IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBT

As to which is the most popular store in Bellefonte, where you can buy goods the cheapest, and be waited on promptly and in a modern business like way, ask any disinterested person and they will tell you quick, and without hesitation, at "THE RACKET."

LOCAL ITEMS.

Oysters "r" now in season.
Much oysters spoiled by the recent wet weather.
Lemont had a heavy hail storm on Tuesday afternoon.
Festival in the woods on Saturday evening. Don't forget it.
Miss Mame Meyer visited in Bellefonte several days this week.
The grangers have erected several new buildings for next week's picnic.
Millheim boys desecrate the Sabbath by playing ball in the mountain back of town.
A tally-ho party from Bellefonte had supper served them at Odenkirks on Saturday evening.
Carroll, son of mail agent Robert Sechler, died very suddenly at his home in Lewisburg, last week.
The Lewisburg news issued a very creditable Hon. Chas. A. Wolf memorial edition on Aug. 22nd.
George Bushman has been spending the last week or two with his parents at Gettysburg, Pa.
John Odendirk went down to Shamokin on Monday to attend the funeral of his friend Amos Eppler.
Mrs. Wm. Wolf returned home Wednesday evening after a week's visit with her sister in Williamsport.
Dr. Lee, of Madisonburg, gave us a call. The doctor is one of the most successful practitioners in our county.
Will Shoop has sold his newspaper route to Archie Davis, who now serves his patrons on horse back.
Don't forget while attending the picnic on Grange Park, that good meals can be had at the Presbyterian Lunch tent.
On Tuesday, in moving a stove, Mr. J. D. Murray had two toes badly bruised by the stove dropping on his foot.
Wit. McCormick, of Tyrone, was in our burg on a flying visit, the other day. Wit. has built up a paying trade as undertaker.
The Grangers will run a 2 1/2 inch water main up on their grounds. The pipes have been loaned them by the water company.
You will likely want a new suit to attend the picnic. Lewins, Bellefonte, can give you exactly what is required to fit you out at a big reduction.
Misses Emma and Mary Moore, of Misouls, Montana, are visiting in the east. They attended the Harpster-Barr wedding on Tuesday and are the guests of Miss Anna Harpster.
The water will be turned from the new reservoir into the pipes to-day or tomorrow. They were delayed several days on account of several small difficult repairs which had to be made.
The railroad company have cut down the embankments up on the picnic grounds where trains are unloaded and it is no longer necessary to crawl up slippery clay to reach the grounds.
Every well dressed gentleman gets his clothing from the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. They can fit you out in anything you want, at a big bargain. You'll miss it greatly if you don't call to see his stock.
Mine host Brandon's Brockerhoff House having had its exterior elegantly remodeled, the interior is now to be attacked and changes made that will add to the comforts and conveniences of this popular hotel. The Brockerhoff has the brand-on as one of the best hotels in the interior of the state.
Carroll Low Crider, son of W. F. Crider, Bellefonte, died on Sunday afternoon aged 19 years and 10 days. He had been a robust and healthy young man, but was seized with the grip last winter, at which time the seed of death was planted in his system, and despite the best of treatment, the final summons came.
A Lock Haven item announces that the Clinton county tobacco crop this year is the finest and largest ever known in this part of Pennsylvania. The total number of acres raised in the seven townships is 770. The quality of the leaf is first class, and the crop has not been damaged by hail or rust. Growers will realize an average price of $200 per acre, or a total of $154,000.

Harpster-Barr.
Tuesday evening Miss Ella Harpster and Mr. Homer O. Barr were united in the bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jacob T. Harpster. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Fischer, of the Lutheran church. About fifty guests had assembled and were anxiously awaiting the arrival of the bridal party into the rooms. At exactly eight o'clock, the time designated, the bridal party made their appearance. They were preceded by Mr. Barr, brother of the groom, and Miss Cora Sweetwood, of Centre Hill, who on entering the room stepped aside and allowed the betrothed couple to face the minister. The knot was quickly tied and the divine blessing invoked upon the newly wedded couple. Congratulations were then indulged in and many they were and varied in the extreme, all however, joining in wishing the couple a future life of happiness and prosperity. An elegant repast was then served. Small tables were placed throughout the room, to which the assembled guests were invited to be seated, and the refreshments then served would undoubtedly have developed the appetite and satisfied the cravings of a cormorant. The couple were afterwards serenaded by the calithumpians who fairly made the town howl.
The groom is a young man who is engaged in business interests in Jeanette, Westmoreland county, Pa., to which locality the happy couple took their departure on Wednesday morning's train, where in the future they will continue to reside.

The Commissioners Indicted.
The Grand Jury in their report to the court last week recommended the removal of the water closets in the rear of the court house. This was only a repetition of the Grand jury reports for the last three years. On Wednesday, however, as soon as the Grand jury had presented their report the court recalled the grand jury and instructed District Attorney Meyer to prepare a bill of indictment against the county commissioners, charging them with maintaining a public nuisance in the water closets. The bill was prepared and sent to the Grand jury, which body of men in a few minutes returned a true bill of indictment against commissioners Frank Adams, James Strohm and George L. Goodhart.
The court then stated that the bill would be held over until the next term of court in November, to give the commissioners an opportunity to abate the nuisance. The commissioners were very indignant and would like, along with the court to see the nuisance removed, but to do so will be an expensive procedure.

George Miller Dead.
George Miller, of Penn Hall, died a few days ago. Mr. Miller at one time was a well-known landlord in this valley. He kept a public house at Aaronsburg, some thirty years ago, afterwards kept the Old Fort hotel, then the hotel at Spring Mills. Owing to paralysis of the lower limbs, Mr. Miller the past ten years had been obliged to use crutches, and retired from business, to a home which he purchased near Penn Hall. He was the father of a large family of children, among these are John H., of Rock Springs, Mrs. Will Keller, of Linden Hall, Robert, late of Centre Hall, and several others whose names we do not remember. His age was some 70 years.

How he Got Left.
How the suckers do bite! A young man in a neighboring town read an advertisement in one of the city papers the other day: "Detectives wanted. Information free." He lost no time in getting a letter to headquarters as soon as possible. In due time an answer came to him stating that his appointment, with badge and full instructions would be sent him on receipt of $5. This was good enough. The y. m. forwarded the money as soon as possible and in return received his badge—a tin one—and instructions to arrest all suspicious characters and catch all the suckers like himself he could.

Lighting the Streets.
This week a paper was circulated among our citizens to be signed by them petitioning the town council to make an appropriation for street lamps. The paper asks for only about twenty lamps and that one person be employed to keep them in order and under his supervision. There is no doubt about it, but that the town needs a little more light upon its streets and the object of the paper is a commendable one. The council will likely consider the question at the next regular meeting.

St. John Coming.
Let everybody be sure to attend the picnic at Grange Park on the 10th of this month, and hear Ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas. The people of Centre county ought to make a grand rally to that occasion, especially all who are interested in sobriety and good government. All who fail to hear him will miss a treat.

A Big Find.
While a gang of men were working on a flood deposit at Johnstown last week, a lead can was unearthed which contained $70, three ten dollar bills and the rest in gold coins. Another workman found $11 in silver.

Died of Gangrene.
The sad intelligence of the death of Amos Eppler will be heard with regret by the many friends of the deceased throughout this vicinity. It took place at his home near Shamokin, on Saturday last, after a lingering illness. About two years ago while assisting in loading a car load of prop timber of the lumber job which he operated, he was unfortunate enough to receive a severe fracture of the leg below the knee, the bone protruding through the flesh. The wound never fully healed up and he was troubled with a running sore, and finally terminated in his demise as above stated, death being caused by gangrene. Amos was a large, healthy, robust man, weighing over two hundred pounds and was of a very genial nature, making many friends during his two years' residence here. The funeral of deceased took place on Wednesday.

Religious Services During the Picnic.
Religious services will be held on Grange Park on Sunday previous to the opening of the picnic. The services will be conducted by ministers of three Centre Hall congregations, who have consented to officiate. They will be held in the large tent or auditorium. Rev. Fischer, of the Lutheran church will preach in the morning, Rev. Bakerville, of the Presbyterian church in the afternoon, and Rev. Eisenberg, of the Reformed church, in the evening. The ministers have appointments in their respective churches on that day at Centre Hall, but have consented to hold them in the park.

Tramps Fight to Kill.
A hand-to-hand fight occurred at Clearfield on Monday afternoon among a large party of tramps. Clubs, knives, and stones were used. Pete Scaddins and an unknown man were fatally stabbed. Three others were badly hurt. Citizens became alarmed at the protracted battle and called upon the Sheriff to interfere, but before he and his deputies reached the spot the six principal aggressors had fled, although three of them are said to be badly out.

The Sheriff then called together a posse of citizens and started in pursuit, returning late at night with two of them, who are now safely lodged in jail. The men arrested refuse to give their names, and will be held to await the result of Scaddins and the unknown man's injuries, both of whom are now reported unconscious and likely to die. There is great excitement in and about Clearfield.

Postage Stamps Redeemed.
Postage stamps that are damaged by sticking in warm or damp weather may be returned to the department and their value repaid to the purchaser, or exchanged for new stamps, or if you spoil a stamped envelope in attempting to write the address on it you need not throw it away, for you can also return it to the postoffice and receive the stamps value. All the redeemed envelopes and stamps are sent to the postmaster general and records of the same are kept. These regulations are not generally known and they may be of some benefit to a large number of people.

Wolves Killing Sheep.
The past two months hundreds of sheep have been killed in the southern end of Westmoreland county, and in every case the slaughter has been attributed to dogs, but it now appears that the wholesale killing has been done by wolves. Several packs of these fierce brutes have been seen by hunters lately on the ridges in the neighborhood of Mechanistown. A traveler passing over that wild mountain a short time ago was followed for miles by a pack of the wolves and only kept them back by frequently firing his pistol.

Court.
The second week of August term began on Monday, Judge Forst presiding. The case of William Wolf vs. William P. Shoop on a store account for $749 came up for trial, the defendant claiming the statute of limitation. Evidence of promises to pay which barred the statute of limitation, led the jury to render a verdict in favor of the prosecutor.
The Grenoble case, involving the genuineness of signatures to a note of $3500 was settled by the parties interested.

A Large Engine.
The Pennsylvania railroad company is building an extraordinarily large locomotive to haul the Limited at the necessary speed. It will be about three times as long as the average locomotive, will have two sets of driving wheels, one set being in the front and one set of pony wheels under the pilot. The wheels will be under trucks so that the locomotive can go around curves. Two firemen will be necessary to supply the coal.

The Siding Completed.
The rails have been laid upon the new siding at the railroad station and it only awaits ballast. The siding is now nearly one mile in length and extends from the upper part of the picnic ground to below the station. The siding is supposed to be ample for handling of trains during the picnic.

When you want a shoe that will give you satisfaction both in price and quality, go to Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte. He guarantees all goods sold and you get a genuine article.

A Novel Way of Beating the People Out of Clean Cash.

A well dressed stranger stepped into the office yesterday forenoon, says the Oval Lyncoming county Ledger, and after talking very pleasantly concerning trade and business matters for a while, he then exhibited several small packages supposed to contain roots and herbs as a sure cure for certain diseases. Next he showed a number of $20 bills which looked like the genuine currency, although it was somewhat worn so as not to arouse suspicion.
After thinking he had gained confidence in the proprietor he revealed the secret, and told that the bills were counterfeit, and that he had them made and rubbed them to make them look old and genuine. His proposition was that persons or dealers handling his goods were to pay him $2 a package, and it retailed for $5, thereby giving the retailer a handsome profit. He then gives the dealer a $10 bill of his spurious coin to pass off on some person, for every package he buys, and also a $20 bill to be given by the retailer to each of his customers buying a package as a guarantee that the medicine will do what it is recommended to do. This he claims is an inducement to get people to buy, but if the medicine cures the customer is to pay back the $20, and if not cured they are bound under a certain contract to pay back the money if cured.

This sharper has drawn in a great many merchants and business men according to his books which he opened here for inspection, but whether it was bogus or not we are unable to say. The medicine packages no doubt were worth about five cents, and the best advice we can give to the public is to let him alone.

About Marriage Licenses.

The marriage license law in Pennsylvania seems to be differently interpreted in various sections of the state. In Dauphin county, for instance, the license can be obtained by either the man or woman making application and appearing before the clerk of the courts, while in Lancaster county both parties are required to appear to obtain the coveted license to wed. The law clearly states that both parties must make legal qualifications as to their freedom from legal impediments. It has been the custom in many counties for the male portion of the contracting party to appear and qualify to the questions demanded by law. A prospective groom might, in case there were some legal objections still swear as to the correctness of his application. Either the man or woman can secure a license in Northumberland county. Inquiry at the recorder's office reveals the fact that most of the licenses are issued to the prospective groom without the bride or her relatives being present.

Centelence Stricken.

Jacob Gray, the Hughesville farmer who was visited by robbers several weeks ago, who took about $465, received that amount from an unexpected source one day last week, and is consequently happy. He at once deposited it in the Hughesville bank not caring to trust his bank under the carpet any longer. It is not definitely known who the guilty party was but very strong suspicion is cast upon a near-by neighbor.

To Be Sold.

Any of the REPORTER readers desiring to own a railroad will have a chance to do so before long.
The Buffalo Run, Bellefonte and Bald Eagle railroad, by a decree of the circuit court of the United States for the western district of Pennsylvania, will be sold in Philadelphia, with all its rolling stock on November 3d, to the highest bidder. The road commences at Beech Creek, Clinton county, and terminates at State College, thirty miles of the road being in operation.

A Juror Jaggled.

On Monday James H. McCord, of Rush township, who was summoned to serve as a juror, entered the jury box in a bad state of intoxication. When the court discovered the fact Mr. McCord was called forward and fined twenty dollars and committed to jail until the fine be paid. For not having the necessary amount at hand he was escorted up on the hill and there he now languishes contemplating this his first experience as a jurymen in Bellefonte.

A Faithful Dog.

The little seven year old daughter of Mr. Frank Bowling, while out on the mountain with her sister on Tuesday picking berries, says the Sugar Valley Journal, was frightened nearly to death by a big bear, which she encountered, and probably would have carried the little one off, had her dog not interfered and protected the child.

How Try This

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. To our Subscribers.

The special announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., of Enoesburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases" whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J. Kendall Co., (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, makes it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise," July 16.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism his Stomach was disordered his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaser, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. D. Murray's.

The reason we lead the shoe trade is because we best satisfy the people for a genuine bargain.—Mingle, Bellefonte.
People wanting cabinets, had better take advantage of these few days before the picnic, as we will likely be rushed out that occasion.
Bellefonte is slightly agitated over the question as to whether the cows will be allowed to make the streets and parks a grazing ground. They want her ruled out.

Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, is disposing of stock very cheaply to make room for fall goods. A bargain is offered among his large stock.

A Tremendous Sensation.

The burning of a Mississippi River Steamboat causes considerable excitement in New Orleans. Just think of the astonishment which Dr. Lee's Liver Regulator has caused by curing Dyspepsia, Bilio-sness, indigestion and Constipation. Don't fail to try it. Trial bottles free.

Madisonburg.

People are busy raising potatoes, which seem to be very plenty although many are complaining of them rotting very fast.
Rev. J. E. Roush and wife, of Rebersburg, are visiting friends in this place. Mr. Roush is a Reformed minister and preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday afternoon in the Reformed church at this place.
Mr. George Wolfe and Miss Sadie Stambach were married at Aaronsburg, on the 19th, and after a few days visit to Snyder county they returned to this place where they will reside with the gentleman's parents. They have the best wishes of the article, and may their life be one long dream of happiness.
Mr. Long, from Howard, passing through town one day last week, had a young colt hitched in a cart, the colt became unmanageable, throwing Mr. Long out and dragging him some distance, hurting his head and lower limbs, though not seriously.
Miss Katie Shafer, of Reading, was a guest at the Accommodation House. Miss Shafer is a fine and accomplished young lady, and that is just what our boys think too.
Mrs. George Kidder and daughter, who spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bieri at this place, left for her home at Pittsburg on Monday.
Rev. George K. Lambert who had been spending his vacation with his parents at this place, left for the Franklin and Marshall College on Wednesday.

A Yankee Sheriff Frightened.

A well known sheriff who lives in Maine, had been given up to die with what his physician called Consumption, a friend advised the sheriff to try Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure; recovery soon followed, much to the surprise of the doctor, who now prescribes it for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Price 25 and 50 cents. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

Multitudes of children every summer die from what is known as Summer Complaint, Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum and Dysentery. Humphrey's Specifics No. 4, FOUR, FIVE and SIX are safe curing thousands.
