CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, JULY 2.

BOODLER BARDSLEY More Light on the Ex-Treasurer's

Shady Transactions. PHILADELPHIA, June 27. — Experts Faunce, Brown and Barlow are engaged in preparing a report which, it is said, will be a full and complete answer to the statement made by Mr. Bardsiey in court, and will disprove his statements.
The report will be presented this afternoon or Monday.
Philadelphia, June 39.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of a portion of the $83,000 'which Bardsley received from Glendenning & Co., on May 22, the day he sent his resignation to councils, is partially cleared. It was found in a clearing house due bill, issued by the Fourth Street National bank, a style of bank paper which was evidently in great favor with Bardsley. The due bill is for $30,257.58. It has been traced, it is said, to the hands of Bardsley's wife and his niece, Eleanor Tatum, whose money he claims to have been using for the advances to contractors.

One of the most interesting and important discoveries made by the mayor's experts, who are re-overhauling city books and Bardsley's papers to test the truth of the ex-city treasurer's defense made in court, bears on the purchase of the house made in Germantown. The house was purchased with public money. In his pathetic statement made before Judge Willson of his frugal life of self-denial, he said that the house cost $20,000, which sum represented his wife's savings of ten cent pieces and his savings from all outside sources, especially his salary for services rendered in any capacity outside his public duties or

MRS. PARNELL SPEAKS.

She Defends Her Son and Denounces His Foes.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.-The Irish National League celebrated the fortyfifth anniversary of Charles Stewart Parnell's birth, at Philopatrian hall last night. Mrs. Delia Stewart Parnell, his mother, was present and made a ringing speech eulogizing her son. Concerning his marriage she knew nothing. If it was so she would like to know, but in all events she felt satisfied his marriage was right.
"I know my son's ambition," continued

Mrs. Parnell, "and his long silence be-fore he tells the truth. I know that he is incapable of doing an injury to the Irish cause, and any one who says anything against him is a traitor to the Irish nation. I do not care if any of these people are present, I mean what I say. They are trying to blacken his name. It is the ingratitude of a friend, and he is more guilty than Judas when he betrayed

"All I have to say is for you to stand by your rich and fertile country. Eng-land is afraid of Ireland, therefore stick by your friend, my son. I am glad to ar that my son is coming to this country, when he does I am sure he will ex- lumbia, Yale and Harvard was rowed

YARD'S RETICENCE.

It Leads to the Postponement of His Trial Until September.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.-Henry H. Yard was arraigned in the court of quarter sessions to answer to the charge conspiracy with ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley in unlawfully using the public funds. Before Yard entered his plea District Attorney Graham re-quested the court to allow the case to go over until September next. Mr. Graham gave as his reasons for requesting a postponement of Yard's trial that a decision was expected in the suit against the accused to compel him to answer the interrogatories of the city council investigating committee. This decision was of the utmost importance, as defining the powers of the committee to compel witnesses to answer, and Yard was expected to make a statement. He also at Anglesea, where it will be kept alive asked the delay "for other grave rea-

The court granted the district attorney's request, and the trial of Yard was postponed until September.

Oil Drillers Fearfully Burned. PITTSBURG, June 30.—By an explosion at Coraopolis yesterday, two oil well drillers, brothers, named Winger, were dangerously burned. The tank, derrick and engine house were burned to the ground. The Ferest Oil company owned the well where the accident occurred. Gas had been escaping from the well several days. Whether the explosion was caused by the gas igniting or whether it was occasioned by the explosion of a nitro-glycerine cartridge inside of the well is not yet known. The work-men were enveloped in flames and were blown several yards from the derrick. Their clothing was on fire, their hair signed from their heads and faces, but they had presence of mind to jump into river, which doubtless saved their lives.

An Escaped Madman Recaptured. Easton, Pa., June 30.-James Steele, an inmate of the county prison until de-clared insane and taken to the Norsistown asylum, from which he escaped ever a month ago, was captured in Easton and lodged in jail. Steele, before being taken to the asylum, assaulted a deputy warden. He is dangerous, and has been roaming about the country ever since his escape. He is a native of Utah, stands over six feet, and was serving three years.

They were terribly burned, however, and may not recover.

The Bull's Attack Was Fatal. READING, Pa., June 30.—Clayton, the 8-year-old son of Reuben Yest, of Spring township, who was so horribly gored by a bull which he was driving from a field, died from the effects of his injuries. One of the horns of the bull entered the boy's side under the right arm, fractur ing the second rib, penetrating the right lung, fracturing the third rib and breast bone on the right side, and the second rib on the left side.

Denouncing Senator Quay. PHILADELPHIA, June 39.—An address, signed by 150 leading business and pro-fessional men, is issued to the people of Pennsylvania calling attention to the recent crookedness in city affairs and urging co-aperation in purifying the political atmosphere. The address says that purification came only through the settrement of Mr. Quay and his lieu-

Harvard Defeats Yale in the University Race.

THE CORNELL CREW'S VICTORY

The New Yorkers Win from the Pennsylvanians, and Make the Fastest Time Ever Made Over the Course-Columbia Wins the Freshmen Race.

NEW LONDON. Conn., June 27 .- The sixteenth annual four mile, eight oared straightaway race between the Yale and Harvard university crews was rowed over the Thames course, from Winthrop Point to Gales Ferry, and was won by Harvard by eleven lengths. Time, 21.23;

Yale's time 21.57. The record new stands: Yale, 9victories and 7 defeats; Harvard, 7 victories and 9 defeats. Yale still holds the time record, that of 20.10, made in Harvard's plucky victory is the biggest surprise that has occurred in college athletics for many years. The good judges of rowing conceded the race to Yale almost to a man, and so strong was this sentiment in favor of Yale that stacks of Yale money left at the pool rooms went uncovered even at the odds of $100 to $70 and $100 to $60.

There were two collisions, and that there were no serious results is simply a matter of good luck. Two miles up the river the tug Gypsy ran into the side of the press boat, the Munnatawket, the shock throwing twenty-five or fifty people off their feet. At the finish, where the channel was crowded with all sorts of craft, the Munnatawket, in trying to avoid a collision with the Rhode Island, struck the tugboat America with a hard thump amidships, knocking many peo-ple sprawling over the decks. For-tunately no one went overboard and no one was seriously injured.

Cornell's Victory.

New London, Conn., June 26.-The Cornell university crew covered themselves with glory yesterday afternoon by winning from the University of Penn-sylvania and Columbia crews in the fast time of 14 min. 274 secs., thereby chopping off 154 seconds of the best previous time made on the Thames river course by any of the college crews. The conditions, however, were favorable for fast time, the water being smooth, a strong current running and the wind blowing so as to be of the most assist-ance to the racers. The race was prob-ably the most exciting ever rowed here, the Pennsylvania crew developing unexpected strength, and rowing almost bow to bow for two miles. Nearing the fin-ish, however, Cornell spurted in magnificent form, and drawing away from their opponents easily won by four open lengths. Columbia was a bad third, fin ishing five lengths behind Pennsylvania. The poor showing of Columbia was a surprise, as they have shown much better form in their practice.

Columbia Wins It. New London, Conn., June 25 .- The plain all the charges which have been yesterday. The water in the morning brought against him." was lumpy, owing to a strong breeze, and for a time it was thought that the race would have to be postponed, but later it was decided that the contest should take place according to programme. Columbia won by three lengths. Yale second, two lengths ahead of Harvard. Time, 9.41.

Whaling on Jersey's Coast,

WILDWOOD BEACH, N. J., June 30 .-The stiff northeasterly breeze which has prevailed here the past few days in-creased the fury of the breakers, and precipitated two whales on the beach just above Wildwood. The large mother whale was twenty-five feet long and weighs five tons. The small baby whale was taken alive, and tipped the beam at 2,240 pounds. It was ten feet long. A Swedish boatman shot the large whale, and it took six horses and ten men to and on exhibition.

A Stay for Hallenger.

TRENTON, N. J., June 30.—Edward A. Hallenger, the colored Jersey City murderer sentenced to be hanged today, was denied a writ of habeas corpus in the United States district court. His counsel will at once appeal to the su-preme court of the United States. This acts as a stay of execution, and the case may not be decided for at least three years. The ground for the application was Judge Knapp's neglecting to take testimony to determine Hallinger's guilt after he pleaded guilty, and also Hallenger is a British subject, and under existing treaties entitled to a
