INCARCERATED WITHOUT CAUSE.

The Story of Her Insanity, She Says, Wes the Result of Susan's Hatred,

Jealousy and Greed-Susan, on the Other Hand, Says Anna Was Undoubtedly Insane.

NEW YORK, April 11.-Less than two months ago the public was shocked by the story that Miss Anna Dickinson, the gifted and eloquent lecturer for the Republican national committee, had lost her reason and had been confined in a madhouse hopelessly insane. Miss Dickinson, after escaping by chance from imprisonment abnost as dreadful as a living entombment, tells a story of wrongs and sufferings which she has undergone during the past few weeks, and alleges that she is the victim of a consummer deliberately played and can conspiracy deliberately planned and carried out by her own sister. After Miss Dickinson's incarceration many of her friends, who knew of the circumstances of her family, whom she has always supported, started subscriptions to provide for the wants of her sis-ter. When it was learned by Miss Dickinson that this had been done, and that certain sums of money had been paid over to her sister Susan, she has sent word to those who had been receiving these donations to accept no more. Miss Dickinson, in her published state-ment, says that the story of her insanity was concocted by her sister Susan, through hatred and jealousy, and with a desire to make money through the al-leged infirmity of the well known lec-turer. Miss Dickinson is sustained in her attitude by Dr. Seward, the well known insanity expert, to whose private institution for the insane at Goshen, N. Y., she was taken for treatment after her release from the Danville asylum. Dr. Seward asserts positively that Miss Dickinson is in her right mind, and says he will aid her in prosecuting her persecutors. Miss Dickinson says she will bring suit at once against her sister, Dr.

Hileman and others, who burst into her room and dragged her to the Danville asylum.

The Other Side,

PITTSTON, Pa., April 13,-Anna Dickinson's sensational story continues to be the leading topic of conversation here. It is discussed on the street, in the business houses and in homes, and notwith-standing the reasons given by Dr. Sew-ard for his belief that Anna is in her right mind the general opinion that she is insane remains unchanged, Susan Dickinson says that she has instructed her lawyer to stay proceedings against Dr. Seward until things shall develop more fully. She was shown the statement made by Anna's New York lawyers that preparations are being made to move against the person caus-ing Miss Anna's confinement in the asy-lum. She said she would remain in Pittston to meet all charges that may be preferred against her, and she does the body is to be snatched. not fear the result of any legal investigations. She says not a single message has passed between either Dr. Seward or Anna and herself since the publication

Mardered by Burglars.

COLORA. M.i., April 14 .- Early yesterday merning a horrible murder was com-mitted at the pretty home of J. Gran-ville Richards, at Porter's bridge in this (Cecil) county. At 1 o'cleek Mrs. Richards was awakered from a sound sleep by a noise in the direction of the bureau in her bed room. Peering into the darkness she saw the faint outlines of two men. She ccreamed, awakening her husband, who was lying beside her. As soon as she did this gue of the ruf-finns approached her bedside, and placing a revolver close to her head, fired. The ball entered the brain close behind the left ear. Mr. Bichards drew a re-volve. from beneath his pillow and fired, without effect, but was himself critically wounded by a bullet. Notwithstanding his wound he grappled with the thieves, who finally felled him with an iron bar and escaped, taking $4,100 with them. Mrs. Richards died at 6 o'clock.
