

NEWSPAPER "SCOOPS."

HOW REPORTERS EXERT THEMSELVES TO GET NEWS.

Some Notable Instances of Enterprise.

A history of scoops would form a very good history of journalism from the time newspapers first began to be issued.

When the Prince of Wales visited America, the "New York Herald" managed to get a scoop on all his esteemed contemporaries by holding a wire against all comers.

One Thousand Dollars. I will forfeit the above amount, if I fail to prove that Fioraplexion is the best medicine in existence for Dyspepsia, Indigestion or Biliousness.

In a recent issue of an American magazine, Mr. Blowitz, the Paris correspondent of the "London Times," gives a very interesting account of how he scooped all his esteemed contemporaries by telegraphing to London a copy of the Berlin treaty.

In America the only trouble that correspondents have is to get the news. Once they get it and there is no doubt about its being telegraphed.

A STRATEGIST.—Mr. Murphy entered a bar room and called for a glass of whisky. After drinking it he said to the barkeeper: "Charge it."

How does he feel?—He feels blue, a deep, dark, unfading, dyed-in-the-wool, eternal blue, and he makes everybody feel the same way—August Flower the Remedy.

In Switzerland every man is his own assessor. After a man's death the Government carefully investigates his estate, and if he has been defrauding the Treasury it collects the back taxes with interest.

A Widower's Triumph.

Mr. C. R. Harmon, a wealthy widower of Maxwell, Washington county and Miss Unite Kimberlin, a young lady of the same place, eloped to Louisville this morning.

Between the two parties the young lady came near being torn to pieces but, as she lent her own strength to that of her lover, the latter prevailed and drew her from the grasp of her mother and sisters, carrying her off in triumph to his buggy.

The locomotive engine is said to have a maximum life of about thirty years. The annual cost of repairs is from ten to fifteen per cent. of its first cost.

Mrs. W. says: "It is a fact that a person can make $30 or $40 a week in the plain business."

It looks funny, but a sinking fund is the means of raising a debt.

The terminat on "olani" in Hawaiian names means "of the heavens."

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy.

A Florida paper says that alligator meat, properly served, resembles lullaboo so closely that it cannot be told from that fish.

Previous to the time of Elizabeth the only article to assist in eating was the jackknife.

FITS: All the stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Kidney Cure. No other cure.

"August Flower"

How does he feel?—He feels blue, a deep, dark, unfading, dyed-in-the-wool, eternal blue, and he makes everybody feel the same way—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a headache, generally dull and constant, but sometimes excruciating—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a violent hiccupping or jumping of the stomach after a meal, raising bitter-tasting matter or what he has eaten or drunk—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels the gradual decay of vital power; he feels miserable, melancholy, hopeless, and longs for death and peace—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels so full after eating a meal that he can hardly walk—August Flower the Remedy.

The brusque and fussy impulse of these days of false impression would rate down all as worthless because one is unworthy.

As if there were no notes in sunbeams! Or comets among stars! Or cataraacts in peaceful rivers!

Because one remedy professes to do what it never was adapted to do, are all remedies worthless?

Because one doctor lets his patient die, are all humbugs? It requires a fine eye and a finer brain to discriminate—to draw the differential line.

"They say" that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have cured thousands.

"They say" for a weak system there's nothing better than the "Discovery," and that the "Favorite Prescription" is the hope of debilitated, feeble women who need a restorative tonic and bracing nerve.

Every Mother Should Have It in the House.

Dr. J. S. Jones & Co.—In sixty years since I first heard of your medicine, I have used it in my family.

At Last.—M. A. Cobwiger—"Did you ever find a man under the bed?" Mrs. Merritt—"Yes; the night we thought there were burglars in the house. I found my husband there."

Magistrate—"Were you present when the assault was committed on you?" Witness—"May it please the court, I had just got there."

Edwin—"And you'll always be true to me, Angela?" Angela—"Why do you doubt me, Edwin?" Edwin—"Oh, you're too good to be true."

Cobwiger—"Why does a woman have her pocket where it's so hard to get at it?" Merritt—"So that she can stick her friend for the car fare."

"What are your potatoes, Mr. Scales?" "Thirty-five cents a peck." "They are only thirty at Mr. Bushels'." "Why didn't you buy some there?" "He hasn't any."

He Didn't Produce.—Kerr Mudgeon (to whisk-broom friend)—"No. You brushed me yesterday. You made a great fuss about it, but you didn't get any dust off of me." W. B. F.—"Not out of you."

Anything to Oblige.—Dealer in Cakes (displaying goods to customer)—"Shall it be an opera cake? A business cake?" Customer (with a broad smile)—"Well, as I'm anxious to be off, let it be a hurricane."

Why He Is There.—Glidersleave—"I tell you there is nothing like an Indian on the scent." Winebiddle—"Is that why the Government put him there?" "Oh, what?" "On the scent."

HUMOROUS.

Never call a man another unless you know what you are talking about, and be careful then.

LADY (to applicant for place)—"Are you plain in cook?" A applicant—"Well, I s'pose I cud be purtier."

A mountain side makes the best pasture for young cows, because climbing tends to strengthen the calves.

When a fly lights on your hand you can't tell whether he is sitting or standing. But it is a different thing with a bee.

Billy—"So you have returned from your bridal tour. What did you see on your trip that pleased you most?" John—"My wife."

A MERCENARY BEAU.—He—"Do you like my brother better than you do me?" She—"What salary does he get?"

TOOK THE BAIT PROMPTLY.—She—"Do you know anything about this cooperative housekeeping scheme?" He—"Er—no. We might try it though."

PRECOCIOUS YOUTH.—Cal—"And do you owe your teacher, Johnny?" Johnny—"Now, she's a brunette. Blondes are my style."

He (reading)—Then their lips met and— She (interrupting)—"Was it a protracted meeting? I wonder."

Magistrate—"Were you present when the assault was committed on you?" Witness—"May it please the court, I had just got there."

Purify Your Blood

When spring approaches, it is very important that the blood should be purified, as at this season impurities which have been accumulating for months or even years, are liable to manifest themselves and seriously affect the health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is undoubtedly the best blood purifier. It expels every taint, drives out serous humors, and gives to the blood the quality and tone essential to good health.
