The Deadly Coal Oil.

At Aahcroft, a mining hamlet about two miles from Phillipsburg, this county, a distressingly fatal accident occurred on Monday evening, by which a mother and child lost their lives, and several other persons were more or less injured by an explosion of coal oil. Mrs. Harriet Mills, of that town desiring to brew a cup of tea quickly, threw some chips into the fire which was near out, and to hurry the fire poured coal oil on the flames from a bottle. There was an explosion followed and the woman enveloped in flames. Her father hearing her screams ran to her assistance and wrapped a table cloth about her to smother the flames. A baby was lying in its cradle near the stove and the explosion spread the oil over the cradle, before the little one was rescued it was severely burned and its life despaired of. Mrs. Mills was badly burned and lingered in agony until the next day when she died from the injuries received. The interior of the house was on fire, but by prompt arrival of assistance the flames were extinguished. Mr. Mills, the husband, and her father were badly burned about the head and arms in their endeavors to extinguish the flames about the burning woman.

Will Begin at Once.

The new water main having been laid in town, work will at once be started on the new reservoir in the mountain above town. Men have been at work for some time with teams hauling stones for the walls and in a very short time the masonry will be started upon the walls. Cement will be used entirely throughout the job, and a substantial and complete reservoir will be erected. The pipe for the main from the new reservoir to the old one arrived last week and were hauled up by teams, a circuitous route being necessary on account of the steep declivity, making teaming very difficult. Part of the distance six and five inch pipe will be laid to connect with the main at the present reservoir. When completed Centre Hall will have the most complete and efficient water works of any town in the state, with an abundance of purest water.

Died at Rebersburg.

Simon Wolf died at the residence of his brother, Ex-Commissioner John Wolf, at Rebersburg, on Thursday last. He had been in ill health for the past year or so, suffering from Bright's disease, which ended his earthly career. Mr. Wolf was the brother of Wm. Wolf, of Centre Hall, and was the youngest member of the family. He had resided in Sugar valley until his health failed him when he and his family were taken to the home of his brother with whom he lived until his death. He was aged about forty-seven years and leaves three children, his wife having died about two years ago. The funeral took place on Saturday forenoon at Rebersburg.

A Big Time.

Bellefonte's celebration on Saturday, the 4th will be an unusually large affair, from the amount of blowing done. The town will be gaily decorated and much labor has been expended in that direction. The parade will be large, consisting of military fire and civic organizations, and will be worth seeing. Other attractions and amusements will be had to attract the large crowds of people expected. To accommodate those living along this line of the railroad a special train will return in the evening after the display of fireworks and run to Coburn.

Childrens Day.

The services on childrens day in the Lutheran Church at Centre Hall, on next Sunday afternoon, will be of an interesting character. A program carefully selected, from amongst half a dozen, gives place for a number of excellent recitations and scripture selections together with some very fine music, which the children sing with the greatest zest. The collection will be given to the Orphan's Home, at Loysville, an institution under the fostering care of the General Synod. Services to commence at 2.30 p. m.

Died of Paralysis.

Mrs. Felix Dale, of near Oak Hall, died last week at her home. Several days previous she had been stricken with a paralytic stroke, which ended in her demise, being a lady well up in years. Her husband, Mr. Felix Dale, has been an invalid for nearly a year, suffering from paralysis, and is unable to be about. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon.

Insurance Meeting.

The directors and officers of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company met at Bartgee' hotel, Centre Hall, on Tuesday and transacted business. Of the board, from adjoining towns, we noticed, Maj. J. B. Fisher and A. J. Herring, of Penn Hall; H. B. Duck, of Millheim, and Col. McFarlane, of Oak Hall, and Messrs. Campbell and Bailey, of Ferguson.

Pastor Married.

Rev. Miles O. Noll, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church, was married on Thursday, June 25th, at Milton, Pa., to Miss Catharine Palmer, of that town.

Give Lewins, Bellefonte, your order for spring and summer clothing and you will not regret it. Low prices and no shoddy.

The Country Week Association.

This is an organization of ladies, whose object is to secure for the children of the worthy poor in the city, a week's outing in the country. To this end the city is divided into districts, and the lady assigned to that particular section ascertains who are worthy of the trip, and they are ticketed to the parties inviting them, under care of escorts, who return for them at the end of the time, which may be one or two weeks. The money is contributed without solicitation, and not a single member of the Association secures any compensation in any way. Our people who open their homes for a week to some little boy or girl less favored than they, do a good thing for both the child and themselves.

Should any information be desired, a letter addressed to Mrs. Howard Miller, Lewisburg, Pa., who has this section in charge, will receive attention. This community should make a good record in such a worthy cause. The first installment of children will arrive July 24th, and Mr. A. L. Katherman, the station agent at Centre Hall, can give any additional information.

Died at Renova.

Mr. Joseph Kleckner, formerly of Centre county, died at Renova, on Sunday, June 21st, where he has been located during the past six months. From the Millheim Journal we learn that the cause of his death was a very peculiar circumstance. On the Friday previous he was endeavoring to open a tin cash box, the lock of which refused to open and he proceeded to use force to break the lid, when he received a slight scratch on the back of his hand, which immediately inflamed and developed blood poisoning, and ended his earthly career on Sunday morning. Deceased a few years ago was landlord at the Coburn hotel, and was of a very genial disposition. His remains were interred in the Loganton cemetery on Tuesday forenoon.

A Nuisance.

Centre Hall has many and beautiful shade trees lining its streets, and we are proud of the fact, but at the same time they are allowed to become a nuisance through not trimming and cutting of the lower branches of the trees, allowing them to hang down and partly obstruct the pavements. In wet weather they are doubly annoying when one is passing under them, by the low hanging branches catching the umbrella, uncovering the individual and sending a flood of water upon him from the leaves which always seem loaded for the pedestrian. Were it not for the water upon the leaves they certainly would wither from the imprecations heaped upon them when a luckless individual has been the victim. Cut the branches off and the nuisance will be abated.

Origin of Loafers.

An exchange says: In the beginning God created the heavens, the earth and all things therein. He then created men and women and left the loafers on the corners, and in due time they multiplied and spread into the postoffices, and the depots and the stores. In the latter place they sit and explain state and national problems that have vexed great minds, and exist partially by sampling goods. While he is thus engaged his wife is out washing for her neighbors, and the poor/helpless children are left at home to care for themselves as best they can. There is nothing more noticeable than a loafer.

Death at Aaronsburg.

Mr. Christian Haffley, one of the oldest citizens of Aaronsburg, died on last Wednesday, 24th, after a lingering illness of several weeks. He was a wagon maker by trade and emigrated to this country from Germany when but seventeen years old, settling in this county. Two sons survive him, William and Benjamin, both still living in Aaronsburg. He was aged near eighty-five years. The funeral took place on Friday, Rev. Finkbinder, of the Evangelical church officiating.

Thinking of Bellefonte.

An effort will be made at the meeting of the State Democratic Committee, which meets today, Thursday, to have the State convention held in Bellefonte. Strong influence will be brought to bear upon the committee, and the good points of the town brought forward. We hope their representative will convince the committee of the advisability of holding the convention in that town.

Large Steer.

Spangler & Co., killed a two year old steer on Monday, which dressed 736 lbs. The tallow from the stomach weighed 32 lbs. This was a brag beef sure, and better are never killed.

No Paper.

No paper will be issued from the Reporter's office next week; being issue of July 9th, to afford the printers a rest and a weeks' vacation. The next issue will be of July 16th.

Subscribe for the Reporter.

A full line of spring clothing has been received at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, and can be purchased at very low prices. One of the best cutters is in the employ of Lewins and a perfect fit guaranteed.

A Touching Episode.

Gen. Dan Hastings gave a beautiful illustration of faith in his lecture before the Literary societies of Central Pennsylvania College at New Berlin on Tuesday evening of last week. He said that on the first Sunday after the flood in 1889 while walking through the streets of Johnstown looking at the terrible destruction wrought by the waters he came upon a small group of people who had gathered in front of what a few days before was a magnificent church edifice but now a heap of ruins. The pastor and a majority of the members had been drowned and the few survivors had reverently gathered upon the spot at service time. All was silent for a moment when one of the members mounted a box and requested them to sing Cowper's famous hymn:

"God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform; He plants His footsteps in the sea, And rides upon the storm."

The General said it made the cold chills run up his back.—Middleburg Post.

Strike at Lewistown.

Lewistown is having the experience of a strike at present. At one of the large iron works near the town the men went out and their places were filled with men brought over from Bellefonte, and much bad feeling is prevalent between the old employees and the "scabs," and violence is resorted to on the part of the strikers. The Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel says some of the Bellefonte men went home on a visit and on their return through Mann's narrows Sunday night they were stoned, one of the men being struck on the arm and severely hurt. This act can hardly be charged to the Amalgamated Association, since it does not countenance violence in any form, but that it was the work of sympathizers with the iron men, there seems no doubt. The company offers an advertisement elsewhere a reward of one hundred dollars for information that will lead to the conviction of the parties.

Still Alive.

The recent movement at Bellefonte for the reestablishment of a race course for that town is still alive, and alive only with a very faint effort. The race course would be in conjunction with an agricultural fair. Such a scheme we do not think would be a success as the Patrons' picnic at Grange Park has all the necessary requirements in that respect and the displays have far exceeded those of the old fair, and this year will be greater than ever before. A race course is not needed by the Patrons to attract the masses, and we don't believe one would thrive in Bellefonte, and will not take the place of the picnic.

Next year will be leap year and we suppose the girls will organize a brisk campaign. There are many eligible young bachelors and spry widowers around town that should be looked after. And girls, next year would be a good time to remind them of the Scriptural injunction: "It is not good that man should live alone," unless peradventure, they should awaken to a sense of their duty meantime.

The Picnic.

The Patrons' picnic in Grange Park will begin this year on Monday, Sept. 14th. Camping will begin on the Saturday previous, as many tent holders express their desire of spending Sunday upon the camp ground. Arrangements have also been made for holding religious services on Sunday on the ground, at which one of the Centre Hall ministers will officiate.

Festival.

A festival will be held in the grove at Centre Hall, on Saturday evening, July 11th, by the ladies of the Lutheran church. Ice cream, cake, lemonade, etc., will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend. Proceeds towards liquidation of debt.

Unroofed.

Fate seems to be against the Lewisburg bridge. Two years ago this month the flood carried away two spans, and on Friday the wind unroofed a portion of the old part on the Lewisburg side. The damage will be considerable.

Fave the Court Yard.

The county commissioners have concluded to pave the court house yard at Bellefonte, with concrete pavement, of Cunningham's patent. The work will be commenced soon after the 4th of July.

Good shoes, at very low prices can be found at A. C. Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte, and a very large assortment to select from. He handles no shoddy goods and full return guaranteed.

Sixteeners' Annual Reunion.

The Eleventh Annual Reunion of the Graduates of the different Soldiers' Orphan's Schools will take place at Reading, Pa., August 18, 19, 20, 1891. These reunions are very enjoyable affairs, and are looked forward to with delight by Sixteeners, both male and female, all over the State. The different committees are hard at work and have mapped out a very enjoyable program having enlisted the services of the G. A. R. Posts, the Veteran Legion, Sons of Veterans' Camps, and some of the prominent citizens of the City of Reading. They expect to make this reunion the grandest of them all. Full information can be had of Jacob A. Gram, Box 547, Harrisburg, Pa., or of the Local Committee Isaac W. Hull, Chairman, 217 Oley Street, Reading, Pa.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits J. D. Murray Druggist.

A Plea For Widowers.

A Wichita, Kansas paper gives the following new plan in courting: A young widower in this city, who is the father of two little children, is paying his attentions to a well-known society lady. When he calls on his affianced he drives up to her home with his children and upon his arrival the father and mother of the girl take charge of the children and team and continue the drive, while the lover stays and keeps the young lady company. This kind of courting is pleasing to all parties concerned.

Republican Convention.

Chairman Andrews, of the State Committee, announces that the Republican State convention will be held at Harrisburg on Wednesday, August 19th to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer, a candidate for Auditor General and eighteen candidates for delegates at large to the Constitutional convention, provided for in the recently approved act of Assembly.

A Yankee Sheriff Frightened.

A well known sheriff, who lives in Maine, had been given up to die with what his physician called Consumption, a friend advised the sheriff to try Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure: recovery soon followed, much to the surprise of the doctor, who now prescribes it for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Price 25 cents. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

Walnut Grove.

The farmers are all busy making hay, and want to get through until the 4th. The crop is good throughout.

Miss Mollie McClintock of Wolf's Store, accompanied by a lady and gentleman friend, of same place, was home over Sunday to visit her parents, Charles, a son and sister, Viola and Lizzie and A. B. Klappert and sisters took a trip to the cave on Saturday, and say they had a very nice time. James Wert purchased a mower and binder, and Cyrus Durst a mower from agent Peter Hoffer. The implements give very good satisfaction. Our neighborhood was well represented at the festival in Realsburg last Saturday evening. The festival was quite a success. Proceeds for the benefit of P. H. Meyer's singing class. Misses Lydia and Maggie Spangler and Ella Mersinger, of Tusseyville, were guests of Cora E. Durst's on Saturday. Mr. Daniel Bohn, of Lemont, passed through here on Tuesday. Lloyd McClintock, of Buffalo Run, is home on a visit. Who is the duds of Walnut Grove is a question that should be answered.

His Body Terribly Mangled.

A shocking accident occurred at the Union Knitting Mills, whereby Isaac Cox was terribly mutilated. Red Flag Oil, the Famous Pain Cure was quickly applied, and recovery soon followed. You can try this great remedy for 25 cents. If you want to drive away Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, Poor Appetite, and all evils arising from a disordered Liver, use Dr. Lee's Liver and Bile Regulator. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

ABOUT SPRING FEVER.

Who hasn't suffered from this disease? We say disease advisedly, for such it is. It is a general relaxation of the system that makes the victim averse to exertion. Unless the constitution is keyed up when these symptoms appear, some acute malady strikes the most vulnerable point and life is endangered. A good stimulant promptly and properly used soon tones up the weak spots. Leading physicians of the land invariably recommend the use of Pure Rye Whiskey in such cases. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duo-Quesset" Eye Whiskies are sold under a sworn guarantee of purity so that the consumer takes no risk—"Silver Age" at $1.50 and "Duo-Quesset" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. Mr. Klein also keeps the largest and choicest stock of Brandy, Wine, etc., in Pennsylvania. Goods are sent by express everywhere. Write for Catalogue and Price List (mentioning this paper), to Max Klein, 52 Federal Street, Allegheny City.

WM. WOLF & SON. One of our lady customers this week named the store a LAWN EMPORIUM!

An appropriate name for the time being at least. If the ladies are not all supplied yet, (there can't be many), they will find a new lot arriving this or tomorrow evening.

Have been sold out of it several times, but while you buy it we will try to keep up the stock.

BARGAINS. There are still great values for you in dried and canned fruits and vegetables. Season is advancing and they must be sold, why not take advantage of the offerings. Such Prunes were never offered at 15 cents as you will see with us.

Try our pared and unpared Peaches and compare them with others at same price.

Yours Respectfully, WM. WOLF & SON.
