pure alcohol to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING. Alcohol is good for leather; it is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing too costly to use in a good leather preservative.

Acme Blacking retails at 20c. and at that price sells readily. Many people are so accustomed to buying a dressing or blacking at 5c. and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. We hold this offer open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Genta-I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure
the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment.
I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten hottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and has not been lane.

Gents: In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say, that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock, eniargol and a wollen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, be became about useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a nottle, and I could see very plainly great in flow a manual industrially from its use and before the bottle was used up I was satisfied that it was done him a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle, a insfore it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the average since last April, showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a valicable medicine, and it should be in every stables to the local. Respectfully yours.

Pennsylvania's Senate Responds to the Governor's Call.

ONLY FOUR MEMBERS ABSENT.

They Listen to the Reading of the Governor's Message, Appoint a Committee and Adjourn for the Day-The Special Committee Reports No Cause for Suspicion.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 14.—Pursuant to the call of Governor Pattison, the senate convened in extraordinary session at noon yesterday to consider whether sufficient cause existed for removal from office of Auditor General Thomas Mc-Camant and State Treasurer Henry K. Boyer, who are alleged to have been in collusion with John Bardsley in his malfeasance in office. Lieutenant Gov-ernor Watres occupied the chair. Four members were absent.

Senators Grady and Markly were appointed a committee to notify the govornor of the assembly of the senate. The committee returned in ten minutes, and were followed almost immediately by Private Secretary Tate, who presented the governor's message, which was read by the clerk.

The Governor's Message. After stating at length the facts brought out about Bardsley by the Phila-delphia investigation of his accounts and papers, and the revelations made by the McCamaht-Livsey-Bardsley correspondence, the governor goes on to say:

From the testimony given by Thomas Mc Camant, auditor general, and by Henry K.
Boyer, state treasurer, before the joint legislative investigating committee, it appears further that of the moneys collected by John Bardsley for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania he has failed to pay over the following Personal property tax (1890)...... $622,013 11 Personal property tax (1891) 289,232 96 Municipal loans tax (1890)......

Of this total po portion has been secured to the commonwealth except $120,000, the entire amount of the license is bond given by Bardsley, leaving due to e state about a million and a quarter dollars. In addition to this sum there was paid to John Bardsley out of the state treasury on Dec. 30, 1890, $420,000 for the public schools of the city of Philadelphia, no portion of which was applied by him for that purpose, and for the whole amount of which the authorities of Philadelphia claim to have a legal and moral obliga-tion against the commonwealth. In what proportion the losses of these public moneys shall be divided between the city and the state is the subject of litigation not yet con-cluded. But, in any event, it appears that a total of $1,786,370.59 of money belonging to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been misapplied, misappropriated, embezzled and

The governor makes an exhaustive analysis of the testimony of McCamant and Boyer, showing that this estimate of the loss their conduct entailed upon the state is based upon their own admissions. In closing he says:

officers before a joint committee of the legislature, in order that the senate may determine the action appropriate in the premises.

The senate then adjourned until 3 p.

No Cause for Suspicion. HARRISBURG, Oct. 14.-The committee charged with the investigation of the department of the auditor general and state treasurer adopted a preliminary report yesterday and sent it to Governor Pattison.

The committee finds that the evidence wholly fails to disclose any just ground for suspicion as to the personal or offi-cial integrity of State Treasurer Boyer and that it fails to show any act of personal or official dishonesty on the part of Auditor General McCamant or the improper receipt by him of any money, either directly or indirectly, from John Bardsley. Messrs. Fow and Skinner present a minority report protesting against this finding.

A Very Brief Session.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 15. — When the special session of the senate was called to order yesterday afternoon the committee on mode of procedure presented its report. The rules state that the cases accused will be heard in open senate and the attorney general will be invited to assist. The accused officers will be notified that the senate is organized be notified that the senate is organized for trial and proposes to proceed, and that they may be present with their counsel and be heard. The question of admitting or not admitting evidence will be governed by rules of law. The president of the senate will preside, and exceptions to evidence may be argued five minutes on either side, when he will decide, but an appeal can be taken from his decision. The sergeant-at-arms will serve all processes and the president will swear witnesses. dent will swear witnesses.

The rules as presented were adopted.

The senate then adopted a resolution providing for a session daily, to convene at 10 o'clock.

The senate then adjourned, having been in session exactly twenty-three

The Accused Deny the Charges. The Accused Deny the Charges.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 16.—At yesterday's session of the senate Auditor General McCamant and Treasurer Boyer made answer, through counsel, to the charges against them. Mr. Shapley, for Mr. McCamant, read the auditor general's denial. Mr. McCamant "expressly denies the jurisdiction of your honorable body." He then goes on to expressly deny each and every charge of official misbehavior alleged against him in the governor's proclamation and message, whether stated expressly, by way of inwhether stated expressly, by way of inwhether stated expressiy, by way of inference, argument or suggestion; also expressly denies each and every statement in the proclamation and message contained, in so far as they or any of them are set forth as sufficient grounds to warrant the conclusion that he has been in any way guilty of misconduct. been in any way guilty of misconduct, misbehavior, or maladministration in HARRISBURG, Oct. 20.—The senate at yesterday afternoon's session decided to proceed first with the hearing of evidence in the case of Treasurer Boyer.

Mr. Reeves was the only witness examined, and gave evidence regarding the amount of state funds held by Bardsley.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 19. — Jeddo colliery, No. 1, operated by G. B. Markle, has began to crush, and fears are entertained for its safety. The main gangway, leading from No. 1 to No. 2, has already closed up so much that it is impossible to get through. Should it close more both slopes will shut down, and it is thought by many of the old miners that it cannot be opened for at least six months. Already many men least six months. Already many men have been suspended.

ASHLAND, Pa., Oct. 20.—John Curry, a highly respected young man, and a member of St. John's Episcopal church choir, met with a sad death in the mine at Bast colfiery yesterday. He was engaged in starting schutes, when the coal rushed upon him, holding him prisoner, while the gas that followed slowly smothered him in the schute. His comrades while endeavoring to extricate him conversed with him, but when they reached him he was dead.

Spurgeon, of London, is a great feature.

The Patriot wants the rascals turned out or locked up. To this end it heartily urges the election of Wright and Tilden as the only means to stop the plundering of the public treasury.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT, 8 pages, is only 81 a year. It maintains the best features of the daily, including the Epurgeon sermon. First take your home paper, then it, Send for circulars and sample copies (free) of either daily or weekly.
