REPORTER THE CENTRE

EDITOR and PROP'S FRED KURTZ. *tERMS;—One year, $1.50, when paid in ad vace. Those in arrears subject to previous terms. $2 per year. Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 inser

CENTRE BALL, PA., THURS. OCT. 15.

PARNELL'S OPPONENT DEAD.

Sir John Pope Hennessy, Who Led the Kilkenny Contest. London, Oct. 8.—Coupled with the announcment of Mr. Parnell's death was the news that Sir John Pope Hennessy, member of parliament from North Kilkenny, was also dead.

Sir John Pope Hennessy, it will be remembered, immediately after the exposure in the O'Shea divorce case in December, 1890, contested the North Kilkenny election, backed up by Mr. Parnell's opponents, and defeated the Parnellite candidate, Mr. Vincent Scully, by 1,147 votes.

Sir John Pope Hennessy was born in Cork in 1834 and entered the house of commons as a member for Kings county in 1859. He was appointed governor of Labuan in 1867, of the West African settlements in 1872, of the Bahamas in 1873, of the Windward Islands in 1875, of Hong Kong in 1877 and of the colony of Mauritius in 1882. In April, 1880, he was created a knight commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Sir John also won considerable attention with his pen, being a most attractive magazine writer.

THE PARNELLITES.

They Refuse to Recognize the Mo-Ourthy Adherents.

LONDON, Oct. 13.-Towards the close of the meeting of Parnell's colleagues last night it was decided to issue a manifesto appealing to the Irish people to maintain their faction for an independent fight. The manifesto says: "Ireland has lost her leader, but the cause of Ireland's freedom remains. We have a duty to perform towards the living and the dead. The people gave into the hands of Charles Stewart Parnell and his parliamentary colleagues the charge of political interests and the honor and safety of your political cause. In an unfortunate hour a majority of the Irish representatives broke from our ranks, abandoned the flag of independent op-position, and ranged themselves as followers and satellites of a British statesman. We who address you refused to become parties to this treason and, relying on the national convictions, maintained intact our allegiance to the Independent National party of Ireland, convinced that our people would justify and support us. "The great leader is dead, but the cause still lives, and relying on your devotion to Irish nationality we propose to carry on the struggle until the principles for which we lived and died have triumphed, and a national unity has any foreign party or power.

"This is our resolution. Its enforcement depend on you. In involves sacrifices and struggles. We call on you to make them. "True to our principles, that we are the representatives and instrument of the people, we have resolved to call together a convention of representative Irishmen to discuss in the name of the nation the means by which we can best carry out the policy and the programme which he bequeathed us in dying.

To our ranks we shall welcome all honest men who believe that the political affairs of Ireland should be controlled and directed by the Irish people and by them alone. "But as to the men immediately responsible for the disruption of the National party, who in obedience to for-eign dictate, have loaded with calumny and hounded to death the foremost man of our race, we can have no fellowship and guidance and Ireland can have no

"Between them and the men who stood true to the cause of National in-depence, Ireland must choose on the threshold of the tomb of the leader who we mourn.

This manifesto was signed by twentyeight out of thirty-one of Parnell's col-leagues. W. A. Macdonald, Colonel Nolan and James Daly were absent.

Sweeping Sabbath Reforms.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 13.—Rev. William F. Crafts, D. D., of New York, who is at the head of the Sabbath Reform association, is in this city for a brief stay. In the course of a lecture delivered at the Eighth United Presbyterian church he stated that a movement would be started at an early day that would startle the citizens of the United States. The movement has not yet been fully outlined, but enough is known to warrant the statement that an effort will be made to stop Sunday work of all kinds, except works of necessity, which has already been settled by law. This city has been settled as the starting point for this reform wave, which is to weep the country. It is now proposed to stop street cars, Sunday trains, Sunday newspapers, etc.

Stanley's Narrow Escape. ROME, Oct. 13 .- The Brindisi express, on board of which train were Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stanley and Mrs. Tennant, mother of Mrs. Stanley, has been completely wrecked at Carovigno, nineteen miles from Brindisi. The Stanley teen miles from Brindisi. The Stanley party was on its way to Australia, where the explorer is to lecture. They, with all the other passengers on the train, escaped without injury, though they had a narrow escape from death. The express dashed into a baggage train that was on the track near Caro-

A Noted Priest Critically III. NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 13.—Mgr. George W: Doane, prothonotary apostolic and pastor of St. Patrick's cathedral in this pastor of St. Patrick's cathedral in this city, lies critically ill at the rectory, adjoing the cathedral, and the worst is feared. He arrived from Europe last Friday suffering from the effects of having been thrown to the deck during a storm at sea. Mgr. Doane is 62 years old. He was a minister of the Protestant Episcopal church till, in his 32d year, he entered the Roman Catholic church

Ex-Governor Bigelow Dead. New Haven, Conn., Oct. 13.—Ex-Governor Hobart B. Bigelow died yes-terday. He had been ill about two weeks, suffering from an attack of Bright's disease, but had been gaining during the last few days, until a relapse

PARNELL'S DEATH.

The Eminent Irishman a Victim of Rheumatism.

DIED IN THE MOST INTENSE AGONY.

No Announcement of His Illness Had Been Made, and the News Caused Consternation-Sir John Pope Hennessy, His Kilkenny Opponent, Also Joins the Silent Majority.

LONDON, Oct. 8 .- Great Britain and Ireland were startled yesterday by the utterly unlooked for announcement that Charles Stewart Parnell, the noted Irish leader, died suddenly Tuesday night at his home in Brighton.

Mr. Parnell arrived at his home at Brighton, from Ireland, on Thursday last. On the day following he was unable to leave his bed and his regular

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL physician was called. His sickness was pronounced to be a case of acute

Mr. Parnell, in spite of the care and attention which he received, did not seem to rally from the rheumatic attack and grew weaker and weaker. Several hours before his death he became unconscious, and so remained until he died, in intense agony.

In Dublin the late Irish leader's supporters are in a state of consternation.

The death of Mr. Parnell has caused the most intense excitement throughout the country, which has been increased by the fact that, although he died Tuesday night, the news only reached this city yesterday afternoon.

MR. PARNELL'S CAREER. His Active Efforts in the Cause of

Home Rule for Ireland. Charles Stewart Parnell was born at Avondale, County Wicklow, Ireland, in June, 1866. His father, John Henry Parnell, was of an English family, long resident in Ireland, some of been restored around a pariiamentary party pledged to work for Ireland under the flag of an independent op position and absolutely free from the control of any foreign party or power.

gash table, long results to be members of which had been conspicuous the members of which had been conspicuous as Irish patriots. His mother, Delia Tudor Stewart, was a daughter of Commodore Charles Stewart, "Old Ironsides," one of the most distinguished officers of the American

At the age of 6 he was sent to a school at Yeovil. Somersetshire, England. Next he was placed under the charge of Rev. Mr. Barton, at Kirk-Langley, Derbyshire; then under Rev. Mr. Wickshaw, in Oxfordshire, and finally he went to Magdalen college, Cambridge university, the alma mater of his father. In the spring of 1875 young Parnell found his parliamentary career opened to him. John Martin, the veteran Nationalist, who sat for County Meath, was taken extremely ill and died within a few days, and Parnell took his place as the representative from the county. place as the representative from the county.

The famine of 1879 brought the peasantry of Ireland to the point of desperation, and the new Irish party grew rapidly in strength. It was amid the general distress that the Irish Land league came into existence, with Michael Davitt at its head. Mr. Parnell gave his support to the scheme in June, 1879, and gave the watchword, "Keep a firm grip of your homestead."

The land league was founded Oct. 21 of that year, and Parnell was its first president. In December he visited this country, and was received everywhere with enthusiasm. Large sums were contributed to relieve Irish dis-tress and to support the land league. He re-ceived the rare honor of an invitation to ad-dress the national house of representatives. At the epening of the parliamentary session in 1881 the government leaders brought in a coercion act. At the same time was intro-duced a bill creating the land commission and empowering it to fix fair rents between ten ant and landlord, which should not be dis turbed for fifteen years. Mr. Parnell and the other Irish leaders resolved that the ten-ants who adhered to the land league proramme should keep out of the new land court until a number of suitable cases were brought forward as a test under the skillful direction of the lawyers of the league. The immediate result was the arrest, on Oct. 13, of Mr. Parnell and his principal col-leagues under the coercion act, and their in-carceration in Kilmainham jail, in Dublin. At the same time arrests were made in all parts of Ireland, until the jails were full of

Captain O'Shea now became prominent as an intermediary between the Gladstone ministry and Mr. Parnell. The latter pledged himself, if released from prison, to do his best to moderate the violence of the extreme wing of his party. The cabinet determined there-upon to release Mr. Parnell and his friends, and Mr. Forster, who dissented, resigned his and Mr. Toller, Early in May, 1882, Lord Frederick Caven dish, the new chief secretary for Ireland, and Mr. Thomas H. Burke, the permanent under secretary, were walking through Phoenix park toward the viceregal lodge they were assass-

Another and severer coercion act was adopted, suspending trial by jury in certain cases and giving the lord lieutenant autocratic powers.

At the general election of 1885 Mr. Parnell was re-elected for Cork, and his action in infidencing the Irish vote secured the return of many Conservative candidates.

In the season of 1887 a sensation was caused by the publication in the London Times of what purported to be a fac simile of a letter written by Mr. Parnell to a member of the Irish invincibles, excusing the murder of Mr. Burke, though regretting that of Lord Frederick Cavendish.

erick Cavendish.

Mr. Parnell denounced this in the house as a base and infamous forgery. There was a long fight between the government and Mr. Parnell on the latter's demand that the publisher of The Times be brought to the bar of the Acommission was finally appointed rather to try Mr. Parnell than to do him justice, but the whole thing fell to the ground when Richard Pigott, who had made affidavit to the authenticity of the letter, acknowledged himself a forger and perjurer and fied from England.

land.

At the very height of his fame Parnell fell through human frality. The history of the O'Shea divorce case is fresh in everybody's memory. Parnell refused to retire from polities. The Irish Catholic hierarchy and the English Liberals alike pronounced against him. The Nationalist party was divided, most of its leaders, headed by Justin McCarthy, joined in denouncing Mr. harnell's course in refusing to step down from his high place.

The anti-Parneilities or McCarthyites won in the Irish elections and Mr. Parneil was driven into temporary retirement. He married Mrs. Offines June 25 last by a civil coremony, Church of England clergymen refusing to marry a diverces. Since their mearings the couple have been living very quietly at

PENNSYLVANIA NEWS

Items of Real Interest Presented in Condensed Form.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND SAY

A Chapter of Accidents, Crimes and Local Happenings Picked Up Here and There in the State and Flashed Over the Busy Wires.

Norristown, Pa., Oct. 12.—The Frederico murder trial was closed on Saturday evening. The jury, after remaining out about two hours, rendered a verdict of not guilty.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 12. -- Ten thousand Catholic temperance men paraded in Avoca, Freeland and Carbondale Saturday in honor of Father Mathew's 101st birthday.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 10 .- John Miller, aged 22 years, a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley road, had both of his legs cut off by falling under a train at this place, and death followed soon after.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—City Treasurer Wright made his first move in the proceedings against the men who, he has openly charged, have been benefitted by the reduction of their mercantile taxes, by causing the arrest of Harry B. Hamell on the charge of conspiracy.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—While kneeling in prayer at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Sixth and Spruce streets, early yesterday morning, Henry Carron, 79 years, of 242 South Tenth street, was stricken with paralysis, and before medi-cal assistance could be summoned disd.

READING, Pa., Oct. 12.—The East Pennsylvania United Brethren Conference has adjourned. Abandoned churches in Philadelphia and Monterey were ordered to be sold. Resolutions were passed denouncing high license as a delusion and sympathizing with the aims of the Prohibition party.

LEBANON, Pa., Oct. 12.-Lohn Simmons and wife, living in the suburbs of Lebanon, were discovered Saturday afternoon, the husband prostrate with typhoid malaria, and the mother lying in the same bed and by her side a dead infant. Neither parent had been able to move for twenty-four hours.

LEBANON, Pa., Oct. 18 .- James Mc-Gowan, a laborer, employed at the new supply reservoir of this city, met with a fatal accident. He complained of be-ing ill, and went into the loft of one of the shanties provided for the workingmen for the purpose of taking a nap. This was the last seen of him until he was found lying upon the floor dying. It is supposed that he fell through the

each voter to vote for not more than two casus pates

The qualified voters shail also vote "For or Against" holding a convention to amend the Constitution of this State.

I also hereby make known and give notice that the places for holding the aforesaid elections in the several boroughs and townships within the county of Centre are as follows, to wit:

For the township of Haines (eastern precinct.) at the public school house at Woodward.

For the township of Haines (western precinct.) at the public house of T. G. Edmunds, at Aaronsburg.

For the township of Half Moon, at the school For the township of Taylor, at the house erect-d for that purpose on the property of Leonard ed for that purpose on the property of Leonard Merryman.

For the township of Miles, in the school house in the town of Rebersburg.

For the township of Gregg (northren precinct,) at Murray's school house.

For the township of Gregg (southern precinct,) at the dwelling house owned by J. B. Fisher, at renn Hall.

For the borough of Centre Hall, at the public school house in said borough.

For the township of Potter (northern precinct,) at the public house of D. L. Bartges, in Centre Hall.

For the township of Potter (southern precinct,)

Mills

For the township of Ferguson (new preciuct,) at the old school house at Balleyville

For the township of Harris, at the Union hotel, at Boalsburg.

For the township of Patton, at the house of Peter Murray,

For the North ward of the borough of Beilefonte, at the court house in Bellefonte,
For the South ward of the borough of Bellefonte, at the court house in Bellefonte.
For the West ward of the borough of Bellefonte at the court house in Bellefonte.
For the township of Benner, at the court house in Bellefonte. in Bellefonte.

For the township of Spring (southern precinct.) at the hotel of Gottleib Haag, in the village of Pleasant Gap.

For the township of Spring (northern precinct) at the commissioners office, in the court house,

Bellefonte,
For the township of Spring (western precinct.)
at the public acbool house known as the Fair Ground school house
For the township of Walker in the school house at Hublersburg.
For the township of Howard, at the school house in the boro of Howard, at the public school house in said borough.
For the township of Rush (northern precinct.)
in the school house at Cold Stream.
For the township of Rush (southern precinct.)
in the public school house in the village of Powelton.

For the township of Snow Shoe (east-rn pre-cinct.) at the school house in the village of Snow For the township of Snow Shoe (western pre-cinct.) at the school house in the village of Mocinct.) at the school house in the village of Moshannon.

For the townphip of Marion, at the school house in Jacksonville.
For the borough of Milesburg, at the school house in Milesburg.
For the township of Boggs (eastern precinct.)
at Curtin's school house.
For the township of Boggs (western precinct.)
at the school house in Centra. City For the township of Boggs (northern precinct.)
at the public school house known as "Walker's school house."
For the township of Huston, at the Silver Dale school house.

school house.
For the township of Penn, at the public house kept by W. W. Rishel, at Coburn.
For the borough of Milhelm, at the school house opposite the Evangelical church in said For the township of Liberty, at the school

For the township of Enderty, at the school house in Eagleville.

For the township of Worth, at the school house in Port Matilda.

For the township of Burnside, at the house of I K Radi

For the township of Burnside, at the house of J. K. Boak.
For the township of Curtin, at the school house near Robert Maon's.
For the township of Union, at the school house in the boro of Unionville.
For the borough of Unionvill, at the new school house in said borough
For the First ward of the borough of Philipsburg, at the Wheelman's Club House' corner of Beaver and Second streets.
For the Second ward of the borough of Philipsburg, at the public building, at the corner of North Centre and Presqueisle streets.
For the Third ward of the borough of Philipsburg, at the store of Wm. Hess, at the corner of Spruce and Ninth streets

Notice is hereby given, "That every person excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of the State, or of the city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or other wise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of jud.e., inspector or clerk of an election of this Commonwealth; and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office then voted for "

At all the elections held under the law of this Commonwealth, the poils shall be opened at 7 o'clock a.m., and Closed at 7 o'clock p. m.

TICKETS TO BE VOTED.

TICKETS TO BE VOTED.

was found lying upon the floor dying. It is supposed that he fell through the hatchway.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 12. — Daniel Broadhurst, an employe of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western carshops, was caught between the bumpers of two cars and killed. At the Continental mine a big piece of roof gave way, burying from sight Philip J. Reese and crushing the legs of John Fletcher. It was several hours before the body of the former, crushed to a shapeless mass, was reached. Fletcher may recover.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12. — Few theatrical stars of Miss Eastlake's standing have had to undergo the humiliation which she experienced at the Wainut Street theater on Saturday night, when she was left without a cent to pay the salaries of her company and discovered that the representative of the Fleishman estate had attached all the box office restricted.

Constitutional Convention; and "Against a Constitutional Convention," and no other inscriptions thereon.

Third. The tickets to be voted for members at large shall have on the outside the words "Delegates at large," and on the inside the names of the candidates to be voted for not exceeding eighteen in number.

Fourth, The tickets to be voted for district members shall have on the outside the words, "District delegates," and on the inside the name or names of the candidates voted for not exceeding the proper number limited as aforesaid, but any ticket that shall contain a greater number of names than the number for which the voter shall be entitled to vote shall be rejected.

Fifth. The return judges shall meet at the same places and at the same time after said election, and shall make out the returns thereof of the votes cast for delegates at large and for district delegates to be members of the said convention in the several counties of the Commonwealth, and shall follow the same form in making out their returns as prescribed for return judges in the case of an election for Governor, except that the said returns shall be transmitted to the Betretary of the Commonwealth and shall be addressed to that officer alone.

Now, therefore, in obedience to the require-be addressed to that officer alone.

Now, therefore, in obedience to the requirements of the Act of the General Assembly aforesaid, you are hereby required to publish this notice with your proclamation for the holding of said general election.

WILLIAM F. HARRITY,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

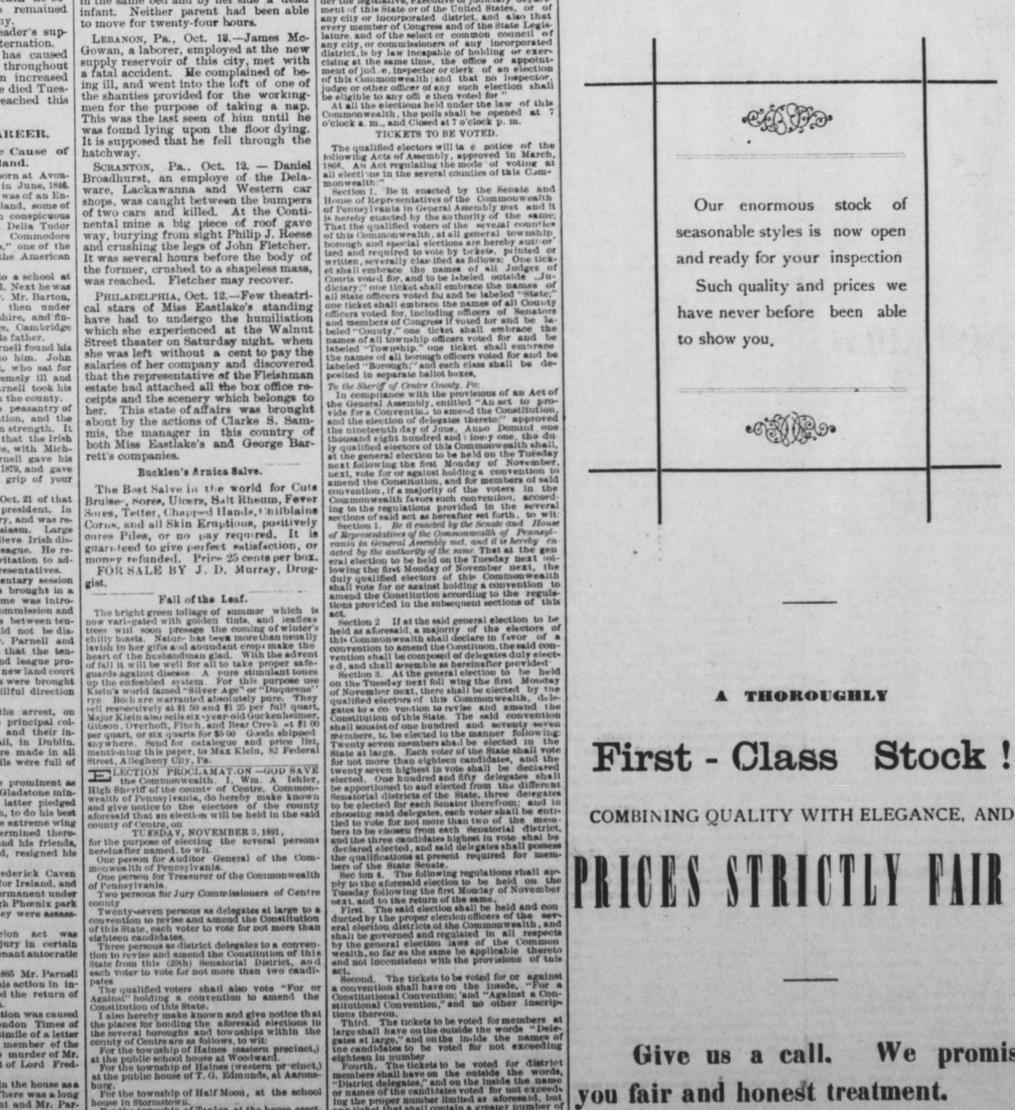

Given under my hand and seal at my office, in Bellefonte, this 5th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and in the One Hundred and fifteenth year of the Independence of the United States.

WM. A. ISHLER,
Sheriff of Centre county

XOU

Can't Afford to Wait!

Big Chance and The Chance to Buy Your Fall and Winter Goods is Now Offered You.

First - Class Stock!

COMBINING QUALITY WITH ELEGANCE, AND

We promise you fair and honest treatment.

4 M. FAUBLE, 3

PROPRIETOR.

Opposite Brockerhoff House . . . . Bellefonte, Pa.

Rochester

Clothing - House.