—Judge Dean, of Blair county, is presiding as Judge in our court this week while Judge Farst, is also holding court in the arbitration room.

—It will not be out of place for one to say that winter still lingers in the lap of spring. If it don't kill the fruit by its "lingering in the lap," all will be forgiven.

—Samuel Krater, of Nebraska, is in on a visit, and gave us a call and some interesting information about Nebraska. He is a brother of Mrs. John Garey, of this place.

FELL DOWN A DEEP WELL

A Bellefonte Lady Loses her Life in a Peculiar Way.

A very singular and at the same time sad accident occurred at Howard, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Jenkins, wife of W. R. Jenkins, the senior member of the firm of Jenkins & Lingle, of Bellefonte, drove to Howard on Saturday afternoon with the intention of spending the night with a friend, Mrs. McKinney, who keeps a millinery store.

When Mrs. McKinney returned to the room she found her guest gone, and, after waiting some time, she instituted a search for her in the adjoining houses. No trace of Mrs. Jenkins could be found, until one of the searchers found a white handkerchief lying at the edge of the well in Mrs. McKinney's tack yard.

A rope was procured and a man descended and the lifeless body of Mrs. Jenkins brought to the surface. An examination showed that her neck had been broken by the fall and that death had resulted almost instantaneously.

It would rather surprise you if some one would pay you a debt of twelve years standing, but Friday a man came to Station Master Felton, at Sunbury, and paid him forty-five cents, which he had loaned the man twelve long years ago.

Two Honest Men Found. It would rather surprise you if some one would pay you a debt of twelve years standing, but Friday a man came to Station Master Felton, at Sunbury, and paid him forty-five cents, which he had loaned the man twelve long years ago.

A Daring Swindler.

Elias Miller of Madisenburg, came near being victimized, the other day. The Daily News, of 6, says:

On Monday a stranger went to Baum's livery stable and hired a team to drive down Brush valley to look at a farm he was desirous of buying. He drove at once to Mr. Miller's home and there spent the night, representing himself as a brother of H. A. McKee, the hardware dealer in Bellefonte, who had come down there to buy a certain farm and had been referred to Mr. Miller as a good man to take with him.

The stranger had also heard that another party was coming there in the afternoon to buy the farm and he was anxious to secure it. Having only $500 with him he asked Mr. Miller if he wouldn't loan him $1500 until they would get back to his place.

Mr. Miller agreed to this arrangement but they would have to go to Millheim to get the money. Proceeding at once to the Millheim bank Mr. Miller drew his check for the amount and was just going to get it cashed when he was stopped by A. Baum who suddenly appeared on the scene and told Mr. Miller not to make a fool of himself at the same time charging the stranger with being an out and out swindler.

Death at Boalsburg. On Saturday afternoon, about three o'clock, Mrs. Margaret Keller, relict of Henry Keller, dec'd, died at her home in Boalsburg, after an illness of only a few weeks.

The Enemy in Ambush. Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any fair-minded physician will tell you that the only safeguard lies in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant.

Those who have seen our new spring styles need not be told of them. Those who have not, kindly give us a minute of your time. To the LADIES allow us to say that the line of dress goods has never been equaled elsewhere in this part of the county.

Tans, steels, plaids, stripes, just as you want them. Cotton, half cotton, and no cotton at all, suit your purse to the material, or vice versa.

In blacks, as usual, you have a large variety from which to select. Our telling you however, wont convince you. Come and have us prove what we claim.

To the GENTLEMEN we want to state that our Gent's Furnishing Department is more complete than heretofore. Outing shirts and neck wear in abundance and styles to suit you.

Don't buy elsewhere until you have at least seen these goods. To all. We need not mention other lines. You know our Shoe stock and manner of dealing in them. If shoes are not as represented we are responsible for them. What more could you ask?

In all other departments we care for you as best we can. All we ask is for you to give us a share of your trade, which will always try to please you.

WM. WOLF & SON.
