KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Belvidere, Pa., Nov. 27, '90.

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.:

Gents—I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to see Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment. I have used it on a blood spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and he is not lame.

Yours truly, WM. A. CURL.

Germantown, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1889.

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.,
Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

Gents: In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swollen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, he became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvements immediately from its use, and before [illegible] as used up I was satisfied that it was doing me a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle before it was used up my horse was entirely well, has been in the team doing heavy work all the time since last April, showing no more lameness. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a wonderful medicine, and it should be in every stable. Respectfully yours,

EUGENE DEWITT.

General John Palmer, of New York, Gets the Prize.

THE FIGHT ON THE COLOR LINE.

Exciting Discussion on the Question. A Majority and Minority Report. The Encampment Loudly Declares Against Separation—Washington Gets Next Year's Encampment.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 5.—It was precisely ten minutes after 5 last evening when with a sigh of relief Commander-in-Chief Veasey swung his hat on his head and grasped the hand of ex-President Hayes. Six hours before he had given the signal for the head of the column to move, and for over five of them he had kept on his feet while 40,000 veterans marched passed the grand stand and saluted. Ex-President Hayes walked in the procession.

Four magnificent arches erected by the citizens in different parts of the city marked the line of march. In numbers and equipment the parade was one of the most magnificent ever made by the Grand Army of the Republic.

DETROIT, Aug. 6.—The twenty-fifth annual encampment of the G. A. R. met in formal session yesterday in the mammoth hall that had been set apart for the business deliberations of the veterans. All that art and cultured taste could do to make the building attractive had been exerted in the decorations which adorned the interior.

Washington Gets It Next Year.

The opening address of the commander-in-chief was listened to attentively by the assembled veterans. The commander surprised the veterans by urging a separate jurisdiction for the colored posts.

Voting for the location for next year's encampment aroused considerable enthusiasm.

When the votes were counted it was shown that Washington had 366 votes against 339 for Lincoln.

DETROIT, Aug. 7.—Immediately after the meeting of the encampment yesterday the election of a commander-in-chief was declared the first business.

There were four candidates — John Palmer, of Albany, N. Y.; A. G. Weissart, of Milwaukee, Wis.; W. P. Smedberg, of California; S. H. Hurst, Ohio.

The first ballot gave Palmer 322, Weissart 270 and Smedberg 177.

Great enthusiasm was manifested by the New York delegates during the second ballot, when Palmer led from the start. Each gain was greeted with applause, but most of Palmer's acquisition was at the expense of Smedberg.

At the conclusion, when the result was still somewhat in doubt, the California delegation changed its entire vote to Palmer.

Prolonged cheering greeted this announcement, which meant Smedberg's withdrawal and Palmer's election. An enthusiastic delegate at this juncture moved that Palmer's election be declared unanimous, and it prevailed amid wildest enthusiasm.

The Color Line Fight.

When the committee appointed to report upon the address of the commander-in-chief made its appearance there was a buzz of excitement, and the encampment settled down for the fight on the colored issue. It turned out that there was a majority and minority report. The former presented by ex-Congressman Conger, of Ohio, antagonized the proposition to create provisional departments for the colored men. Thus going counter to the recommendations of the commander-in-chief. The minority report supported the latter and ended with a resolution recommending the erection of separate departments for the colored comrades in Louisiana and other southern states, and empowering the commander-in-chief to take action accordingly. This was greeted with groans and hisses from the colored contigents.

In the midst of a great uproar Veazey put the question of adopting the minority report. There was a good many ayes, but an avalanche of nays, the veterans in the gallery making as much noise as the delegates on the floor. Then the majority report was put and carried in the same way, while white and colored men jumped upon chairs, waving hats, canes and handkerchiefs and creating pandemonium. The southern delegates took their defeat very much to heart, and one of them shouted above the din, "That's goodby for us."

Palmer in Command.

DETROIT, Aug. 8.—The first business of the G. A. R. encampment yesterday was the report of the committees on the John A. Logan and Phil Sheridan monuments. The Logan monument now reaches $65,000, and is closed. For the Sheridan they have $50,000 in hand. Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, reported satisfactory progress for the committee on Memorial hall at Decatur, Ills.

Captain Palmer was formally mustered into office by the retiring commander, General Veazey, who gave into his keeping the new flag of the G. A. R.

The attempt to change the rules so as read: "Those who did not voluntarily bear arms against the United States" were entitled to membership of the G. A. R., was defeated. The per capita tax was reduced to two cents.

The committee appointed to take action on the death of General Sherman, Admiral Porter, and ex-Vice President Hannibal Hamlin and Past Commander Charles Devens reported appropriate resolutions.

An excursion to the delegates on the river last evening closed the public exercises of the encampment, and by midnight all the delegates were on the way home, highly pleased with the entertainment provided for them by the city of Detroit.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

Closing Quotations of the Stock and Produce Exchanges.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Almost nothing was done in the stock market. Extreme dullness marked every phase of the speculative situation; and, in fact, there was very little situation to the market. The investment spirit is dead and the speculative interest seems to be under stress of the warm weather. Stocks opened a shade weaker, and after the first few sales the market was only moderately active, and the support was chiefly from insiders.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 8.—Hugh Belger, aged 17, was crushed to death in Laurel Run mines. He had leaned over the car to catch a sprag lying on the top of the load. He did not know he was so near the low roof until the mule had pulled the car so that he was wedged between the roof and the load. Three men were required to extricate his body. The young man was widely known in the community.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 10.—A terrible accident occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad at Landis crossing, two miles east of Lancaster. While David Esch, a farmer, of Upper Leacock township, with his wife was coming to market their wagon was struck by the Lancaster accommodation and both were instantly killed. Esch was 50 years of age and his wife 35. They were married but six months, but Esch has twelve children by a former wife.

LANSDALE, Pa. Aug. 8. Henry D. Fiesel, justice of the peace and clerk of councils for this borough, has absconded after misappropriating $400 of the funds of the Lansdale lodge of Odd Fellows, of which he was secretary, and getting into debt to the extent of about $10,000. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10. — At daybreak, near Hurst street, which never goes to sleep, a colored Amazon with a criminal record murdered a young man yesterday. One blow of a knife in the hands of Ida Howatt, colored, gave Frank Hetzelberger, 22 years, of 210 Godfrey street, a wound over the heart, from which he died on reaching the Pennsylvania hospital. The murderess is well known to the police. She has served a term in prison as a "badger" thief, and has faced magistrates for less serious crimes.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 8.—An execution for $100,000 was issued against William E. Schmertz, of this city, yesterday by William Loeffler. HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—The commonwealth has fired the first shot in the litigation growing out of the Bardsley defalcations. Two suits were entered, one against the county of Philadelphia and the other against John Bardsley, late city treasurer. The first is to recover personal property tax for 1890, amounting to $622,013.11, and the second for license taxes, amounting to $527,604.18, less credits of $160,000 on account of taxes paid by brewers, brokers, theatres, wholesale and retail liquor dealers since the first settlement and during the months of March, April and May, 1891.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 10.—Two fatal mine accidents occurred at J. C. Haddock's Black Diamond mine, at Luzerne borough. A Polander known as Jake Morris, employed as a miner, had drilled a hole and loaded it. He fired the match, but through some defect it exploded almost instantly. A mass of coal struck him on the head, crushing in his skull. Thomas Vancarie was coming up the shaft. The carriage stopped at the Burnett vein, 300 feet from the bottom, to let a man get off.
