KEYSTONE TATE FAIR.

An Unusually Large Exhibit and Many Notable Attractions.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 22.—The first annual exhibition of the Bethlehem Fair and Driving Park association, in connection with the Pennsylvania State connection with the reinsylvania state fair, opened here yesterday, to continue the balance of the week. The exhibit of everything is unusually large. The town is decorated, and unusual activity is seen everywhere. The exhibit, being the first of the association, and also that it is a state fair, has a tendency of attracting the people. There will be notable attractions nearly every day of the week to add to the interesting races, which will commence this afternoon. The exhibit was formally opened by Professor Coppee, of Lehigh university. The event of Governor Pattison's visit to the fair temperature is looked forward

The event of Governor Pattison's visit to the fair tomorrow is looked forward to with considerable interest by the people of the Bethlehems and the Le-high valley in general. The governor will be accompanied by his wife, and during their stay here will be the guests of Hon. Charles Brodhead. Mr. Patti-son will make an address in the affarson will make an address in the after-noon, and a public reception will follow. Next in interest comes the firemen's

Shippel stopped in a sa-loon on his way from an evening party. The toughs, it is claimed, picked a quarrel with Shippel and followed him outside. Some loud talk was heard and then the sound of running footsteps. People attracted by the noise found Shippel lying face downward across the sidewalk. Blood was flowing from ugly wounds in the back of his head, inflicted by stones. A physician found the skull by stones. A physician found the skull crushed, and the young man died in half an hour after being picked up. Two men named Lenahan and a man named McDonald are under arrest on suspicion. Detectives are searching for three or four others suspected of com-plicity in the assault and for witnesses. The other assailants have probably left

A Stubborn School Board Dismissed.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 22. - Several CARLISSE, Pa., Sept. 22. — Several months ago trouble arose in the new Cumberland school board over the elec-tion of a teacher for the secondary school. There was a the vote on the election of M. M. Horton. As none of the parties interested would yield there was a deadlock, and when the schools opened a month ago one school remained closed for want of a teacher. The patrons then appealed to the court, and yesterday Judge Sudler dismissed the board and appointed a new one. The board and appointed a new one. The

The Ex-President of Chile Blows Out His Brains.

DEATH RATHER THAN SURRENDER.

The Tragedy Committed in the Dead of Night in the Headquarters of the Argentine Legation at Santiago After All Hopes of Escape Had Proved Futile.

VALPARAISO, Sept. 21.—Ex-President Balmaceda, of Chile, shot himself through the temple in his foom at the Argentine legation in Santiago. The story became known here late Saturday afternoon and created the greatest ex-citement. Every part of the city was brilliantly illuminated and on every hand was heard the sounds of rejoicing. Later accounts from the capital con firm the sensational news and give the details of his suicide. It now seems that Balmaceda left Santiago on Aug. 29, in the hope of making his escape from Chile, but seeing that every avenue of retreat was cut off he returned there on Sept. 2 and went direct to the Argentine legation.

His intention had been to go on board the vessel Condell, which he expected to find lying in San Antonio bay. Upon arriving there, however, he discovered to his chagrin that the torpedero had sailed by the hunted ex-president. Senor Urriburia had a long and earnest talk with Balmaceda relative to the latter's ideas previously broached, about the advisability of giving himself up to the junta. Balmaceda and Senor Urribaria went to bed at midnight.

Senora Urriburia heard a pistol shot in the bed room that had been assigned to Balmaceda. She notified her hus-band. Before he went to Balmaceda's room he ran round to the house of Carlos Walker Martinez and brought that gentleman back to the legation. Upon breaking in the door of Balmaceda's room he found that he had shot himself. The body was still warm. There was a gaping wound in the temple. The body was undressed and lay on the bed. The revolver was still held in his right hand.

The junta has the Argentine legation The junta has the Argentine legation guarded by troops to prevent an attack on the part of the people, but everything is quiet at Santiago. Balmaceda's body was removed to the general cemetery and was accompanied by members of his family and friends. The widow of the dead ex-president was informed of his tragic death by her brother, Do-mingo Torro. There is a guard sta-tioned at the cemetery. An intendente is keeping order. is keeping order.

Balmaceda's Career.

The stormy life thus brought to an end began in Santiago fifty-one years ago. Jose Manual Bannace and of dead usurper's full name. He came of dead usurper's full name. Well known and of high standing in Chilean affairs. It was the intention of his parents that he should have become a priest, and to that end he was carefully educated at the Seminario Concilias, of Santiago. But the young man had other ideas for him-self. There was at that time a political society in Santiago called the Club de la Reforma, composed of hot headed young men who wanted to change or over throw the constitution by which Chile had been governed since 1830. Balmaceda joined it. By the time he was 28 years old young Balmaceda was known throughout Chile as a coming man. He was elected a deputy to the Chilean congress and took part in all the de-When President Santa Maria took up Balmaceda in 1885 and made him the national minister of foreign affairs he greatly strengthened his administration and gratified the nation.
