

GOSSIP FROM GOTHAM.

WHAT ONE SEES AT THE STRENGTHS.

The sunshine means business; The streets are gay with shoppers, and the great stores teem with novelties, in all kinds of wearing apparel and household specialties.

Conspicuous among the stocks at Lord & Taylor's is a fabric known as Mela Nova which is the latest loom product of the Gilbert Manufacturing Co., of New York. Dress makers throughout the country, who make it a point to use Gilbert Duplex Twill dress linings will be glad to sample the new material and give it a fair show, made after some of the many exquisite models in the McDowell Paris Fashion Journal for May, which are the very highest authority for what will be worn this season; cut by McDowell system and fitted over an R. & G. core of domestic coutu white, black or colored, the Mela-Nova seems a costume fit for a queen, and every lady should combine style with patriotism.

Men are also well looked after in the marvelous melange of stuffs and styles for spring and summer. Hackett, Carhart & Co., N. E. Corner Broadway & Canal streets, known to the clothing trade for half a century, are meeting an exceptional demand of this section upon the usual broad and liberal basis, and forwarding on order, samples and measurement systems and suits to all parts of the country and Canada, and ensuring satisfaction.

Something for mothers too comes in the shape of a pretty little book, entitled "What children are wearing" published by Best & Co., of the Lilliputian Bazar, 60 & 62 West 23rd Street, and sent free on application to buyers all over the country.

The Astor house drugstore—A. J. Ditman has fortified a lot of people against the grip and other maladies with his far-famed Trigemina which all prominent druggists sell and the sick and the well find an excellent specific for all human ills, because it keeps the system in splendid condition.

Of course one must eat well and sleep well; and leave their bread and pies and biscuits with Cleveland's Superior baking powder, offices 81 & 83 Fulton Street, concerning which a correspondent writes thus:

"I have tested dozens of receipts in the book, and have in each instance created most delectable dishes. The quantities given are for ordinary families, and none of the receipts call for the lavish use of expensive ingredients, and that is why I consider the Cleveland Practical Cook Book invaluable to young and old housekeepers." Sent on receipt of name and address, if stamp be enclosed and mention made of this paper.

Many cage birds are literally starved to death, or poisoned by improper food, and thousands of bird lovers who have seen their darlings droop and die, will rejoice to know of Bird Manna, a substitute for the food which the birds live on in the free state. Bird Manna was discovered by the well-known Canary Breeders of the Harz Mountains of Germany, during their scientific researches, and the preparation keeps the birds in health and song, and cures nearly all their ailments. As an invigorator Bird Manna is particularly useful during the critical period of shedding feathers, preventing the loss of song; again, it should be given during the breeding season, as the old birds will feed it to their nestlings, and produce a wonderful increase of growth.

In the manner of sleep, Benjamin Franklin said six hours for a woman, seven for a man and eight for a fool.

He Was a Stranger. "Here's yer nice hot lunches. Fri' chicken 'n' biscuits, fresh an' hot," cried the well-known darkey lunch vender, as the train stopped at Salt Springs.

"Is the chicken tender?" queried a portly gentleman as he poked his head out of the window.

"Yes-sah. Young 'n' tender, and des es sweet an' fat."

"Where do you get your chickens?" "See here, boss, who you fum?" asked the old darkey, staring hard at the stranger.

The head and heart in the game of love Must play its separate part, But we'll pardon a girl a cold in the head. So long's she's not cold in the heart.

Mrs. Jones—Now here, John Jones, what are you sitting here moping for? Jones—I'm feeling as little blue, Mary. You see, I got to thinking what a blow your first husband's death was to me.

A passenger on a steamer offered one of the sailors a glass of whisky, which the honest tar declined, saying: "No, thank'ee, I never drink whisky, besides its too car'y yet; and thirdly, I've had three glasses already."

"There is one thing about you, d'Auber, that I can't understand," said Schumbe. "What is that, old fellow?" "That with your unequal taste in art you should have such a large collection of your own pictures."

"What became of that Samuels girl that Pottery was flirting with last Summer?" "You mean the girl that Pottery thought he was flirting with. She married him."

He—I don't think the world is exactly fair to men. She—Why not? He—Well, the man who has a head, for instance, gets ahead, while the man who hasn't one doesn't.

A wealthy man was asked not long ago to subscribe to a worthy charity, "I should like to contribute," said he, "but I have $300,000 in the bank not earning a cent and I really can't afford it."

A stationer's traveler, having had a run of bad luck in prosecuting business, received from the "boss" the following telegram: "If you can't make expenses come home at once." The reply was: "All right. Can make plenty of expenses, but no sales."

"Helped His Lungs and Stomach." PETERSBURG, ILL., March 13, 1890. That you may think I am trying to deceive you in regard to your medicine Floraplexin, I will explain. I wish to patronize my druggist (Mr. Watkins), I had him send for 6 bottles. I am now on my fifth bottle, and it has helped me wonderfully in my lungs, stomach and nerves. M. J. PATLETT.

Floraplexin is the speedy and permanent cure for Sick Headache, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility and Consumption. It is the only safe cure for these complaints. Ask your druggist for it, and get well.

Fashion's favorite fad, centers in that famous, fascinating game—lawn tennis. But there are women who cannot engage in any pastime. They are delicate, feeble and easily exhausted. They are sufferers from weaknesses and disorders peculiar to females, which are accompanied by sallow complexions, expressionless eyes and haggard looks.

For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. It's the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the makers, of satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. This guarantee has been faithfully carried out for years.

Life in Ocean Abysses. Dr. Regnard has raised the question as to whether a corpse which sinks to a very great depth is preserved indefinitely or otherwise from putrefaction. According to his researches, published in the archives of the Biological Society of Paris, putrefaction does not take place in decomposable substances submitted to a pressure of 600 to 700 atmospheres. These figures correspond to a depth of 6000 or 7000 metres at sea. From these experiments it must not be concluded, according to Dr. Regnard, that there is a total absence of putrefaction in the greater depths of the sea. The curious "abyssal" fishes discovered in the Challenger and other expeditions appear to rise after death, so that they are sometimes found on the surface, though, as a rule, they go to pieces as the surrounding pressure diminishes, long before they reach the air. Still, there is no proof that bathybal or abyssal micro-organisms do not exist, and, if so, they could cause decomposition in the corpses of men as well as in the dead bodies of abyssal fishes. The question is of considerable medico-legal, and yet greater biological, interest, and it is far from settled.—British Medical Journal.

HUMOROUS. A man of influence — The hotel clerk. The potato is very shy. Even its growing under rows. Blows are not always exchanged when you strike an acquaintance. Armor plates are probably the best on which to serve hot cannon balls.

By the time a man realizes that he is a fool it is usually too late to realize on his realization. Mr. Gould cannot deny the impeachment that at one time in his career he was a poppin' Jay.

DEPARTED — Mistress — Is the fire going, Bridget? Bridget (an amateur) — Faith, mum, an' it's just gone.

Every heart knoweth its own bitterness. Many a man who looks happy is wearing a shirt his wife made.

Tommy — Paw, what is 'fame'? Mr. Flagg — Fame, my son, is something a man makes money out of after he is dead.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, though many men seem to have a pretty good time without either. "Before we were married," said she, "his displays of affection were positively overdone." "And now?" "They are very rare."

If you have found some one who knows how to scratch your back just where it itches you have come pretty near finding your affinity. Groggs — It seems to me that artists have a very easy life. Scroggs — Oh, I don't think so. Most of them do a great deal of pretty tough work.

Misery loves company, and company makes misery for the housewife when company comes unexpectedly and she has nothing cooked in the house. He — Charlotte, I love you; can you return my affection? She — I'm afraid I'll have to, as I have no use for it.

Some men are like blotting-paper; they may bear the impress of a hundred things and yet they are worthless. A STRICKLER FOR FORM.—Gentleman—And why don't you go to work? Tramp—Cause I ain't never been invited.

He—What do you think of this carpet I have selected for you my dear? She (enthusiastically) It would be hard to beat my love. If you are told that you resemble a great man say nothing. It may be that the resemblance will cease the moment you open your mouth.

"You're an angel!" said he, unguardedly. "No, I'm not," she responded, with conviction; "I'm a woman, and I want a new gown next week."

Mr. Flagg—Tommy, my son, do you know that it gives me as much pain as it does you when I punish you? Tommy—Well, there's some satisfaction in that anyhow. An exchange says: "The Chinese have no humor; they cannot understand a joke." This explains why the Chinese get mad when hoodlums smash their windows.

Kansas City recently organized a Citizens' League. Dobbins' Electric Soap has been made for 24 years. Each year's sales have increased. In 1898 sales were 2,047,000 boxes. Superior quality and absolute uniformity and purity, made this possible. Do you use it? Try it.
