ANOTHER CRASH.

A Philipsburg Bank Goes Under, Caused by Heavy Runs.

Following closely upon the crash the Houtzdale and Clearfield banks, came the closing of the doors of one of the banks in Philipsburg, which went under on Monday morning. The reason given for closing by Cashier O. P. Sones was the heavy run of last week, and the quiet checkingout of the principal depositors. Jonathan Boynton, father-inlaw of President Dill, is president of this bank, but has not taken an active part in its affairs for years. He only owned $10,-000 of the stock but the fact of his connection with the institution created a feeling of unrest and suspicion, which culminated as above.

The people of Philipsburg do not doubt the ability of the bank to pay out in full. The general weakness of the market and the inability to have first-class local paper discounted in the East forced the nearly all women, the most be- closing. The bank is a private one, and coming garment is one with a was known as the Philipsburg banking company. A rumor has reached here that two Eastern banks that held Dill's

An Enormous Output.

That the good housewives of the section are taking advantage of the bounteous crops of fruit, etc., and are laying up great quantities of canned goods, is evidenced by the enormous sale of sugar tin cans, jars, etc. One firm in Centre -Polka Dot Outing Flannel, Striped Hall informs us that they alone have sold over ten tons of sugar in the past season, and there are several other firms in Centre Hall whose sales have aggregated fully as great. Tin cans were scarce last week and could not be purchased in Centre Hall, Spring Mills Bellefonte, or any place in the valley. All dealers were out of same and the supply was not equal to the demand. there will likely be a lull in the business next year on account of the people being overstocked with the goods. Sev-

What Ladies Can Do.

When the ladies make up their minds to accomplish some good, they invariably succeed. This we have often obof served, and have a recent proof of it, within a short distance of the REPORTER office. Over two years ago, the Presbys terian ladies of the Centre Hall congregation-and their numbers are few, with very few male members-took in hand the erection of a much needed church in this place. These noble women persevered, gave of their own money liberally, canvassed to obtain further aid outside, engaged in sociables, and the like, and working thus in continued harmony, Sabbath, two weeks ago had the satisfaction of seeing their labors crowned with success, by the Dedication of one of the neatest churches in this part of the Jones Westfield, William A. Pollock and give more to aid young men whom God sends to state, and free of debt. All praise is due these noble women, upon whom mainly the success of the enterprise depended.

Another instance we give in the efforts of a number of the women of the Lutheran church, who have given themselves to the good work of raising means for extinguishing their church debt. By quiet work they have raised, in of the institutions. At Houtzdale the about eighteen months, thro the Bazaar, upwards of $500. In addition the ladies people have gone back to their work and opened the Lutheran lunch rooms during the recent picnic week, from which were realized $363 above expenses. Thus, thro the efforts mainly of these good ladies, about one half of the debt resting upon their church is about to be cancelled. All honor to the women who | against Dill have been withdrawn since aided in this work. If these noble women continue in their work, a complete > wiping out of the debt must follow. If you desire a good work to succeed, just get the ladies to take it in hand.

Following closely upon the suspension of the Clearfield National bank came the announcement of the closing of the doors of the Houtzdale bank, of which Mr. Dill, president of the defunct Clearfield bank, also figured at its head. SIR :--- Will you give me space in your valuable paper for a few lines; I shall try to be brief: The Centre Hall pastorate honored me in electing me delegate to the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Penna., which met in Duncannon, Sept. 30th to Oct. 5th. My trip was in every way very pleasant. I was disappointed not to find our pastor on the train at Spring Mills on Wednesday morning when I started. He reached Duncannon however, on Wednesday night, having been kept its doors became public, excitement was at home on account of a funeral. The Synod was organized on Wednesday morning and our pastor was elected president this being the second time he was honored with that office. The Synod was well attended and the business was done in an orderly way. This Synod has more young men on its beneficiary roll than any other synod in the General Synod. If it had the money it could atonce receive a large number of students who are anxiously looking for aid. The church Houtzdale bank, held Monday, Messrs. should not only pay for iaborers but it should it for aid. Four young men were licensed, one of whom was R.F. ors, and were instructed to obtain Messrs over 8000. The apportionment for this year for all objects will amount to $1.25 a member. This could surely be given, and if it were, what great good could be accomplished. Our pastor and I were quartered with Mr. Austin Lane, son of Rev. P, P. Lane, at one time pastor at Centre Hall. The oldest daughter of Rev. Lane makes her home with her brother. The youngest daughter is married to Dr. Sherer and lives in Duncannon also. It was very pleasant to be with these friends and we were treated most royally. Mr. Lane has a beautiful home situated in the centre of a plot of ground elevated, and covering four acres. From his front porch one can get a grand John B. McGarth, cashier, will be the view of the river, the mountains and the curving railroads. The soil about Duncannon is rathy er thin. Our George's valley is still a better farming country. Churches in Duncannon are numerous and are all well attended. The pulpits of town and neighboring towns were all filled by appointments from our Synod, and many were the good things said about the preachers. The Synod adjourned on Monday, Oct. 5th, and by 4.15 I was at Spring Mills again on my way home. The next convention will be held in Reedsville, Mifflin county. Four other towns much larger than Reedsville wanted the Synod, but the pastor's arguments for Reedsville carried the vote for his town. I want to say in conclusion that we need not feel ashamed of our Synod. It is a body of good, strong, consecrated men. I thank you, Mr. Editor for the privilege of saying these things through the REPOSTER, Respectfully Yours,

SAMUEL ERTEL, Georges Valley.
