Formad, the well known expert, was the most important witness produced yesterday. In the course of his examination the following conversation took place:
"In your opinion," asked the district attorney, "could those wounds have been inflicted by the girl herself with that knife?" pointing to the big butcher knife.
"I believe not."
"Could they have been inflicted with that knife in the hands of some other person?"
"I think so."
"Suppose the left carotid or jugular had been cut first by the person herself, would it have been possible for her to inflict the other cuts with that knife?"
"I think not. It may have been possible for her to inflict other injuries with a very sharp knife."
Then Judge Waddell asked whether all of the eight cuts which Dr. Formad found could have been inflicted by herself with any knife.
His answer was: "They could not; it would be utterly impossible."
Dr. Formad was cross examined at length, but his testimony was unshaken.

Expert Testimony for the Defense.
Media, Pa., March 27.—The testimony for the defense in the case of Mrs. Schmidt produced yesterday was of a highly sensational and interesting character.

Dr. W. W. Keene, of Philadelphia, the well known surgeon, now principal of surgery at the Jefferson Medical College, testified that at his post mortem examination of the body, Dec. 25, he had taken out the vertebrae of the neck. By request of Mr. Broomall Professor Keene walked over with the ghastly object in his hands and showed the jury the depth and nature of the wounds. Then Mr. Broomall said:
"Now, doctor, in your opinion, could these wounds have been self-inflicted?"
"I think they could. I am not saying they were; but, speaking from a medical standpoint, I think they could have been self-inflicted."
Dr. J. William White, professor of clinical surgery in the University of Pennsylvania, corroborated Dr. Keene in every particular.

Mrs. Walther's Testifies.
Media, March 28.—The principal witness on the fifth day of the trial of Mrs. Caroline Schmidt was her sister, Mrs. Sophia F. Walther. Mrs. Walther testified that her sister Emma, the murdered girl, was greatly downhearted the night of the bail, and then gave evidence to prove that Mrs. Schmidt had called to her on the street only twenty minutes before it was known to Officer Stringham that her sister was dead. This evidence was corroborated in a measure by Lucien Lewis, a railroad watchman. Mrs. Wilhelmina Presser, C. Augustus Dubhon and others testified that Emma seemed unusually low spirited at the ball. A large number of Chester citizens, among them several councilmen, gave evidence that the reputation of Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt was excellent.

Death of Rev. Howard Crosby.
New York, March 30.—Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby died at 5:45 last evening of pneumonia. The eminent preacher had been hovering between life and death for several days past. On Friday, however, his physicians were hopeful that their patient would survive his illness, and gave his family reason to hope. But yesterday forenoon a change for the worse came. He sank into a semi-comatose condition, and the faithful watchers at his bedside vainly waited for the show of recognition which came not.

Wreck of the Steamer Strathairly.
Norfolk, Va., March 26.—The Larne line steamer Strathairly went ashore Tuesday morning at 4:40 o'clock during a heavy north northeaster, one and a quarter miles south of Chicamacomico life saving station, on the North Carolina coast, twenty-one miles north of Hatteras.

The crew consisted of twenty-six men, and only seven remain to tell the tale of the terrible trip through the breakers in a raging storm. Among those lost are all the officers of the steamer except the second mate.

Six Lives Were Lost.
Norfolk, Va., March 28.—The Norwegian bark Dictator was driven ashore near life saving station No. 3, on Virginia beach, yesterday. Of the crew of fifteen nine were rescued. Capt. Jorgenson was among the rescued. Including those who perished were the captain's wife and little child. The captain swam ashore and was picked up by the crew. The bark was bound from Pensacola, Fla., to West Hartlepool, England, with lumber. She is fast going to pieces.

A Much Married Woman.
London, March 28.—A handsome woman named Evelyn Newell has been arrested for investigating forty-three men into marriage. She advertised as a wealthy widow. Her last victim was a vicar almost ruined by gambling.

A NOTABLE WEDDING.

The Charming Miss Grace Fuller Becomes Mrs. Brown.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The marriage of Miss Grace Fuller, the eldest daughter of Chief Justice Fuller, to Archibald Dapham Brown, of Chicago, took place last night at St. John's Episcopal church. Justices Bradley, Harlan, Lamar, Brewer and Brown, of the supreme court; Senators Culom and Cockrell, Representatives Gibson and MISS GRACE FULLER.

Milliken, Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, the Cuban minister, representatives of the Chinese legation, the Nicaraguan minister, Postmaster General Wagoner and many others in society and official life were present. Rev. George T. Douglass tied the nuptial knot.

After the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the Fuller residence. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Brown left Washington on a late train for New York, where they will take a steamer for Europe to spend several months abroad.

DIED IN THE FLAMES.

Three Killed and Five Injured in a Fire at Austin, Tex.

AUSTIN, Pa., March 28.—The Commercial hotel, a boarding house and dwelling of R. Henry were burned here Thursday at midnight. Three lives were lost and three persons were fatally burned. The dead are: John McCarthy, Frank Ordish and Lizzie McGavish.

When the fire was at its height Lizzie McGavish appeared at one of the second story windows and endeavored to leap out. She fell back, her foot caught in the sill and she was burned to a crisp in sight of the horrified spectators.

John Murdoch, a Canadian, jumped from the second story and struck on his head and shoulders. He is fatally injured and will die. Edward Kine was badly burned and seriously injured by jumping. Michael Cooley was badly burned. Maggie Sullivan was badly and John McNeely frightfully burned.

John McCarthy and Frank Ordish roamed together, and their charred and blackened bodies were found in the debris yesterday. It is reported that a child was also burned to death. There were twenty-five persons in the hotel and all had narrow escapes.

The property loss is about $5,000. An inquest is being held today.

Slavin's Sweeping Challenge.

New York, March 27.—Frank P. Slavin has authorized Billy Madden to match him to fight or box any man in America, for any amount from $2,500 to $10,000 a side and the championship of the world. He will give John L. Sullivan $5,000 if he fails to knock him out in six rounds. He also agrees to box either Kilrain, Corbett, Jackson, McCaffrey or Godfrey, and to forfeit a large amount of money if he fails to stop either of them in a stipulated number of rounds. Slavin will arrive here next month with Charles Starkey and stand ready to deposit $5,000 to back the foregoing propositions. His coming is likely to create a furore in pugilistic circles.

Missed His Aim, But Killed Another.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., March 28.—Charles Elliott, a faro dealer, brutally shot two women at the Casino Variety theatre yesterday and then committed suicide. He was occupying a box when he suddenly began emptying a revolver at the performers on the stage. Mabel Deban was his first victim, she being shot in the left breast and instantly killed. Another bullet struck Carrie Smith in the back, inflicting a fatal wound. Elliott then shot himself through the head, dying instantly. His shots were aimed at Lulu Durand, one of the performers, but she escaped. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting.
