Subscribe for the Reporter. Farmers are busy working their corn. Sunday school picnics are now in season. Mrs. James Ettinger, of Aaronsburg, is the guest of Mrs. D. J. Meyer. Barney Garis is laying a new pavement in front of the residence of D. J. Meyer. Mrs. Sallie Shirk and daughter, of Seymour, Mo., are visiting friends in this section. Michael Swartz, of Stephenson county, Ill., writes us crop prospects are good out there. T. Milton Osman, of Centre Hall, is numbered among the graduating class at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport. Centre Hall will be mummer than a clam on the 4th of July. Every body is going to Bellefonte to celebrate. Sunday was hot; Monday was hotter; Tuesday was hottest. Thermometer in some places was 80 to 95 in the shade. Miss Mame Meyer, on Saturday morning departed for Williamsport, for a few weeks visit with friends in that place. W. L. Kurts and family, after a two weeks' visit in Centre Hall, departed for their home in Berlin, Pa., on Friday. W. H. Runkle's new house is rapidly nearing completion and will present by far the finest appearance of any in the section. Our esteemed friend, Sannel Wise, of the west end of Miles, gave our sanctum a call, and reports crops in good condition in his section. Miss Beulah Brisbin, assistant post-mistress, is attending commencement exercises at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, this week. Dr. V. W. Runkle, of Philadelphia, paid a flying visit to Centre Hall on Tuesday. The Dr. is one of this valley's young men and is enjoying a lucrative practice in the city. On account of the several expensive murder trials and the building of new bridges, the county commissioners of Clinton county find it necessary to raise the valuation of property all over the county. Do you want to secure genuine bargains in clothing and gent's furnishing goods? Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, can save you considerable money. Tuesday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, a heavy thunder gust passed over sections of our county, which was welcomed by all, as it cooled the atmosphere, and helped the growing crops. The bridge across the river at Lock Haven has been turned over to the county and made free. It has been a toll bridge heretofore, but viewers assessed the damages at $12,500 and the grand jury and court approved of their report. The wheat fields in many parts of Berks, Montgomery and Chester counties are suffering severely from the ravages of "wheat lice," which have made their appearance by the million. Potato farmers are very much frightened by an unusual visitation of potato bugs. After a five-months period of idleness the Everett and Riddlesburg furnaces, with a capacity per day of 110 tons and 75 tons, respectively, will go into blast in two weeks. It is expected that the renewal of operations will lead to increased business activity in the Broad Top region. Mrs. A. B. Weaver, of Clearfield, whose serious illness for the past couple weeks has created deep concern on the part of her many friends, died last evening on the eighth anniversary of her marriage. The deceased was a daughter of John P. Harris, Esq., cashier of the First National bank, of Bellefonte, and her many excellent qualities won for her hosts of warm friends who will be pained to learn of her death.

More About Wilson.

District Attorney Meyer received the following letter on Thursday last from Madison, Wisconsin, which points almost unmistakably to the fact that the man held in custody there is Wilson, the escaped murderer of Harry Waterhouse. The following is the information he received from the authorities of the town. Madison, Wis., June 9, 1891. J. C. Meyer, Bellefonte, Pa. Dear Sir: Received telegram at 9:45 a. m., and contents noted. Wilson confessed to me about the murder of Harry Waterhouse the same day I sent you the telegram, and now he says he is not the man. Boyed, our under sheriff, has been at this business twelve years, and he says this man is a puzzle to him. He will tell you a different story every time you talk to him. He claims that he knows all about the murder, where it was committed and at what time. I think when you receive the photograph you can tell whether he is the man or not. I will describe the man. He claims to be thirty years of age. His height is five feet eight inches, and weighs 150 pounds. His hair is brown and he has gray eyes which are quite large. He has one tooth out of right upper jaw. He draws his mouth down on one corner. People can't help but notice his mouth when talking. On his left hand he has an anchor, right above his forefinger and thumb. Bracelets run all along his wrists. On the same arm and up near the elbow has a wreath tattoo which he might have gotten on in the army. He says that this is all the marks on his left arm. He has a lady holding a flag representing the colors of the Liberty. That is the only thing he said in the first place that she represented a stage dancer, but a long time after he put the flag on a table that represented the Goddess of Liberty. Now this is all the tattoo marks on his left arm. He has a habit of spitting over his arm. He won't give his whereabouts at the time of the murder. He refuses to say where he was two months prior to the murder. He claims that the day he told me that he was the man, that he got out through the window when he broke jail, and he claims he is the surest man living to go back to Bellefonte. He says he is a dead ringer for him. If you can't make him out by the picture please write by return mail. What makes me think he is the man is on account of his mouth and teeth, they are just as description calls for. A week ago last Sunday he joined the Salvation Army. They come to jail every Sunday. He told them he had a very heavy charge over him and did not think he would ever get out, and he saw the captain of the army, and he told him he was the only man who could help him out. He wanted the captain of the army to swear that he saw him in the Dakota Territory in September or October. That would help him to get away here, and the Captain told me he would not swear a lie for a murderer. Please answer at your earliest convenience. Yours truly, E. F. BURMEISTER.

The Daily News says on Saturday district attorney Meyer went to Tyrone where he met ex-deputy sheriff Robt. K. Wilson. To him Mr. Meyer submitted the letters and photograph received from Madison. Mr. Wilson said that description given of the man in Madison agreed perfectly with that of Wilson, but that he was undecided regarding the picture. Mr. Wilson suggested showing the picture to Mrs. Cooke who, he thought, would be the best authority on that as she saw Wilson oftener than any other persons, by reason of taking his meals to him while he was in jail here and then again Mrs. Cooke is said to be very good at remembering faces. Accordingly Mr. Wilson went to Howard and submitted the photograph to Mrs. Cooke for her inspection, and that lady at once declared it a picture of Wilson. Mr. Meyer now feels justified in presenting the case to the board of commissioners, asking them to send out to identify the man. It is probable some action will be taken, and it is altogether likely that two men will be sent out to identify him and that they will start Tuesday morning.

Should the Madison man prove to be Wilson it will be necessary for some one here to prepare the necessary papers and present them to Governor Pattison asking for a requisition on the Governor of Wisconsin so that the man can be brought back to Pennsylvania. With all this delay it would probably be the last of the week before Wilson would again be behind Centre county prison bars.

Bara Burned by White Caps. Richard Ashman, Esq., of Three Springs, Huntingdon county, has just suffered a heavy loss by fire. Warning had been given him by "White Caps" that his property would be burned Thursday night, but he paid no attention to the notice. At half past eight o'clock that evening his barn was discovered in flames, and in a short time that and all his farming implements and three hundred bushels of grain were destroyed. No reason can be assigned for the incendiary fire. The loss will reach $4,000, on which there is no insurance.

A Philadelphia Commitment. Jesse Richards, of Philadelphia, this county, on Saturday committed suicide at Wheeling, W. Va., by shooting himself three times with a revolver, which did not have the desired effect, he then cut his throat from ear to ear with a razor. He was formerly connected with the Philadelphia Journal, and of late years had been teaching classes in shorthand and typewriting. He was laboring under temporary aberration of mind when he committed the deed.

Big Blaze in Lock Haven. The extensive planing mill, sash, and door factory of G. W. Hipple, on Bellefonte avenue, is in ashes, and upward of seventy-five men and skilled workmen are out of employment. The origin is said to have been spontaneous combustion of fine dust, and the loss is under $50,000.

Change in Firm. The furniture and undertaking establishment of W. R. Camp, in Centre Hall, was this week sold to Mr. John Dauberman, who will take charge of the business and conduct it in the future, assisted by his son John Dauberman.

J. B. Mays & Co., of the Houseville marble works are pushing their business right along. Persons wanting Marble or Granite work should write to them for particulars. They handle the very best material at prices that will astonish you.

No shelf worn stock is thrust upon customers at C. Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte. His large trade enables him to constantly keep new goods, and always of the latest styles and at very moderate prices, as all customers admit. —Subscribe for the Reporter.

In Season Now.

The snake editor of the Middleburg Post tells this story. A few Sundays ago Dr. J. O. Wagner, of Adamsburg, accompanied by his wife, drove out to his farm situate a mile or so from Adamsburg. On the tract is a piece of woodland covered with a dense underbrush. The doctor thinking of treating his wife to a dish of tea-berries drove into the tract, and hitching his horse to a sapling, started for a little clearing near by. He had gone but a few paces when he saw a large black snake cross his path. He pursued her a short distance when he discovered, as he thought, the same snake perched on a little bush sunning herself. He happened to have his revolver along, and approaching within easy pistol-shot, he let drive at her. She didn't move. He fired again and the snake still remained stationary. A third shot brought her down and he approached closer to ascertain the effect of his shot when he discovered a roll of black snakes, "fully a bushel-basket full" as he says, twisted and curled around each other in every conceivable shape. Having two shots left he fired them in quick succession into the wriggling mass. He waited only long enough to see the bundle of snakes dissolve like smoke, when he beat a hasty retreat to his buggy where his wife was still sitting frightened half to death. By this time his ammunition was all and the brush was too thick to wield a club effectively. He drove out of the thicket with dignified haste, surrounded as it appeared by snakes which up their heads on every side in the most unfriendly manner. He says that as far as he could discern the reptiles were nearly all of one size—ranging from five to six feet in length. The woods has been noted of late years for the numerous black snakes seen in it, while the other species such as rattlers and copperheads are entirely absent.

A Minister Sued For Libel. On Saturday, June 6, Rev. L. L. Seiber, pastor of the Lutheran church at Lewisburg, was placed under $5,000 bail for his appearance at the next term of court in Union county, to answer to the charge of libel preferred against him. Several weeks ago an article appeared in the Lewisburg Chronicle headed "A Dude Doctor Demented," which attacked a physician of Lewisburg and created quite a sensation in the staid old burg from the fact that the physician assailed was claimed to be entirely innocent of having done anything to provoke the assault and that the author of the article published, was the aforesaid reverend gentleman. He declined to make a satisfactory retraction upon learning he had assailed an innocent party, and the physician in question, by the legal action seeks amends from a jury. The trial promises to be interesting and has aroused quite a sensation throughout the section by the citizens who anxiously await the outcome.

An Easy Method. An observant man says that he has discovered a fly destroyer that discounts all the fly paper and fly poisons that have yet been put into use. Last spring he went into the country and brought back with him when he returned a number of bunches of clover blossoms. He hung them up in his rooms to ornament the walls. The clover dried and since then he says not a fly would stay in the room. He watched and studied and says he has discovered that flies cannot stand the scent of dried clover.

Hay and Wagon Burned by Electricity. A load of hay was being taken across the bridge from Northumberland to Sunbury. It was fastened with a chain, and as it was almost through the bridge the chain touched the electric road wires, making a short current, and in a second the hay was on fire. The driver hurried through the bridge and succeeded in getting the hay out without setting the bridge on fire, but the hay and wagon were entirely consumed.

An Unfortunate. A. K. Knepley, our huckster, has been "hexed" for some time back and been the unfortunate victim of several accidents. Several weeks ago his horse died; then he smashed seventeen dozen eggs, and now some one has scalded his blooded dog, an unpardonable offense. He says he will discover the perpetrator of the deed and haul him up to time.

The Oldest Postmaster. John Logan, postmaster at Cross Roads, East Hopewell township, York county, is the oldest postmaster in the service in the United States. Mr. Logan was appointed to his position January 13, 1839, and has served continuously ever since. Mr. Logan has always been a straightened democrat, and the changes in the national government never affected him.

Proceedings To Be Published. In the future the proceedings of the borough council will be published in the Reporter and our citizens will be made aware of the doings of that body.

Woodland Coal. Two car loads Woodland coal just received at Kurts & Son's mill.

Thinks He is "Snake" Wilson.

The Allegheny police believe they have caught George Wilson, the much wanted fugitive murderer of Bellefonte, in the person of "Snakes" Anderson. Anderson was arrested ten days ago with a dinner pail full of burglar tools and has been held on suspicion while efforts are being made to trace his career. To day it was found that his appearance tallied with the description of Wilson, save as to one mark, which may have been obliterated. The Bellefonte authorities have been advised.

In our estimation this Wilson business is getting monotonous—he is found too numerously and not once nabbed. It looks to us as if there was a set up job, by some one to have a wild-goose chase for a fictitious Wilson, at the expense of the county, and afford some one a pleasure trip to see if the fellow here and there is Wilson or some other son-of-a-gun.

A Wander Worker. Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at J. D. Murray's Drugstore.

Shocked by Lightning. During the terrible thunder storm on Thursday evening last week, a gang of railroad engineers near Huntingdon, took shelter under a freight train, some of the men sitting on the rails under the cars. They had scarcely gained their position before fourteen of the men were shocked by lightning which passed along the rails. Oliver and Alexander Moore and Patrick Ross were severely injured. The others soon revived.

To Be Amputated. Will Runkle, the butcher, who was unfortunate enough recently to get several fingers in the cogs of the hoist in the slaughter house, will lose one of the fingers, it will have to be amputated near the first joint. It was hoped that such proceedings would not be necessary when the accident occurred, but future developments compel it.

Axle Grease for Butter. A storekeeper at Glenmore, Montgomery county, Penn., recently had two dozen boxes of axle grease stolen from his place, and making an investigation traced the theft to some Hungarians employed in a neighboring quarry. He visited their hut one day and was shocked to find a box of his axle grease on the table and the Hungarians eating it on their bread in place of butter.

Died Suddenly. Mr. Jacob Kelley, a prominent citizen of Kelley township, Union county, died very suddenly on Sunday evening, 7th inst., while visiting at a neighbors. He was eating a dish of straw berries and suddenly grew pale and fell back in his chair and expired. He was aged about fifty-five years and was highly esteemed.

ABOUT SPRING FEVER. Who hasn't suffered from this disease? We say disease adversely for much it is, it is a general relaxation of the system that makes the victim weary to exertion. Unless the constitution is keyed up when these symptoms appear, some acute malady attacks the most vulnerable point and life is endangered. A good stimulant promptly and properly used, soon tones up the weak spots. Leading physicians of the land invariably recommend the use of Pure Rye Whiskey in such cases. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duchesse" Rye Whiskies are sold under a sworn guarantee of purity so that the consumer takes no risk. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duchesse" at $1.75 per full quart bottle. Mr. Klein also keeps the largest and choicest stock of Brandies, Wines etc. in Pennsylvania. WM. WOLF & SON. One of our lady customers this week named the store a LAWN EMPORIUM!

An appropriate name for the time being at least. If the ladies are not all supplied yet, (there can't be many,) they will find a new lot arriving this or tomorrow evening.

Have been sold out of it several times, but while you buy it we will try to keep up the stock.

BARGAINS. There are still great values for you in dried and canned fruits and vegetables. Season is advancing and they must be sold, why not take advantage of the offerings. Such Prunes were never offered at 15 cents as you will see with us.

Try our pared and unpared Peaches and compare them with others at same price. Yours Respectfully, WM. WOLF & SON.
