CENTRE REPORTER

FRED KURTZ, -- EDITOR

Both Blaine and the Blaine presidential boom are gaining in strength.

The resignation of Quay has caused a split in the Lewistown Gazette-the copy that reached us last week was split side-

The Centre county printed blanks scale.

ed for the purpose.

Well said by the Altoma Tribune: The individual who spends his time in tion by the friends of Mr. Quay, and it bar-rooms, pool-rooms, cigar stores, or is the thought that a policy has been inon the street corner, denouncing heart- augurated that gives them something to less capitalists and enlarging on the go on. Resting on their oars in 1891, miseries of the laboring man, while his there is a feeling that with defeat or wife maintains the family by taking in slight majority, Matthew Stanley Quay washing, hasn't much influence with and Matthew Stanley Quay's friends will those who know him.

utable to robbery on the part of officials, in Philadelphia, that Quay is temporarin high and low places. If our public ily out of politics, to resent the treatservants, national, state, county and ment he has recieved and to punish, township, were honest as a rule, millions should the opportunity arise. of dollars would be saved to the public, and taxation be so light as to leave no room for complaint.

The astounding rascality in Philadels phia demands that close investigation be made to ascertain how many counties in our state are free from similar practices ficials. As to illegal fees, Centre county its coming will be gradual. This countrest these pretty little that the secrecy of the ballot is revealed is needed is to honestly try. has complaints affecting late officials, which were exposed by the REPORTEB. Watch! is the word.

Cincinnati's first year's experience with the truant law, requiring all children fourteen years old and under, to attend school, is said to be satisfactory. The enforcement of the law increased the school attendance by more than a thousand pupils. Fines to the extent of only $150 have been collected for the infractions that have been detected and prices of grain will be steadily maintainpunished.

Beware of inaugurating strikes. At Chicago, on Friday, the trial of John Stakely and Dennis McCardy, indicted for conspiracy, resulted in a verdict of November last.

Several farmers and grangers give us hearty approval of the article in last and constant caution is needed to prefull of caution, in view of past swindles, against the frauds and tricks of these candidates for state's prison. Why has this been neglected ?

haus can import Welsh laborers to make Mr. Niedringhaus contends that his industry is an exception to the law, because it is not yet established and beskilled labor in the United States. And vet he and his Republican friends have over and over again asserted that he and other tin-plate makers are producing large quantities of plate from native material and by native workmen. Moreover Niedringhaus says that his present workingmen (whom he cannot procure) are about to strike. There is a decided wheat. A late despatch from Topeka difference between Niedringhaus seek- says: Very little wheat is flowing easting a duty on tin-plate and Niedring- ward from this State. Alliance leaders haus seeking cheap labor. To permit attribute this to the circular sent out a Republican Congressman, however, to from Washington, advising farmers to import cheap labor in order to build up hold their grain. In the southern part a downtrodden Republican industry and of this state, where the yield was the to refuse to a church the privilege of en- greatest, wheat has been threshed, and intention of resdiness to tackle anything be revealed how any man voted, it is gaging a foreign clergyman because he just enough has been sold to pay presscomes under the Alien Labor Act are ing debts, while the bulk of it has been entirely consistent with Republican put in store houses to await higher pri- ball Club, Centre Hall, Pa., and it will complain.

Quay Not in the Fight.

The Philadelphia Times says: The Bardsley paralysis still keeps the leaders of the Republican party shaking and quivering, and yet the bold and strategic the national committee has sent their blood coursing a little more lively through their veins. As it is understood in Philadelphia by those in a position to know it means that Colonel Quay is not | was thus described: in active politics this year, not even in Quay defeat.

eral counties regarding illegal fees as- not be Quay money even by implication: Quay candidates.

QUAY IN 1892.

Such is the understanding of the situahave to be called upon to save Pennsylvania for even James G. Blaine in 1892 All the burdensome taxation is attrib- There is no question among his friends

> We think we can observe prices of real estate slowly on the advance. That it has reached its lowest figure is undoubted. Our farmers can look forward to better times. Their lands are certain to for grain, as it has seen in the past few years. These low prices were caused by the occupation and cultivation in twenty years of 200,000,000 acres of the finest land cannot be duplicated in this country, and the result will be that as our population is rapidly increasing and consumption is coming up to production the United States not only consuming every bit of corn and wheat they can raise, but actually importing these cereals.

The Cleveland Leader, having made the ridiculous assertion that "tin plate guilty. Instead of a penitentiary sen- has already been reduced from 50 cents tence, which was possible, the men were to $1 50 a box mills are being erected fined $100 each. The defendants are and greater reductions will follow," the railroad conductors who were instrumen- Plain Dealer made inquiry at "one of the tal in causing a four days' strike in the best known tin-working establishments" Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad in in that city. The reply was that for the quality of tin plate used for roofing and general tinning work the Cleveland concern had paid $11 a box before the passage of the McKinley bill. An invoice of week's REPORTER, headed, "Fair Play," eight boxes of the same quality received and think it is a subject that needs ven- last week was billed at 17 50 a box. Intilation at every gathering of farmers. stead of the price being "reduced from The class of fellows who swindle and 50 cents to $1 50 a box," it has been inprey upon the farmer are always around, creased $6 50 a box, or over 59 per cent.

Trade from our lake ports direct to Europe is about to be established. Colonel S. C. Reynolds, the millionaire grain merchant of Toledo, has just returned The Republican Tressury Department from England, where he has succeeded has decided that Congressman Niedring- in organizing a company with a capital of $2,500,090 to operate a line of steamers American tin-plate of British material. direct from Toledo and other Lake Erie points to Liverpool. A branch line will be run between New Orleans and Liverpool in the cotton carrying trade. The cause he cannot procure the necessary Lake Erie steamers will carry flour and grain. The management of the Toledo flouring mills has made arrangements to its output of 5,000 barrels a day. Colo- Jury commissioner was the only thing appeared from the politics of the State, nel Reynolds is president of the new of importance and Mr. Samuel Aley, of while the repeater, in many instances, steamship company.

Kansas farmers are holding their Jewish Exiles Arrive In Boston.

From Boston, 28th inst., it is announced: The Russian Jews who came here on the steamer Kansas, and who are de- Hon. Fred Kurtz: move of Senator Quay in resigning from of the new immigration law, told in an used, in the CENTRE REPORTER of the 23rd the election while the heat and excite-

Pennsylvania politics. He proposes to Russian miles from Viele, containing candidate, may not exist. The truth is umns; the ballots to be delivered to the D. F. Fortney writes a logical letter think and read and fish and meet his eighteen houses, with their barns and there is no real necessity for such a convoter within the polling place by sworn upon the subject of a constitutional con- friends, but the ticket this year is not to outbuildings. July 18th, about midnight vention and the expediency of holding officers; prohibit the use of any other vention, which will be found in this is be known as a Quay ticket, and the at a dozen or so Russians from the city a convention for the sole purpose of rethis time anticipated defeat will not be a came trooping down upon them and set vising and amending the constitution in preparing his ballot be guaranteed fire to the whole settlement. Fourteen when there is no necessity for it, is It is not to be supposed he proposes to of the Jews were burned to death, while greatly to be doubted. fraud, exposed by the Reporter, was drop out of politics for good and all, nor twenty were fearfully burned. The Jews Taking the expression of the people as only the Philadelphia steal on a smaller that he will not be found at the head of armed themselves with stones and sticks and index there is no demand that the his followers when the proper time and gave chase. The Russians were present constitution be changed, except will be, but as necessity and experience comes. But this year the Senator is not thoroughly surprised at this, because in so far as it relates to the numbering There is considerable agitation in sev. in it. The money for the campaign will they were accustomed to have their own of the ballot. An examination of the way with these people. One young man proposition to change the requirements serted to have been taken by certain there will be no occasion for any attack whose mother had been cruelly burned, of the constitution in this respect will decounty officials. In Lancaster it is upon Quay methods, for he will not em- took a crowbar and attacked three of the monstrate, that there is no foundation sought to make fee-grabbing an issue in ploy them. The candidates will be Russians. He killed two of them and for it, under the law, as it now stands. the contest for Judge, and in Montgom- named by the convention, and will be struck the third one such a blow that he It is not the numbering that reveals the ery and Chester it has received the at- the Republican candidates or somebody died in an hour. All the time the Rus. secrecy of the ballot. Three men contention of committees of the bar appoint. else's candidates, but they will not be sians were rushing wildly about, shouts stitute the election board. They are ing "Kill the Jews! Kill the Jews!" In the only persons who, in any manner, the midst of this turmoil the officers have access to or handle the ballots. from Veile, attracted by the blaze, came The cierks simply write the names of into the settlement and arrested the electors and keep tally upon counting young man who had killed the three the vote. The clerks, overseers, (if any) Russians and also captured the other and election officers are sworn to secre-Jews. These were to be tried there on cy, and any clerk, overseer or election July 20th, and probably will be sent to officer who shall disclose how any elec-Siberia.

> while gazing at the picturesque scenery prisonment. from the window of a first-class comparter in villages, instead of living a life of elector voted. ed. In years to come we will see the tunities for society and amusement institutions. which exists among the continental faras the American farmers do, the Europarish church, a singing society, and many other social organizations, which with the sound of fiddle and guitar and the lively feet of the dancers.

It Pays to be Honest.

The editor of the Independence (Kan.) sults. So much so, that about three tion, as it now is, to say that we have had taken the paper from the office, or publican majority was, in the city that plish the porposes of the constitution. csused it to be taken, they should find year, it is the belief of many people that Another objection to a convention at out that should be in; sometimes too dollars would have paid. It pays to be election. honest even with printers.

Republican Convention.

delegates were present. Little interest the ballot to be numbered. Since its permission, after next November. and closed the proceedings by the read. sent to the Penitentiary. ing of the usual resolutions which were drafted by a committee

Open for Challenges.

Centre Hall and the boys announce their sary to recount the vote and it should in the world, and are open to challenges. done in the interest of justice and good receive attention.

Declines to be a Delegate.

interview through an interpreter yester, in reference to myself for delegate to the ment of the campaign still exists. day, of the persecutions which drive proposed Constitutional Convention them from Russia. The crowning piece from this district. It looks absurd to go tor shall have voted, unless required to do so in judicial proceeding, shall be Mr. Bookwalter, of Ohio, who traveled guilty of a misdemeanor, which upon

During all the years that the present towns, with their town hall, their parish altogether by the manner in which the study to European farm life and was de- called to account, especially if he was in evidence against them. lighted with the sociability and oppor- employed in one of our tariff protected Under such a provision the good peosociety. There is a viliage band, a village debating society, a public library, a manner provided without a convention? This is about all the change that forger of election returns got in their strated is an excellent instrument. work effectually and with wonderful re- It is no argument sgainst the constitu was manifested in the convention as adoption the ballot-box stuffer and the The people of our county are now Marion township was nominated by ac- has been discovered by means of the elector's vote is revealed through its fools or cranks. A base ball club has been organized at operation. If in a contest, it is neces-

Men are not discharged, because they whack.

Bellefonte, Pa., July 31, 1891. the election, if it should then be discovered that they had done so. If dischargtained at this port by the requirements I am much obliged for kind words you ed at all, it is done immediately after

On this point let the constitution stand as it now is, but let all the ballots was the burning of their hamlet, which through a campaign, incur the necessary be printed and distributed at the public expense, when, by the time the election expense, with the names of the respec-It was a little farming settlement, four is over the office for which you are a tive party candidates in seperate colabsolute privacy. As I understand it the ballot reform bill passed by the last legislature substantially contains these provisions. It is not perfect and never may require, let it be amended and perfected until it shall accomplish its full

> Sec.4-Article VIII of the constitution has done more to preserve the purity of of the ballot, to break up fraud, disclose forgery and discover the repeater, at our elections than any law or constitutional provisions we have ever had. It ought not to be changed.

In some quarters it is contended that there ought to be a convention to make provision to enforce the Seventeenth article in the present constitution. It is strange that the enforcement of any article in any constitution, which makes provision that the Legislature shall provi vide by law for properly carrying it into effect should have to be enforced by a constitutional convention. The same in Europe, relates the following, which conviction would subject him, or them, argument is used in reference to the gives a lesson on farm life: One day to a fine of $1000 and two years im- provisions of the constitution relating to senatorial and judicial apportionments.

ment of a train in Switzerland, he be- constitution and the laws made in pur- should be made in reference to these where no Bible was found in the house. came interested in watching the numer, suance of the provisions relating to elected articles of the constitution. A thorough canvass of the city was ous villages which were to be seen at tions have been in force, no case, to my Every senator and representative is close intervals, as the train sped along. knowledge, has been reported where the sworn to "Support, obey and defend the without the word of God in any shape. He noted that the farmers in Germany, election board or any member of it, in constitution of the Commonwealth as Where the agent could induce the pur-France, Switzerland and other continen. any district in the state has been arrests well as the constitution of the United chase of the Bible he sold the book, but tal countries seem to gather close togeth- ed or prosecuted for revealing how any States." It is therefore the sworn duty in many instances it was found necessas. of every senator and representative to do ry to make gifts, as less than one-third rise in value and prices for grain are isolated loneliness in solitary farm An experience of a number of years as whatever he can to honestly and faithed bound to become better. This is not houses on their farms. He thought as Judge of the Election, in the district in fully carry into effect every provision of of corruption and robbery by public of going to come all in a lump at once, but he sped by one pretty village after anoth. which I live, leads to the conclusion the constitution. It can be done, all that residences formed, to the lonely farm in the type used in printing the words of ever man, who as senator or reprehouse in which he had proved the dull "State Ticket," or "County Ticket," any sentative, takes the oath perscribed and days of his youth, on the Wabash bot- watcher at the window can tell what who fails to support laws to carry out the agricultural land under the sun, in the toms in Indiana. These little agriculticket the elector is voting. By this provisions of the constitution, and the prairie states of Obio, Indiana, Illinois, tural villages or communities, which are means it is that the employe or the boss record of their votes against anti-discri-Kansas and Nebrasks. This body of so charming a feature of farm life on the of labor undertakes to tell how his em mination bills, fair apportionment bills, continent interested him, and he resolv. ploye voted, and if the ticket polled did to prohibit the granting of free passes ed to make a close study of them. One not contain the heading of the employ- by railroad companies to any person exend of the matter was that he gave deep er's or boss' party ticket the laborer was cept employes of the company to be used of clothing for spring and summer, as ple of the state, who care nothing for of-I do not wonder that this manner of fice, but desire to enjoy the benefits of mers. Instead of living miles apart and using the ballot to coerce the laboring good government could amuse them. getting to town once every week or two, men of our State to vote against their sevies by sending the senators and repsense of right and justice has called from resentatives who violated their oaths, to pean farmers live in villages—agricultural communities they are called. They tion of the secrecy of the ballot. But is sions of the Legislature would go by go to their farm work in the morning not the demand sufficiently met by the until laws would be enacted providing Bellefonte, and a very la go assortment and return in the evening. When they return home they find mirth, music and

It is well known to the citizens of the should be made in the constitution. The commonwealth that at the general elec- proposition is so radical that it is not Branch, Bellefonte, can save you considmany other social organizations, which make life worth living. The evening in tion held in October, 1872, the last, but likely to be adopted by any convention. erable money. one of these continental villages is gay one under the constitution of 1838, im- This being so, I do not see the need of mense frauds were committed in the going to the expense and risk of having city of Philadelphia. The ballot-box a convention to tinker at a constitution. stuffer, the ballot thief, the repeater and which time and experience have demons

No honest merchant, either Democrat or Star sued a delinquent subscriber for weeks afterwards the Press of that city, had it for 17 years and some of its pros vent these rascals from successfully Republican, will deny that there has eleven dollars. The delinquent claimed in an article headed "Masks-off," clearly visions remain unenforced, That is enplaying their game. At each gathering been a considerable advance in the price that he never subscribed for the paper showed that in one ward alone the electrical tirely the fault of the people. If they of the grangers an address should be de- of imported tin plate during the past and did not propose to pay. The Judge tion had been altered, so as to make a would send men of exalted character, instructed the jury that if the evidence difference of at least three thousand ability and honesty to the legislature, disclosed the fact that the delinquent votes in the result. Large as the Reviews would be passed that would accomfor the plaintiff. It cost the man nearly it was the result of fraud, forgery, theft this time exists in the fact that never in quick to act, but with all its faults and a hundred dollars to settle what eleven and repeating done on the day of the the history of our State have the corporations had so much power and so a bright newsypaper than there is in a These fearful results impelled the con- firm a grasp upon the people. Give novel. You will find that the brigtest vention which framed the present conthem the opportunity, by calling a con- boy on practical sensible every day stitution to do what it could to prevent vention, and they will destroy every line questions is the boy who prefers news-The Republican county convention fraud and as far as possible, secure the of the fund amental law which restricts papers to novels. met in the court house on Tuesday morn- purity of the ballot. This gave birth to their power. If the people are wise ing and only about fifty out of the 120 the clause in the constitution requiring there will be no convention called by their ship to Liverpool by water, two-thirds of very little was to be done. The office of forger of election returns, have dis. against a convention and I hope they will continue to be, and show it in the returns of the coming election.

I am not and will not be a candidate clamation. They chose several delegates numbering of the ballot, convicted and for delegate, I hope however that the people, not only of the county but of the dorsed the Harrison administration and The hue and-cry raised against this state, will see to it that the very best the McKinley William. This is comprovision of the constitution, surely men are chosen for delegates both in the comes from a misapprehension of its efs senatorial districts and at large. A confect on the secrecy of the ballot. No stitutional convention is no place for

Very Truly, D. F. FORTNEY.

Arms, who pulled Gen. Beaver's nose Address all communications to Captain government and no good citizen ought to has been pardened. If he gets to Bellefonte, Gov. Curtin might give him a have voted sgainst the wishes of their employer or boss six months or more after ment to the Farmers' Encampmen at Mt. Greina.

For the growing and powerful meeting at Mt. Gretna, August 16th to 22d inclusive, the Pennsylvania Railroad will place on sale August 15th to August 22d, good to return until August 24th. excursion tickets at a rate of a single fare for the round trip. This will apply to that territory bounded by Lutherville south, Canandaigua north, Bryn Mawr east, and East Liberty on the west. I is anticipated and intended that the agricultural and horticultural display this year will exceed anything before

A liberal arrangement of special train service will apply from August 17th to 22d inclusive, when a special will leave Harrisburg for Mt. Gretna at 9.00 A. M., and returning leave Mt. Gretna at 5.50; and from August 18th to 21st inclusive a special will leave Lancaster at 9.15 A. M., returning leave Mt. Gretna at 6.10 P. M., with special connection Lancaster to Columbia and Frederick

Marriage Licenses.

Following is the list of marriage licenses issued during the past week from the register's office Bellefonte:

Calvin Corl and Blanche Jordan, both of State College.

Lawrence S. Williams and Mary

Thomas, both of Philipsburg, Pa. Lowry Shope, of Milesburg, and Ellen

Taylor, of Buffalo Run. Charles Watson and Eva McGinley. both of Milesburg, Pa.

A Wicked Town.

The Pennsylvania Bible Society made a convass of Reading for the purpose of There is only one provision that supplying the omission to those families made, and 1,615 families were found would buy.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

Multitudes of children every summer church, their gay stores and comfortable tickets are printed. By the difference stitution making it perjury on the part Complaint, Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum, and Dysentery. Humpherys' Specifics Nos, FOUR, FIVE and SIX are safes curing thousands.

A Rolling Stone

Gathers no moss; neither does the dust light on the Philad. Branch's new stock customers keep it moving at figures which captivate all.

-Cabinet photos, $1 per dozen, at Lenney's gallery, Centre Hall.

-The cider mill at the planing mill was started up this week and is squeezing out cidea by the barrel.

--- Good succes, at very low prices can be found at A C. Mingle's shoe store.

bargains in clothing and gent's furnishing goods? Lewins, at the Philad. -The Pennsylvania Railroad Com-

-Do you want to secure genuine pany has given notice that no tramps will be allowed to rid on freight trains. Trainman will be held accountable for all fares of those who ride.

-New clothing, new hats, new furnishing goods, everything new for the coming season is now opened and ready for your inspection at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte.

-A newspaper is always printed in a rush. There is always something in it that should be left out; something left

An inexpensive fan will raise just as cooling a wind as an expensive one.

The Blaine boom is growing very rapidly and it looks as if Harrison was to be shelved.

The Republicans of Centre county, in their convention on Tuesday, 4th, env mitting hari-kari.

When Raby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria When she became Miss, she clung to Casto When she had Children, she gave them C