JUSTIN M'CARTHY'S VICTORY,

His Candidate Wins the Contest for Parnell's Seat. CORK, Nov. 9.—Mr. Martin Flavin, the McCarthyite candidate for the seat in parliament for Cork city left vacant by the death of Parnell, has been elected by a pluriality of 1,512 votes over the Par-nellite candidate, Mr. John E. Redmond.

JUSTIN M'CARTHY.

The result of the count is as follows: Flavin (McCarthyite), 3,699; Redmond (Parnellite), 2,157; Sarsfield (Unionist), 1161. The defeat, say the Parnellites, will not prevent them from hanging together until the general election.

The election was for a successor in parliament to the late Charles Stewart Parnell, who represented Cork city in the house of commons. Now that the McCarthyites have won it is claimed that there will be a union in the parlia-mentary forces before the general elections, with Justin McCarthy as the acknowledged leader of all factions. The priests tooka most active partin the canvass. They made a house to house canvass of the voters, following immediately after the Parnellite canvassers, and, it is claimed, threatening the voters with all sorts of horrible things if they voted for Mr. Redmond or failed to vote for Mr. Flavin. Many priests were stationed about the booths. mingling with the voters and giving their final instructions or admonitions or making final appeals before they entered the polling places.

DEATH BY FLAME.

Cincinnati and Denver Report Fatal

Conflagrations. CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.-A fire broke out yesterday in Oscar Okens' picture frame manufactory at 134 West Second street. During the progress of the fire a ladder put up by the firemen fell and instantly killed Fireman Bocklage. Edward Anderson, of the same company, was fatally injured. Joseph Conway and Beebe, of jured, as was also Captain Hurley, of another company. The fire was caused by an explosion of fine varnish in the cellar. William Mayors, who was at work in the cellar, was fearfully burned, and was imprisoned there until the flames were subdued so that he could be brought out. He then appeared to be a raving maniac. His hair was burned off, and the whole scalp had the appearance of being burned to a crisp. He was taken to the hospital, where his injuries were pronounced not fatal. There were eight men on the ladder when it fell. The break was caused by the yielding of the cornice upon which the top of it rested.

Lieutenant William Bocklage and Pipeman Edward Anderson, who were hurt by the falling ladder, each had a fracture of the skull, and both were dead shortly after reaching the hos-

Alfred Doherty, hurt on arms and neck by falling cornice. Captain Hur-ley and William Deweese were injured, but not dangerously.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 10.—The Mansion livery stables, Eighteenth and Lawrence streets, were almost completely destroyed by fire. Four men, probably five, rooming in the upper portion of the building were suffocated, and between twenty and thirty horses met death in the same way. There were several narrow escapes, as a portion of the building over the stables is occupied by roomers. When the police and firemen first arribed a number of roomers were hanging out of the windows, having been almost suffocated by the volumes of smoke inside. The dead are: Thomas Bowen, single, 22 years oid, home in Peoria, Ills.; George Richards, single, 26 years old, home at Lincoln, Neb.; Otto Helbin, of St. Louis, and David

Wales' Gold Cigar Box.

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- Yesterday was the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of his royal highness, the Prince of Wales. The occasion was celebrated in a quiet way at Sandrinham, in Norfolkshire. A large number of congratulatory messages and many expensive gifts were received by the prince, Among the gifts was a gold cigar box from the dramatic profession. The present is a superb specimen of the goldsmith's art. It weighs 100 ounces, and the full value of the metal alone is very great. The top of the box is surmounted by three ostrich feathers forming the coat of arms of the Prince of Wales, set with Secretary Sutton's Address.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 10.—Secretary Sutton, of the Irish National League, issues an address urging the friends of Ireland to more thorough organization for the purpose of aiding the suffering peasantry in their struggle for right.
The address says: "We believe in the manhood of Ireland, and to it we appeal to force these parliamentarians to stop their quarrels or make way for other Irishmen to whom the interests of their country are of greater moment than personal ambition or personal animosities."

Chicago Wants the Convention. CHICAGO, Nov. 10. — A meeting of prominent Republicans was held at the Grand Pacific and a resolution unanimously adopted urging the Republicans of Chicago to use all reasonable efforts to secure the next Republican convention for this city. The local Democrats have not discussed the location for the national Democratic convention yet, but it is understood that the effort will be made soon to have the convention held here.
