The Enemy In Ambush.

The Enemy in Ambush. Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any fairminded physican will tell you that the only safeguard lies in keeping the systam thoroughly keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of tonics are advertised for this pury-pose, but experience shows that a pure rye whis-key is the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" brands are sold under a sworn guarantee of absolute purity; an affidavit accompanies each bottle "Silver Age" sells for $1.50 and "duquesne" at $1.25 per ful, quart bottle. The difference in age makes the difference in price—both brands are warran-ted to be unadultersted. You can get Guckenheimer, Einch, Gibson or
