CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. AUG. 13.

IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBT

As to which is the most popular store in Bellefonte, where you can buy goods the cheapest, and be waited on promptly and in a modern business like way, ask any disinterested person and they will tell you quick, and without hesitation, at "THE RACET."

LOCAL ITEMS.

Are you going to take a tent at the picnic?
Frank Crawford spent Sunday with his family at Laurelton.
Jesse Shoop, fireman on P. R. R. between Altoona and Pittsburg, spent Sunday in town.
Isaac Dawson, of Bellefonte, was in town Monday looking up picnic probabilities.
Dr. Radcliffe, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Mr. Shannon Boal, near Linden Hall.
H. B. Sbafter, the Bellefonte photographer, has secured a position for the picnic and will dispense photos.
Boozer Bros. have discontinued carrying the mail to the station, and Archey Davis now makes the trips.
Conductor Reamer, of the Lewisburg and Tyrone R. R., rusticated at the hotel at Penn Cave over Sunday.
Mrs. W. E. Fischer returned on Friday after an absence of several weeks visiting her parents at Berlin, Pa.
Sam. Kreamer, spent Sunday in Rebersburg. It is said Sam. has something nice down the valley, hence the frequency of his trips.
If you want to hear some real kicking, go back to the ball grounds in the evening and listen to the efforts made by the infants.
Miss Shirk, of Warren, Pa., and Miss Carrie Shirk, of Bellefonte, are the guests of their cousin, Miss Beniah Brislin the past few days.
The newly made pike near the station is being driven over. Poles laid across the road at different points compel this.
The Bellefonte base ball team passed through here Friday morning on their way to Millheim, where they defeated that team by a score of 12 to 4.
Centre Hall has had an influx of church sociables and festivals this season. All have been very well patronized by the citizens considering the frequency of them.
The citizens of Bellefonte, the last two or three weeks have been annoyed by the visitation of nocturnal marauders. Only small quantities of goods have been taken by them.
A first class lunch table will be run during the Granger picnic week, by the ladies of the Lutheran church at Centre Hall. Proceeds for the liquidation of church debt.
As a health resort Centre Hall would stand as No. 1. People seldom get sick here. Perfectly pure air and water; we are 500 feet higher than Bellefonte, with rarely over two or three warm nights of a summer.
It is rumored that the Millheim base ball club want to come to Centre Hall, to cross bats with our boys. The only thing we have to say is "boys beware," for we are even worse than the Bellefonte club.
Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Bouse, of Milesburg, about ten years ago pastor of the Centre Hall M. E. church, on Friday of last week, celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage in the M. E. church at Milesburg. Many friends were present, and we send the well-wishes of the REPORTER.
Prof. H. F. Bitner and family left on Tuesday morning for Millersville, after a several weeks' visit with Mrs. Bitner's father, J. D. Murray. The Normal school at that place opens soon and the Prof. is one of the prominent instructors of the institution.
Druggist Murray trimmed off the low hanging branches of the trees in front of his store and made a great improvement. Many of the shade trees in town are a nuisance on account of the low branches and could be made of a beautiful nature if they were properly trimmed and not neglected.
G. B. Miess, one of the live business men of the south side of the valley, appeared in our sanctum and in a very business like manner had his label adjusted on the REPORTER. George has the ice cream privilege for the picnic week, at $60, he does not know whether he will sублиt any space.

Death of Joseph P. Gilliland.

Hon. S. Gilliland sends us the following from the Venango Spectator: This estimable citizen died at his home, in Frenchcreek township, on Thursday, July 23, 1891, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was the son of James Gilliland, one of the early pioneers who came to Frenchcreek in 1802 and died in 1860. The deceased was born on the old homestead, December 4, 1818. He chose farming for his life work, and was one of the model farmers of his township, possessing at the time of his death two hundred and fifty acres of excellent land in a good state of cultivation. He was married on the 4th of November, 1841, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Isaac Bunnell. Twelve children were born to them, eleven of whom are living. Mrs. Gilliland died on the 5th of July 1888.

A splendid specimen of physical manhood, he scarcely knew a day's sickness until attacked by the fatal malady which caused his death after a few days of suffering. He was an ardent and consistent Democrat, though never a noisy politician nor a seeker of official positions. In his death all who knew him mourn the loss of a good neighbor and trusty friend. His integrity and fair dealing were proverbial.

He was buried in Sandy Creek Cemetery on Friday, 24th, Rev. J. C. Bruce, of this city, conducting the funeral services.

Take Care of the Pennies.

When John Spangler was sheriff some dozen years ago he had occasion to come to this side of the county on business connected with the office he held, and came across the man who has faith in Ben. Franklin's maxim, "take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves." As the sheriff was driving a wheel of his buggy suddenly became locked, and whoever got into such a fix knows what agony that causes, especially when one is far away from grease. But the sheriff luckily got stuck close to where a man of three or four farms lived, moved and had his being, and to him he applied for a little lard to help him out of a scrape—a thimble-full would answer. He got the grease, managed to get the locked wheel from the axle, applied the grease, and put the wheel where it should be to spin. Naturally he asked the man of farms, "Well was bin ich schuldig for's Fet?" The answer came, "Well ich denk 2 cent were net zu feel." The sheriff paid over the two coppers for the grease, and the man of large estates felt that that was the best bargain he had yet driven in lard.

The Reservoir.

The masonry at the new reservoir has been completed and the masons are now engaged in covering the sides and bottom with cement. Three applications of cement will be made upon the sides, and several upon the bottom. When all have been made the reservoir will be allowed to fill with water and stand for about one week in order to remove all taints which will likely be given the water by the cement. The water will then be drawn off and connections made to the street main and the reservoir put into practical use. It is estimated that two weeks will be sufficient time to complete all arrangements and turn on the water, and in that time all may look forward to the increased water supply and no fear of water famine.

Church Dedication.

The Reformed church at Millheim will be dedicated on Sunday, August 16th, at 10 a. m. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D., of Spring Mills. The services will commence on Saturday evening previous at 7:30, at which time Rev. J. B. Brown, of Rebersburg, Pa., will preach, and on Sunday evening at the same hour Rev. S. H. Eisenburg, of Centre Hall, will preach. The music will be rendered by the choir of Salem's congregation near Penn Hall, under the direction of Prof. S. Meyers of the same place.

Gees to Conemaugh.

Mr. Warren Kriss, of Spring Mills, has been elected principal of the Conemaugh Pa., schools. Warren graduated in June from the Bloomsburg Normal school, and the rapid advancement made by him in the course at Bloomsburg had much to do with securing him the position at Conemaugh boro. Warren is a bright young man and will creditably fill the position to which he has been elected.

A Practical Farmer.

It is reported that Maj. W. F. Reynolds, of Bellefonte, this season housed over twenty-five thousand bushels of wheat threshed from the grain of his farms throughout the county. The Major's farms, unlike some, yearly increase in value, and have large yields.

A Popular Resort.

Penn Cave is becoming more prominent every day. Within the last week scores of people from a distance have visited it, and are perfectly delighted with the artistic works of nature. Surely this place is deserving of much better hotel and personal accommodations.

Fine cabinet photo's, only $1.00, at Lenney's, Centre Hall. Remember, we may be here today but gone very soon.

Death of Mrs. Mary Norris.

Yesterday Mrs. Mary B. Norris, wife of Mr. B. Norris, died at the residence of her son, D. B. Norris, Juniata, at the advanced age of 78 years, 3 months and 10 days. The deceased was born at Pennsylvania Furnace, April 11, 1812, and was the mother of fifteen children, of whom six boys and six girls lived to reach the estate of manhood and womanhood. Two of her sons were killed in the late war. The deceased had been a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church for sixty-two years and died in the full triumph of her faith and in the hope of a glorious resurrection. She was married October 10, 1832, and her husband still survives, making his home at the residence of his son where his life partner departed this life yesterday. Of the surviving children which blessed this union, four reside in Juniata, five near State College, Centre County, and one in Pittsburg. Forty-seven grandchildren are living, as are also seventeen great-grandchildren. The body will be conveyed on the 8.15 train this morning to Lamont, Centre county, where the interment will take place in the Branch cemetery on Wednesday at 10:30 o'clock.—Altoona Tribune, of 11th.

Handsome Interior.

The interior of the new Presbyterian church presents a very handsome appearance though as yet in an incomplete condition. A glance at the same revealed the new pews in position and the reflector in its place. The pews are circular in shape and are built of oak, of antique finish and the seats covered with heavy cushions, which were the magnanimous gift of Mrs. Martha Odenkirk. The new 14 light reflector arrived last week and was suspended near the centre of the audience room. It is quite handsome and a trial of same sufficiently showed its ability to illuminate the entire church. This was the gift of Miss Emily Alexander and is only one among the many good deeds the lady has done. The pulpit furniture arrived a few days ago and when put into place the sacred edifice will be near ready for dedication. The Sunday school room and vestibule alone remain to be finished and as expected the dedication will take place about the latter part of September.

Change of Venue.

Clinton county recently appraised the bridge across the river at Lock Haven, at $12,000, and made it a free bridge. The Bridge Company will not accept the appraised value, consequently the adjustment will have to be made by a court and jury. The company have got a change of venue to this county and it will be a Centre county jury that will pass upon the dispute at issue. The Bridge Company, claim that the original cost of the bridge was $27,000 and that it had expended $36,000 on it in repairs. The stockholders of the company have annually received a dividend of six per cent, exclusive of all repairs, expenses and taxes.

They Milked the Cows.

C. C. Beyer shot two black snakes on Mrs. Justus Jones' farm at Washington Square, says the Norristown Times, that were monsters of their species. The pair were discovered in a clump of bushes along the meadow where the cows usually pasture, and have been suspected for some time of having sucked the cows, as some of them have not been giving the quantity of milk they should of late. Mr. Beyer on locating the milk thieves quickly dispatched them, and upon stretching them out the larger was as long as a fence rail and the smaller measured eight feet.

John E. Cornelius Dead.

John R. Cornelius died at his residence at Lewisburg on Saturday, aged 62. Mr. Cornelius was editor and publisher of the Lewisburg Chronicle, one of the oldest newspapers in Central Pennsylvania, with which he had been connected all his life time. Many of the best known newspaper men of the State served under him in his office. He was also the first telegraph operator in this part of the country.

An Extraordinary Feat.

Mr. Jonathan Treasler, who is now in his 91st year, walked into Bellefonte from Pleasant Gap on Monday, transacting legal business and then walked back to his son's home at the Cap. Mr. Treasler lives at Linden Hall but is now visiting at his son's home this side of the mountain. A ten mile walk in a half a day for a man over 91 years of age is nothing slow in this age of short lives and tired feelings.

Sunday School Picnic.

On Saturday five Sunday schools, composing Pleasant Gap, Zion, and several other places, picniced on top of Nittany mountain above town. It was a very large picnic. Two brass bands accompanied the picnic and enlivened the day with their music.

Killed by Lightning.

Lock Haven Democrat: Harry Snyder, a farmer who lives in Nittany valley, between Mackeyville and Clintondale, was unfortunately exposed to lose three valuable cows on Wednesday afternoon. They were under a tree in the pasture field when the tree was struck by lightning, resulting in the killing of the cows. He estimates his loss at $100.

The Pennsylvania State College.

Located at the village of State College, Centre county, has arranged to give an extended course of free lectures on agricultural topics during the winter months, beginning January 7, 1892. There will be, at least, three lectures daily, and two hours each day will be given to practical exercises in stable, creamery, green-houses and laboratories.

The subjects treated will include Breeds, Breeding and Management of Live Stock, Principles and Practice of Feeding, Dairying and Dairy Products, Principles of Plant Growth, Farm Crops, Fertilizers, Road Making, Vegetable and Small Fruits, Forestry, Useful and Injurious Insects, Common Diseases and Accidents of Live Stock.

Attendants upon the lectures will be admitted without examination or fee. The regular four years course in Agriculture begins on the second Wednesday in September. Anyone wishing further information should send for pamphlet entitled "Instruction in Agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College."

Lewisburg Man Killed.

John Weidensaul, of Lewisburg, was killed at Mt. Carmel Saturday. Mr. Weidensaul was proprietor of the American hotel, at Lewisburg. He was on a visit to his brother at Mt. Carmel, also a hotel keeper. On Saturday he was out driving a trotter he owns and was riding in a sulky. He had taken a spin around the country and was on his way back to his brother's house, and had reached a point about 100 yards distant from the residence, when the trotter broke, letting the bit fall from the horse's mouth. The animal started to run and Mr. Weidensaul was thrown out of the sulky, striking on his head. His skull was broken and he was instantly killed. The remains were taken to Lewisburg on Monday. He was aged about 50 years, and leaves a wife and several children.

Elected Principal.

Prof. C. R. Neff, of near Centre Hall, has been elected principal of the Millheim schools, at a recent meeting of the school board. Prof. Neff last year was chosen principal of the Spring Mills schools and the evidence of his ability led Millheim to offer him the position. They certainly have chosen well and will secure a good instructor who will take the interests of the scholars to heart and labor well.

A Hot Wave.

The hot wave struck this section, giving us a regular sweater, Saturday, Sunday Monday and Tuesday—each day being hotter than the previous one, until Tuesday afternoon, at 4, when a thunder storm set in of great violence, and rain came down in torrents beyond any shower we ever had here. Three inches of water fell in less than an hour. The air has been fresher since, and the hot wave broken.

Reformed Picnic.

The Centre Hall Reformed Sunday school picniced on Wednesday, in Mr. D. C. Keller's grove, about three miles east of town. Quite a large crowd went down in spite of the unfavorable weather and the weather, and had a jolly good time. From the amount of baskets we saw passing, enough good things to eat were taken to feed an army. The grove was slightly damp from the heavy rain the day before, but in spite of all this, they had a good time.

Heavy Rain Storm.

A heavy rain storm passed over this section on Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock, which did much damage to fruit, etc. The rain was preceded by a high wind which blew a gale and did no small damage to the fruit trees in the vicinity. The rain poured down in torrents and the streets were covered with water. In Harris township, Mr. Andy Long informs us, the storm was terrific, and did great damage to fruit trees, breaking them down, etc. The storm lasted over an hour.

The Hemlock Worm.

In Potter and Elk counties complaints are made that the hemlock trees are destroyed by a worm of the nature of a measuring worm, millions of which swarm around the feet of the workmen while chopping is going on and which are causing the trees for miles and miles around to turn brown, threatening ruin to the timber interests of that section.

Death at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Sarah Shultz died at her home in Rebersburg, on Tuesday evening of last week while sitting at the table eating supper. She had been suffering from dropsy for some time and the disease was the cause of her death. A husband and three children survive her. Her age was about 25 years.

Death of a Young Lady.

Katie Minerva Gatzel, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gatzel, died at her home in Georges valley, on the morning of July 28th, at the age of 20 years, 4 months and 23 days. She had been in delicate health for over a year when death ended her suffering. She was interred in the Georges valley cemetery.

A Rolling Stone.

Gathers no moss; neither does the dust light on the Philad. Branch's new stock of clothing for spring and summer, as customers keep it moving at figures which captivate all.

Farm Fertilizers.

The large yield of crops realized from the use of the fertilizers heretofore sold by us, is a sufficient guarantee of our claim that we furnish the most value for the money paid to us, for this line of goods.

Our Champion $25.00 per ton, Ammoniated bone Super-phosphate, is a complete fertilizer and has given an honest return for the money invested.

We guarantee more value for the money invested than is furnished for the same amount of money in any other fertilizer.

Lester's Ammoniated dissolved bone is a straight animal bone Phosphate, which gives satisfaction. Crocker's Buffalo Ammoniated super-phosphate, has earned the claim made for it, an "Honest Fertilizer," which makes crops grow large yield, making the use of the "Buffalo" profitable to the farmer who invests in it.

Dissolved South Carolina rock, is one of the leading fertilizers; and its value consists in the percentage of available phosphoric acid it contains. Farmers will consult their own interests by learning the value of fertilizers before purchasing. We invite a careful inquiry as to the value of fertilizers sold by us. Car load orders receive special attention. McCALMONT & Co. 23 July 91 Bellefonte, P. a.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, for years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever.
