An Employe of the Railroad Company Meets with a Fatal Accident While Boarding a Wrecking Train Which Was Ordered to the Scene of the Disaster-Other Fatalities.

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Passenger train No. 314, bound toward Denver on the Graymont district of the Union Pacific railway was wrecked yesterday morn-ing about 11 o'clock near Beaver Brook station and twenty-six passengers were injured, five of whom will prob-ably die. The train was late and running very rapidly when rounding a sharp curve, the express car left the track and rolled down a fifteen for the back of the low order. Pending the presentation of the candidates a letter down a fifteen foot embankment. It was read from Andrew D. White was followed by the mail and two passenger coaches, one of which turned over twice before reaching the bottom. The train was loaded with passengers, withdrawing his name from the consideration of many of whom were Knights of Pythias delegates, who were returning from the the convention. The name of J. When the news reached Golden, Colo., a wrecking train was ordered out, and Sloat Fassett was then presented by Senator O'Connor.

was starting when Robert Pruin, an employe of the road, attempted to board the engine. In doing so his revolver fell from his pocket, the hammer striking a stone, and the weapon was dis-charged, the ball taking effect in the man's neck, making a wound which will result fatally.

It is not known exactly what caused the wreck, but as the train was a narrow guage and the coaches very top heavy it is thought the train was running too rapidly for safety.

Death Came in an Odd Way.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 14. — One of the most peculiar accidents in the record of railroad fatalities occurred on the New Jersey Central railroad near of Rochester; state engineer, Verplanck Colvin, of Albany; state treasurer, Ira M. Hedges; comptroller, A. C. Wade, of Jamestown. pot had been left about a mile behind the train was going at full speed around The Steamship Arizona Struck by a long curve. Another curved track used exclusively for freight, comes close to the passenger track at this point. As the passenger train flew by the point where the tracks are closest together it passed a freight train going in the oppo-site direction.

At the same instant a huge plank from the freight train tore its way Early in the morning, while the Arizona was steaming rapidly in a fog, an un-known sailing vessel, believed to be a large coasting schooner, collided with the Arizona. The shock was very great. In the passengers from their the instantly in the presence of the af-brighted passengers. The plank which frighted passengers. The plank which killed Mr. Boag was a big piece of pine or hemlock, which had been detached by the door of one of the freight cars, which was swinging open.

Laborers Run Down by a Train. GLASGOW, Sept. 11.-A terrible accident, due to somebody's carelessness occurred here yesterday. A number of railroad laborers were engaged in repairing a railroad track along which a number of trains were constantly passnumber of trains were constantly pass-ing. As usual in all such cases the drivers of all passing engines had been warned to keep a lookout for the la-borers at work at the point referred to, and to whistle when nearing it.
