RACKET STORE NEWS!

NEW YORK, APRIL 23, 1891.
Racket Store Co., Bellefonte.
Sirs:—I took the liberty of sending you 10...

The above explains itself—the goods are on our counter to-day at SIXTY...

Just in, an entirely new line of dress trimmings, beautiful goods, latest ideas...

The Shoe Department offers you some very special bargains, and when we say...

LOCAL ITEMS.

—We learn from Dr. Emerick that grip cases are getting less.

—The stock shed on Grange Park has been handsomely painted.

—Gen. Beaver was in town last Saturday, looking very farmer like.

—Jerry Kline, of Aaronburg, one of our old patrons, is on the sick list.

—Cabinet photos $1.50 per dozen—Shaeffer, the photographer, Bellefonte.

—Rev. Rearick will deliver the Decoration address, at Rebersburg, May 30.

—Harry Gast, of Millinburg, has been circulating through these parts the past week.

—Mrs. Daniel Kramer, of Rebersburg, is quite ill, with doubts for her recovery.

—Mrs. Witmer Wolf and children, are visiting at Williamsport, the past week.

—The county jail contains but seven inmates and they are confined for trifling causes.

—It is just awful—cabinet photos $1.50 per doz. at Shaeffer's gallery, Bellefonte.

—Ammon Meyer, in a letter to this office, states that he has located permanently at Freeport, Ill.

—Mrs. Michael Strohm, of Centre Hill, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter W. Bayard, at Washington, D. C.

—Mr. Jonas Bible and son, of Pottery Mills dropped in to see us on Saturday while on a business trip to Centre Hall.

—Quite a number of farmers have not finished corn planting, as the ground is too hard and dry. Some of the corn planted is up.

—We were favored with a call from Mr. Emanuel Zettle, of Spring Mills, this week. He reports vegetation suffering in his section from the drought.

—Caution notices have been posted in the post office relative to the sending of money, money orders, etc., through the mails for lottery purposes.

—A blast in the drain back of Wolf's store, hurled a large stone through the shutters and smashed the windows in the back part of the store on Monday.

—Rain is wanted just now for three important reasons, namely: 1. To put out the damaging forest fires. 2. To help the suffering crops, and third to lay the dust.

—Centre county people going west, or having friends in the west, should have the REPORTER and get all the home news. Send a sample copy to your friends in the west.

—Miss Belle M. Brislin departed on Tuesday evening for her home in Winnebago, Ill., after several weeks visit with her brother postmaster Brislin, and other friends in the valley.

—Never before did Centre county sustain such immense damage by forest fires as this spring. We estimate the value of improvements, lumber and standing timber destroyed at $150,000.

—Plasterers are engaged on Harper & Kreamer's new house, and before many moons it will be ready for occupancy. It makes quite an imposing appearance and is a credit to the gentlemen.

—The Huntingdon County Quarter Sessions Court, in session last week, shows an increase of fifteen criminal cases over the January sessions and the citizens of that place blame it all on the granting of licenses.

—The wise farmer will keep watchful eyes on their cattle hereafter. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has ruled that no man shall be compelled to fence against his neighbor's stock and that owners of cattle will have to pay for all damage they may do, fence or no fence.

—Eleven million, three hundred and thirty thousand ten cent pieces were coined last year, and still there are not enough in circulation to supply the people salting them away in the dime pocket saving banks, which have a greater run than Annie Rooney ever had.

Col. Robert McFarlane.

Col. McFarlane died suddenly, in his room, at Bellefonte, on Monday last, about noon. The colonel was about in the morning, was to breakfast, but complained of being only slightly ill, but thought he felt some better than the day before. Just before noon an attack of heart disease came upon him, and he died quite suddenly. His brother Col. Wm. McFarlane, of Boalsburg, had arrived in Bellefonte by the 9 a. m. train, not expecting to meet such sad news so soon after his arrival. Col. McFarlane was well known all over this county; he was a man of strictest integrity and the most generous impulses. He was engaged in the hardware business for many years. His age was about 65 years, and he was unmarried. Robert McFarlane was lieutenant colonel of the 148, and a brave soldier. Funeral at the Branch church, in College township, today, Thursday, at 10 a. m.

Colonel Robert McFarlane had a splendid war record. When the war broke out he raised Company G, One Hundred and Forty-Eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and was elected its captain. A month after he was elected lieutenant colonel of the regiment, General James A. Beaver at that time being colonel of it. He served in that capacity for two years, a good part of the time having command. Mr. McFarlane was discharged on a surgeon's certificate in November, 1863.

The body was taken in charge by the G. A. R. and was taken to Boalsburg on Tuesday morning by rail to the residence of his brother, Mr. William McFarlane, from whose residence the funeral took place.

Our Water Works.

The Centre Hall water works will undergo some material changes forthwith, in order to supply the increased demand, caused by the growth of the town.

The pipes from the centre to the lower end of town will be raised and larger ones put down in place of those now in which will double the present capacity of flow. A new reservoir higher up the mountain side which will add 100 feet to the head, is now in progress and an enlarged supply and greatly increased pressure will be obtained thereby. No town anywhere can boast of purer water than Centre Hall, as it does not see the surface until it is tapped from the hydrants, being conducted from the springs underground direct to the pipes.

A Decrease.
The population of Bellefonte has suffered a decrease since the last census. There are seventy vacant houses in the town along with the unoccupied flats and rooms in the large buildings. This alone means a loss to the borough of over four hundred inhabitants. The cause for it is assigned to the closing down of its numerous industries, which compelled many to seek employment elsewhere, high rents and high taxes. What a contrast between that town and Centre Hall, where we have not one vacant house, and many new ones being in course of erection to supply the demand. It is to be hoped a brighter future is in store for our neighbor.

For All It Is worth.
Bellefonte has succeeded in raising near $1,000 by subscription for their 4th of July celebration which of course means a big time for the town. The hose company of Centre Hall has not as yet received an invitation, but suppose the invites are not out. Our hose company is not to be sneered at and if it is not invited by Bellefonte to participate in their jollification, we of course won't attend. Our hose company goes and we go with it. Therefore, gentlemen, if you want us, or as Fiedler terms us, the "Dutch," to attend, you will see to it that we are not snubbed.

Be On The Alert.
A gang of swindlers are now visiting this section, who are playing all sorts of tricks to get the money of the farmers. One of their schemes is to go to a place known to be for sale and get in the confidence of the owner in various ways, as the recent instance in this valley shows. It is safe to have nothing to do with strangers who want to buy farms.

Will Have Served His Time.
Philip A. Huber, the Sunbury express robber who pocketed a package containing $20,000 in 1888, and upon conviction was sentenced to three years, has about served out his time. Of the stolen money $18,000 was recovered. Huber, it is said intends to move to the west after his release.

Lawn Sociable.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Spring Mills M. E. church, will hold a lawn sociable on Decoration evening, May 30. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, lemonade, etc., will be served. All are cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

Are You In It?
The following is the list of unclaimed letters at the post office, Centre Hall: Kate Long; J. J. Tressler. When called for say advertised.

No shelf worn stock is thrust upon customers at A. C. Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte. His large trade enables him to constantly keep new goods, and always of the latest styles and at very moderate prices, as all customers admit.

Attempt to Burn the Court-house

On last Sunday night an attempt was made to burn the court-house, at Bellefonte, but fortunately the fire that kindled on the stairway at the door that enters the court room, went out before any harm was done. The discovery was made on Monday morning, paper and sawdust, saturated with coal oil, were found just outside the door, where a hole had been burned in the matting, when the fire went out again.

Who made this desperate attempt to start a fire that would have been a great loss to the county as well as to private property near the court house, is not known. Perhaps it was done to make work, or to induce the appointment of a watchman for the public buildings.

Lutheran General Synod.

The General Synod of the Lutheran church of the United States convened at Lebanon, on the 20th inst., and will continue until the middle of next week. The church in the United States and Canada has 4662 ministers, 7948 churches and 6,500,000 members baptized. The General Synod numbers about 220 delegates, representing the various minor synods belonging to this great body.

Frederick Kurtz, editor of this paper, is one of the delegates representing the Central Synod of Pennsylvania, to the General Synod. Rev. Fischer, of this place, is honored with a membership on the Book Com. of the General Synod. Both the above named left here on Wednesday for Lebanon.

Decoration Day.

The Samuel Shannon Post, G. A. R., at the last meeting held, decided upon a program for Decoration Day services, but the report not being handed us in time for this week's issue, will endeavor to give it in full in our next. The Post, which is composed of members from near-by towns and this neighborhood, formerly decorated in a body the graves of their departed comrades in the different cemeteries in the valley. This year, however, the members of the Post will decorate only at their immediate cemeteries. The services at Centre Hall will be held in the evening at six o'clock. A speaker has been engaged to deliver an address upon the occasion and will be announced later.

A Safe Investment

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this plan you can buy from our advertised Druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drugstore.

More Cars and Trains Needed

It is perfectly surprising what a heavy traffic there is over the Lewisburg railroad on Saturdays says the Daily News. It exceeds the travel on the Bald Eagle and yet on that day the company is lacking in accommodations. There should be another car run on that day as there are always a score or more who are obliged to stand. And another thing; would it not be nice if another train could be put on to leave Bellefonte at 6 o'clock in the evening? It seems as if there is sufficient passenger traffic to justify the company in doing this.

New Postal Cards.

The new style of postal cards have been printed at the factory at Birmingham, Conn. One is pearl gray, slightly smaller than the present size. The cut and vignette are in blue ink, and the likeness of General Grant is brought out admirably. The other style is much larger than the present card and the same color. The vignette is the same as on the pearl gray, but the ink is dark. The samples have been sent to the Post-office department. They are considered improvements on the old style.

Having a Boom.

The village of Milroy, just on the other side of the Seven mountains, is at present experiencing a boom. A company of Eastern capitalists are engaged in erecting large cement works near the town at a cost of about $100,000, and will give employment to over two hundred hands. The quality of cement produced is pronounced by experts to be of a very superior order and with an almost inexhaustible supply of the stone.

Bridge Awards.

The meeting of the Commissioners of Centre and Clearfield counties which was held in the Court House resulted in the awarding of the contract for two iron bridges, to the King Bridge Company, of Cleveland, Ohio. The bridges in question are the two that are to be built across the Moshannon at Chester Hill and Point Lookout, two places near Philipsburg.

—Cabinet photos $1.50 per dozen—this is no advertising fake but a genuine cut—at Shaeffer's gallery, Bellefonte.

—A full line of spring clothing has been received at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, and can be purchased at very low prices. One of the best cutters is in the employ of Lewins and a perfect fit guaranteed.

Times Away Back.

For the Reporter.
While seated at my desk, preparing an address to be delivered at the Centennial of a well known church, once attended by your correspondent, and the Semi-Centennial of the S. S., it is quite natural that our mind should wander back over the days of our boy-hood, and think of home, friends, loving parents, affectionate sisters and brothers, S. S. teachers and companions, many of them long since laid to rest in the Old Church Yard, their graves marked by a neat marble slab, and covered with green sward, and here and there a rose bush or honeysuckle to sweeten the air and give fragrance as the life of the dead now influence the living.

As we pen these lines there is a peculiar mist arising before our eyes, which, noisens volens, gathers into a damp moisture.

Fifty years ago Centre Hall did not exist. Your correspondent who first saw the light of day over half a century ago, not far from where Centre Hall now is located, well remembers when George Harpeter's black smith shop stood in the corner of the woods along the Brush valley road, now opposite the hotel, and the David Felmele hotel stood along the pike where the Lutheran church now stands; and the old Moses Felmele property stood farther up the side of the mountain, with the old familiar public watering trough in front, with the fresh, sparkling mountain water ever gurgling from the old wooden spout in the old wooden pump, where the old stage drivers, Gideon Fesselman, George Dippery, and others used to stop to water the four spirited horses before starting up the mountain with the old Concord Stage coach on leather springs, filled inside with tourists going west. Under the drivers seat the mail bag was stored away for safe keeping, on top were stored the boxes and packages, transported in this way from place to place, (this was before the age of the Adams Express) and in the "Boot," the well filled trunks of the tourists. This was in the days when such names as Moses Felmele, Eli Crouther, George Harpeter, Henry and Robert Pennington, Samuel Shannon, Robert McClelland, "Daddy" Bowersox, David Mitchell, Mathew Andre and Michael Bouy were familiar in Penns valley.

Some few of the present old residents were then the boys and girls of the valley, and I have no doubt should the eye of any of them catch this sketch, they will think back over the many "upsets" on the bright moonlight night, when out with a sleighing party to surprise some neighbor. Those were days when the Lingles, Crouders, McCormicks, Mitchells and others used to form evening parties, and spend hours in innocent amusement at "Piume sock," "Well digging," "Cherry picking," for pay, &c.

The Enemy In Ambush.

Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any unskilled physician will tell you that the only safeguard lies in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of tonics are advertised for this purpose, but experience shows that a pure eye whitening is the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" brands are sold under a sworn guarantee of absolute purity; an advertiser accompanies each bottle. "Silver Age" sells for $1.50 and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. The difference in price makes the difference in price—both brands are warranted to be unadulterated.

Encamp at Williamsport.

Notice was received at Williamsport by the local committee to arrange for the meeting of the summer encampment, Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, that the encampment will be held in Williamsport, July 11 and 18 inclusive. The Adjutant General's Department, Harrisburg, has agreed to furnish tents for the encampment. A large attendance of veterans is expected.

Seasonable and Salable.

The public will find a very good selection of seasonable and useful articles at the home of Mrs. W. E. Fisher, treasurer of the Lutheran Fancy Bazaar, which are offered for sale at all times. The prices are not extravagant, it is proposed to give the worth of a dollar for one hundred cents. Aprons, sun bonnets etc., etc., in all styles.

Quick.

Just think—with the new train that leaves Williamsport at 3 p. m. east, and our train leaving Bellefonte at 2 p. m., will enable passengers from along the L. & T. road to get to Philadelphia at 10.30 some evening, or in 7 1/2 hours. That's a quick and convenient train, surely, as it makes close connection for all other points north, south and east, as will be seen in another article.
