MRS. SCHMIDT IS FREE. The Jury Quickly Brought in a Ver-

diet of Acquittal. Media, Pa., April 1.-Media's sensational murder trial came to an end yesterday, when the jury in the case, after only a half hours' deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty. By the verdict of the jury it is declared that Emma Pfitzenmeyer took her own life. The district attorney at once withdrew the charge that had been made against Henry Schmidt, and thus Media's sensation is ended. Many were the congratulations Mrs. Schmidt received. ne accepted them in a dazed way. She hardly seemed to realize that the great strain was over, and that she had been cleared of one of the worst charges that can be made against man or woman. It is feared that the terrible strains to which this woman was subjected will cost her the loss of her mental power. Her mind seems to be gone. She has been placed in the care of physicians,

Good News for Workers. BRADDOCK, Pa., April 3 .- As soon as the steel works resume, the entire Edgar Thompson plant will be run with coal instead of gas fuel. When coal was used at the plant entirely some five years ago, over 600 men found employment as coalers. Since that time improvements have been made at the steel works, and four new blast furnaces erected. It is now estimated that 900 additional men will find work in consequence of the proposed change.

but even this seems doubtful.

Iron Workers Stick to Their Work. READING, Pa., April 2.-The employes of the Reading Iron company continue at work and none of the departments were stopped on account of the reduction of wages, as was anticipated. The works are running today as usual. The puddlers held another meeting, and decided that it would be folly to strike at a time when so many are out of employment and the prices of iron are down to the lowest notch, with no de-mand for any kind of iron.

To Take the Strikers' Places.

Norristown, Pa., April 7.—Since the strike occurred at Morewood a number of Italians employed in this vicinity on the Pennsylvania Railroad company's Trenton branch have started for the scene of hostilities. Four embarked on Friday night and nineteen more on Saturday. Others are to follow, and one of a party that intend leaving said his party were in search of work, that they did not intend to join the strikers, but would take their places.

Oil Goes Up in Smoke. PITTSBURG, April 3.-The Waverly Oil company's plant was totally destroyed by fire last night. Loss about The planing mill and lumber yard of George Lacey, adjoining, were destroyed; loss $5,000. The oil refinery was owned by S. M. Wilcox, of Allegheny. Six cars of crude oil, three of benzine and about 415 barrels of oil were destroyed. The origin of the fire is incendiary. The fifteen employes had narrow escapes. Killed by Non-Unionists.

CHESTER, Pa., April 2. — William Brown, one of the men employed by the Standard Steel Casting company, at whose shops a strike is in progress, was shot and killed last night. Brown was with several strikers who attacked four non-union men. The non-union men drew revolvers, and Brown was shot through the heart. The four men are under arrest. Their names are A.

Sunday Closing in Lansdale. LANSDALE, Pa., April 7.—All the cigar stores in Lansdale were closed on Sunday through the influence of the con-ference committee of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Women's Christian Temperance union. But one hotel was open during the day, and to the front. Full details as to this there was a more general suspension of business than for many years. It has the British authorities here. been agreed by the cigar dealers to make the Sunday closing permanent.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Nine Persons Perish in a Fire at Rochester, Pa.

A TOTAL LOSS OF OVER $6,000.

A 16-Year-Old Girl Escapes by Jumping from a Second Story Window. Gold Coin Found in the Ruins. List of the Dead-A Fearful Struggle with the Flames.

ROCHESTER, Pa., April 7 .- A disastrous and fatal fire broke out late on Sunday night in a large frame building on New York street, occupied by E. J. Keede as a dwelling and shoe store, Mrs. A. Hall as a millinery store and George Edwards as a tea and coffee store. The fire started in the kitchen of Keene's residence, and he and his son Walter were overpowered by the smoke and were not discovered until too late to save them. The other persons mentioned escaped, but a number of Italians occupying the upper rooms of a portion of the building were burned to death, with the exception of one of them, Marie Tickio, a girl 16 years old, who escaped with slight in-juries by leaping from a second story window. She gave the following as the names of those who lost their lives: Vittorio Tickio, her uncle; Anna Tickio, her mother: Bantisto Tickio, her father: her mother; Baptisto Tickio, her father; Rosa and Fannie Tickio, her sisters; John Tickio, her brother, and Josef Rampatein, boarder.

Nine Bodies Found in the Ruins. There were nine bodies found at the There were nine bodies found at the scene of the fire. Only two have been recognized. They are McKeene and his son, who was a shoemaker. One hundred and fifty dollars in gold was found in the ruins, supposed to have belonged to the Italians. The Italian girl, Marie Tickio, says that there is $500 more still in the ashes. The conclusion arrived at its that the Italians clusion arrived at is that the Italians became confused and could not find the stairway, which was a narrow one, and to reach it required the opening of two doors in the rear of the building.

Thomas McManus, a railroad brake-man, was the first to discover the fire, which was under way at the time. He sounded the alarm of fire, which aroused the neighbors. He worked at the fire until his train departed. Mr. H. C. Fry, Jr., William McCutcheon, C. Frick and William Reid were the first on the scene after the alarm was given, and did noble work, with many others, to check the flames.

A Horrible Sight. The scene of the Italian father lying upon his bed surrounded by flames until the bed dropped through the floor was sickening in the extreme. The frightened man seemed to cling tightly to his bed, and made but a slight strug-

All the bodies have been recovered. They are now lying side by side in an adjoining building. Each body is burned beyond recognition. The sight of the row of blackened bodies is horrible. Annie, the baby, had one foot and an arm burned completely off. The others are fearfully mutilated. There is no definite theory as to how the fire started, but it is the opinion of the authorities, and it seems to be the correct one, that a lamp left burning by Mr. Keene in his kitchen exploded and fired the house. There appear to be no indications of incendiarism. The total loss is $5,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

Uprising in India.

CALCUTTA, April 7 .- If present indications turn out to be correct there is very serious trouble brewing in India for the British forces. serious mental impairment. P. T. Barnum Slowly Sinking. BRIDGEPORT, Conn. April 7. — Mr. Barnum rested quietly yesterday and up to 10 o'clock last night was supposed to be improving. At that hour he was taken much worse and the physicians were summoned. They saw that he was rapidly sinking and at once advised Mrs. Barnum to notify her children. At midnight there was no change in his condition.

Slept Too Near a Stove.

Washington, April 7. — Frances Lewis, an old colored woman, was burned to death yesterday. The old woman had made a bed on some chairs near the stove and her screams aroused the police, who broke the door in to find a mass of flames and charred flesh. It is thought that a spark from the stove set fire to her clothing.

RIOTERS SHOT DOWN.

The Strikers at Morewood Met With Armed Resistance.

Mt. Pleasant, Pa., April 3.—This town was shaken to its very center at 3:25 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour seven Hungarian rioters were shot dead and twenty or more wounded by deputy sheriffs. The greatest excite-ment prevails. Following is a list of

Paul Dohannis, Siav, unmarried; shot in the head; died in the company's store. Valentine Zeidel, Slav, of Donnelly, unmarried; shot through the neck. James Brochle, Pole, of Tarrs, unmarried; shot through the right breast. Jacob Shucoskey, Pole, of Tarrs; shot through the head; he has a wife in Poland. John Fudor, Pole, of Standard, unmarried; shot above left eye Antonio Rist, Pole, of Standard, unmarried; shot through the head. Cresezo Binero, Italian, of Tarrs; shot through

At about 2:30 o'clock in the morning doubtless a thousand men gathered around Morewood. The deputies were keeping a sharp lookout. The guards were in charge of Deputy Sheriff Mc-Connell and Capt. Loar. The latter had been sworn in as a deputy, as were also some men from Company E. They were stationed at the west side of the company's store. The deputies at the east side were under McConnell.

As the Huns advanced, making but little noise, the deputies remained si-lent. Then the Huns passed, but they were bent on mischief. The column had not all passed when those in front made a dash for the company's fence. Capt. Loar cried "Halt," but not a man stopped. In answer to the captain's command their revolver shots resounded. One bullet whizzed past Capt. Loar's head, and two men standing near him each felt the hot lead pass their bodies. The deputy sheriffs then came to the relief of the soldier depu-The Huns marched down the and broke for the company's stables.

Another command to halt. Another answer to the command by pistol shots. The infuriated men kept their course toward the stables. The command was given to fire and the deputies came to aid Capt. Loar. The strikers replied, but there were too many shots from the repeating rifles. The air was alive with bullets. How many shots were fired will never be known, but when the smoke cleared away and the men ventured near the dead it was found eight men had fallen, one of whom is now dying from the effects of a bullet.

At 9 o'clock the rioters made another charge upon the Frick works. The deputies opened fire upon them, killing three and wounding twenty-five. This last attack has increased the excite-ment. The deputies are well armed and can easily hold their ground. James McBride, secretary of the dis trict, and Robert Waddell, of the strik ers' general committee, swore out warrants before Squire McCaleb, of Mt.

Pleasant, against the following: For murder, Capt. J. A. Loar, Richard
Burns, J. A. Sundla, L. S. Davis, Harry

Governor Hill Against Free Trade. NEW YORK, April 3.-At a meeting of the Free Trade club held last night a letter was read from Governor David B. Hill in which he says: "I am not an advocate of free trade, and never have been. I stand with the Democratic party in favor of tariff reform. I believe that the best interests of our country demand the establishment of that tariff policy defined in the national Democratic policy of 1876, 1874 and 1888. A Boiler Takes Its Flight.

PITTSBURG, April 6.—The boiler of the West End Gas company exploded Saturday. The boiler was an upright one and it went straight up through the roof over Foley's livery stable, which is three stories high, and then over a row of frame buildings in the rear of the stable and up into a lot on Steuben street, a distance of about 500 feet. No one was in the building when the explosion occurred, and its cause is not known.
