Death of Mrs. Thurman. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Thurman, wife of Judge Allen G. Thurman, died on Saturday afternoon. For some time past there has been but little hope entertained of her recovery. While Mary was yet a young lady her father moved to Lexington, Ky. Here she married Mr. Tompkins, but he soon died, leaving one daughter, Nancy. She was married to Judge Thurman in November, 1844, and has been his almost constant companion and helpmate since during his long professional and public career. Judge Thurman is much enfeebled and broken down, and it is the opinion of those who know him best and understand his condition that he will not long survive the death of his wife.

The woman is still fair to look upon, but must be near the 60 mark. Reade is generally credited with having more money than law practice. Whether he will take his new wife to New York is still a problem. She may not be so desirous of returning to the scenes of her former triumphs.

A dreadful scene was enacted at the execution of William Rose, who was hanged at Redwood Falls, Minn. When the trap was sprung there was a dull crash, and the rope parted three feet from the neck. The limp body was picked up, carried on the platform, laid down, face upward, upon the readjusted trap. The second noose dangling from above was pulled down, adjusted quickly and the trap again sprung without any attempt to raise him to his feet. Then ensued a slow process of strangulation.
