Mrs. W. L. Kurtz, of Berlin, Pa., is visiting at the home of Fred. Kurtz.
Mr. Wash Campbell, of Linden Hall, was seen upon our streets this week.
Mrs. Jacob Harpster is steadily improving from her recent attack of pneumonia.
George Benner has masoas at work on the foundation for his store building at the station.
Mr. Will Keller, of Bellefonte, a member of the F. & M. college, was in town on Tuesday.
Witmer Wolf and family arrived home on Monday after several days visit in Williamsport.
Mrs. John Ritter was taken quite ill this week with heart trouble and is confined to her room.
Mrs. Dr. Ward, of Bellefonte, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Stiver, on Church street, the past week.
Mr. Fergus Potter, Harris township's veteran pedagogue, was in town Monday morning on business.
Under the new schedule the afternoon train east passes Centre Hall at 2.47 instead of 3.28 as heretofore.
Curt Lingle, of Milesburg, is a frequent visitor to Centre Hall. Of course there is attraction for him in the town.
Parties wishing fine photos, will please call on Mike Condo. He carries a line of samples from which to order.
Mr. and Mrs. John Odenkirk, of Old Fort, spent several days last week visiting friends in Williamsport and Millinburg.
Don't forget the Lawn Fete to be given by the Aid Society, Saturday evening, May 30th, at Rev. Baskerville's. All are cordially invited.

Caterpillars are more numerous in this section than for years, and are doing much harm. They should be exterminated at once by the free use of the torch.
Use lime and other disinfectants abundantly about your pig pens, chicken coops, &c. It is much better to bar our diseases than to let them in and then have to drive them out.
The recent heavy rains we had the last week did not penetrate the earth more than about five inches as we are told, and still more is wanted for a good crop of grain.
The new Potter House, Phillipsburg, has in each of the rooms a Bible for the accommodation of guests who are religiously inclined. This is the latest hit in the hotel business.
The legislative committee on appropriations has favorably reported an appropriation of $30,000 to the Normal School at Lock Haven, and $120,000 for Pennsylvania State College.
The bridge across the river at Lock Haven has been turned over to the county and made free. It has been toll bridge heretofore, but viewers assessed the damages at $12,500 and the grand jury and court approved of their report.
The turnpike Company controlling the road from Millheim to Coburn, have purchased a stone crushing machine, to be run by steam, which will greatly expedite the work of macadamizing the road.
Stoves should be kept in a dry place when not in use. Stove pipe flues and elbows must be well cared for, or they will rust out in a single season. If there is no dry place for them, they should be well rubbed over with tallow or other grease, which will do much to keep them in good condition.

PULLED THEIR LEGS.

A Gang of Sharpers Reap a Harvest at Bellefonte.
A gang of swindlers reaped quite a harvest at Bellefonte on Tuesday last week. They traveled with Wallace's show which exhibited and fleeced the unsophisticated to the tune of many hundred dollars. The Daily News of Thursday, says many were swindled out of small sums of money by the sharpers and among those who lost large sums were Constable William Krape, of Benner township to the tune of $350; a Hungarian out of $110; a man from Tyrone $40; and another of $50 and another of $45, while there were a whole host of persons swindled out of smaller sums. The game was played openly in the evening and the men bit like catfish and like catfish they were caught. The game worked on Krape was the same old game of going into business and needing so much money and Krape had a note discounted at bank and furnished the money when the scoundrels as well as the business vanishes. The other losers were caught on the three card monte and shell game.
Krape came into Bellefonte early on Wednesday morning and told District Attorney Meyer about his loss and asked his aid. Meyer telephoned Capt. Clark, of Phillipsburg, who hunted all day for the man but could not find him. He then went to Mr. Wallace, the proprietor of the show, who offered to compromise for a certain per cent. of the losses. This Meyer refused to do, telephoning Capt. Clark that unless he would pay the full amount of all losses he would arrest him in Tyrone.
The ring leader of the sharpers completed pulled the wool over the Bellefonte authorities by pretending to be a detective following up the show for the purpose of catching the sharpers. This way he got into the confidence of everybody, it is said, assisted in stopping a couple minor games and then entertained the crowd while the sharpers fleeced the people.

Children's Day.

A proclamation was issued by the Master of the State Grange, appointing Saturday June 6th, as Children's Day, and a feast day for the Court of Fanna. The day will be made memorable by each grange gathering flowers and decorating their halls. Public meetings with addresses, songs and recitations and a banquet will be the principal features of such a day. This will not only be observed in Pennsylvania but in every state in the Union. It is a new feature in grange work and may become a fixed holiday for the organization.
The Grange of this place will celebrate this day, as we understand, by a picnic at Grange Park, in which all the families of the members will participate, but with the privilege of inviting any who are not members. It will be a picnic, and the ground being in a very beautiful condition at present, the heads of the order show great consideration in thus celebrating.

Implement Agents.

This section has never before been so well provided for in the way of farm implement agents, and the farming community so well canvassed as at present by the agents. Among those whom we can recall at present as engaged in the business and scouring the county high and low for orders, are Robert Foreman, Peter Hoffer, Daniel Luse, James Snyder, F. M. Burkholder, Henry Boozer, and several others, all of whom are hustlers and reliable men with good houses at their back. These are in this immediate vicinity and with other agents from other parts, makes the farmer's life not one to be envied.

Clean Up.

His Eminence, Chief Burgess, John Ritter, has allowed the edict to go forth from his official chambers, notifying the citizens of Centre Hall to clean the streets or alleys adjoining the properties they own or occupy, of all rubbish, ash piles, filth, etc., on or before the 25th day of May, 1891. Upon failure to comply with the above notice the street commissioner will be instructed to clean said streets or alleys at the expense of the owners, their agents or tenants, with twenty per cent. additional to be collected in the manner provided by law for same debts.

Another Decision.

The Supreme Court has decided that all bridges over being constructed, are a part of the public highway and as such must be kept in repair by the township or borough in which they are situated. Heretofore it has been custom of the county to keep in repair all bridges erected at the expense of the county, but the new ruling will put a stop to it.

Finger Lacerated.

Wm. Allen, of the Eagle valley, was leading a spirited colt with a strap which he had wrapped around his thumb and forefinger, when the colt made a plunge and stripped all the flesh off the thumb and finger. Amputation was necessary.

Rain and Crops.

The wished for rain has come, and come in good time—we might say, at the right time, as always, because Providence knows best when is the right time.
The grass crop will be helped yet; the clover will be short, but the timothy will come along finely, and while there will not be such an abundance of hay as last year, yet there is going to be enough.
The wheat crop may now be considered safe. The drought had not yet affected it to any appreciable extent, and the fine showers in the past eight days give every assurance of a good crop of wheat.
Corn was slow in coming up for want of moisture, but it will no doubt boom right along now. Some farmers had not finished planting corn, as the ground had become too dry and hard, but they will get it all planted now, and with a favorable season, the late planting will catch up. The same may be said of potatoes.
The oats will be somewhat short in the straw, but may be fairly headed and an average crop is in prospect.
The apple crop, and fruit crop in general, is safe yet at this writing.

His Pants Blew off, etc.

The Aaronsburg correspondent of the Millheim Journal states the rather interesting experience of which a citizen of Aaronsburg was the victim. Mr. William Hatfield bought a half pound of powder to use in destroying caterpillars upon his fruit trees. He placed the package of powder in the pocket of his pantaloons and started for home. On his way home he passed a blacksmith shop and stopped in for a friendly chat with the brawny armed smith. He was standing near the anvil and a spark from the red hot iron which was being worked, struck the loaded pocket, dropped down on the package of powder and caused it to explode. A terrible explosion followed which almost denuded Mr. Hatfield and completely demoralized the trousers. He was considerably burned about the face and body by the premature explosion, not to say anything of the fright which he had undergone.

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of La Grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. He ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in La Grippe, or any Throat, Chest or Lung Trouble. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c and $1.00.

Look Out For Him.

Veterans of the late war should keep their eyes open as there is a new swindler about. This time it is a canvasser pretending to be securing dates for a soldier's history. The questions asked are cheerfully and correctly answered by all. After the information has been written out and the unsuspecting informant is requested to sign it, being assured it is only wanted as authority for publishing. After a few days those interviewed are furnished a $15 history, and are surprised to find their signature to a contract agreeing to take the book.

Early Sunday Schools.

For the Reporter.
In our last article we started out to give some account of early Sunday schools in Penns valley.

From data at hand, we learn that the Union Sunday school was organized in the year 1818, or, seventy-three years ago, in a Cooper shop owned by Daniel Kinley, then standing on the point between Penns creek and Sinking creek near where Long's store now stands at Spring Mills. This information we got from Alexander Kinley, while attending the semi centennial of the present Spring Mills school in 1875, who was a son of Daniel Kinley, and then lived at the toll gate, near Lewistown, (since deceased) who stated that when a boy he used to thoroughly renovate the Cooper shop on Saturday evening after regular working hours, preparatory to holding Sunday school the following Sabbath morning. At that early period (according to his statement) the pupils came a long distance, barefoot, and with home spun trousers, carded, spun and woven by their mothers. David Allison and Jacob Snyder were among the first officers, and the only surviving members of the school then living (ten years ago) were the informant, Polly Snyder, then living in Nitany valley, and Joseph Potts, living some where in Millin county.
The books used in the school were Bysaly's spelling book and the Bible, (old and new Testament.)

This school antedates the present Spring Mills school ten years, according to the printed history given out at the semi-centennial in 1878, a copy of which we have before us and from which we learn that the school was organized on the 9th of September 1823, in a log school house which stood on the south side of the pike about an eighth of a mile east of the mill. One of the commendable features of this early organized school, and one that could be practiced with profit yet, was the committing of Scripture to memory, one record of the school giving the number of Bible verses committed as five hundred and seventy-six, when there were fifty children present, or being an average of over eleven verses to each pupil on a single Sabbath.

It was the privilege of our correspondent to attend this school during the years of 1850 and '53. Among the familiar names are Irvin Buchanan, Clark Crosthwait, (now Rev.), James M. Goodhart, George Goodhart, Sef. Hanna, and some whose names we have forgotten.
About the year 1840 to 1842 the Union Sunday school was organized at Farmers Mills, in the old Union church, (which we think is still standing,) with Matthew Andre as superintendent. Among the first teachers were James Grove, Robert Cook, Samuel Shannon, Sr., and John Risholt, eq. It was the privilege of our correspondent to be a pupil along with Capt. Andrew Mueser, Robert Cook, Alfred Rhinehart and some others in the class taught by James Grove, sr., and we can attest the faithfulness of that man as an earnest Christian teacher. He was an ordinary farmer, not learned, but eminently spiritual, and the early impressions were, that he was a Godly man, and we are glad to say we have never had occasion to change our mind.
Many miles lie between us and the old church at the Union; many changes have taken place since our boyhood, but how we would love to walk over some of the old paths, and converse with some of our old Sunday school associates, if still living. Many a happy hour we spent in the old church, and we trust the early impressions have been productive of good. We shall never forget some of the sermons preached in the old church by "Pappy" Reese, Rev. P. S. Fisher and afterwards Rev's. Ruthrauf and Smith. And what joyous times we used to have at our old time Sunday school celebrations, when six to ten schools would join, and they would come with four horse ladders l wagons, with flying banners and well filled baskets, when the home school would march out to escort the visiting schools to their assigned places on the ground, then what singing, after this the addresses and after this the dinner, then more singing and speaking and then the farewells. Our first Sunday school speech, very early in life, was made on the ground where the present church now stands, then all was woods around there. But there is a queer moisture comes to our eyes and we must close, wishing Heavens blessing to rest upon these schools.

Happy Hostlers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease of life. Only 50c. a bottle, at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

Cabinet photos $1.50 per dozen—Shaeffer, the photographer, Bellefonte.

A full line of spring clothing has been received at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, and can be purchased at very low prices. One of the best cutters is in the employ of Lewins and a perfect fit guaranteed.

Farmers Mills.

Meiss & Co., of Tusseyville, moved their saw mill north of the cave last week, and are sawing a lot of lumber for Ream.

The memorial services were well attended here last Sabbath and were considered good.

The Armbruster brothers are building a barn on the Woods farm at Sinking creek.

Our road supervisor, John Rossman, has a big force of hands at work repairing our roads in first class style. He is the right man in the right place, and demands full work for full pay, of the boys.

The remodeling of the Evangelical church at this place is in progress. The contract has been awarded to M. Gulse, of Penn Hall and James Ledell, of Spring Mills.

Two sucking colts and some other stock died for Mr. Stover this spring.

Rumor says the Evangelical association will hold a camping meet near the cave this summer.

Owing to the recent dry spell, the corn, oats etc., is very irregular in coming up and the cut worms and birds are doing much damage to the corn that is up.

The Hagas brothers are building a barn on the old Buchanan farm, near Penn Hall, also a house on the Roup farm, west of State College.

It is reported that William Goodhart bought the farm of John Goodhart, dec'd., for $2500.

Visitors to this vicinity were quite numerous recently.

The prospects are good here for a full crop of fruit, but by present indications the crop of hay and barley will be very small.

Don't Stand that Pain.

It don't do to neglect nature's warning, aches through the system cause Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Backache and Pain in the side, a prompt and speedy remedy is required. Red Flag Oil, the Famous Pain Cure, fills the bill. Price 25 cents.

Are you Consumptive, or do you suffer with a Cough or Cold? If so, use Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure. Price 25 and 50 cents. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

Spring Mills.

Decorating services on Memorial Day will take place as follows: Farmers Mills at 9.30 a. m., Georges valley at 2 p. m., and Spring Mills at 6 p. m. Rev's. C. M. Wolf, Shoemaker, and others will be the speakers. The veterans at their meeting to make arrangements appointed a committee to wait upon our business men and ask for the closing of the mill, the hotel bar and the several stores, from five till seven o'clock on that day. Country people coming to town to make purchases on that day will make a note of this action, and come in early to attend to their business before five o'clock, so as to give the business men and their employes time and opportunity to attend the Memorial services. In the evening after the closing of the memorial work Rev. A. G. Wolf, of Aaronsburg, will preach for the Lutheran people in the Presbyterian church. Let there be a good turnout to hear the Reverend gentleman.

The Enemy in Ambush.

Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any fair minded physician will tell you that the only safeguard in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up and in use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of tonics are advertised for this purpose, but experience shows that a pure, reliable, and the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Diagnose" brands are sold under a sworn guarantee of absolute purity. Each admittit accompanies each bottle "Silver Age" sells for $1.00 and "Diagnose" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. The difference in price makes the difference in price—both brands are warranted to be unexcelled.
