CHILDREN MADE HAPPY.

Is there anything more rare, in the present day, than to see a really happy child? It is so rare that it will not be surprising if, in the not far distant future, some learned ethnologist should rise up and solemnly declare the species to be extinct.

There can be no parent, however poor, who would deny himself the pleasure of adding to his child's happiness, and surely not when he is absolutely certain that the pleasure of the gift bestowed will develop into a positive, future good.

It cultivates the growth of constructive imagination in children by giving them word pictures, and as an educational help works like magic.

CATARRH

PUNCH says: Ought to be done? Ought stands for nothing. The house ought to be cleaned with Sapolio. Try a cake in your next house-cleaning and be convinced.

"IGNORANCE of the law excuses no man, and ignorance is no excuse for a dirty house or greasy kitchen. Better clean them in the old way than not at all; but the modern and sensible way is to use SAPOLIO on paint, on floors, on windows, on pots and pans, and even on statuary. To be ignorant of the uses of SAPOLIO is to be behind the age."
