CHILEAN WAR HORRORS.

Terrible Butchery of Youths by Balmaceda's Troops. VALPARAISO, Nov. 16.—The Chilean Times prints these details of the butchery at Locana:

A few days before the 18th of August last about 150 young men agreed to assist the constitutional army so soon as it should arrive at Valparaiso. On Aug. 17 nearly all of them met on Locana's estate, near Santiago. Unfortunately, a wretched traitor betrayed their plans to Balmaceda. At daybreak next morning the estate was surrounded by the dictator's soldiers and the hands of gallant youths were rudely awakened by discharges of rifles and carbines.

The first to leave was Don Arturo Undurraga Vicuña accompanied by twelve companions, and their lives were saved through the instrumentality of a roll of notes offered to and accepted by the soldiers. Others of their companions were less fortunate. A voice rang out to give the unfortunate youth no quarter. The order was given by an aide of General Barbosa, named Alexjo San Martin.

At the first discharge six or eight of the young patriots fell. The remainder attempted to cut their way out. Fifteen or more were shot dead, five or six were wounded and ten or twelve were made prisoners. The wounded were bayoneted and sabred to death and their bodies were mutilated and burned.

Don Wenceslao Arangula Pontecilla was subjected to unspeakable horrors. He was bound to a tree and was beaten and cut with sabres and swords to compel him to disclose the hiding place of Don Carlos Walker Martinez. As he insisted that he knew nothing of the hiding place of his employer, first one leg and then the other was broken. Paraffin was thrown over him and set fire to, but the quantity was limited so as to prolong his agony, which lasted nearly an hour. In the midst of his horrible sufferings he appealed to his tormentors to kill him at once and put him out of misery, but they mocked and reviled his supplications.

The bodies of the remainder of the victims were subjected to unheard of atrocities. Some were cut in two at the middle and the parts were suspended by cords from trees amidst ferocious and demonical yells. The busts of others were placed upon the benches in the corridors, the eyes were picked out with bayonets, tongues were cut out and ears and noses were cut off. Later on the greater portion of the mutilated bodies and remains were collected and burned.

Outlaws Disperse Mexican Troops.

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex., Nov. 17.—News received here says that on the 12th inst. Catarino Garza and about one hundred men met several hundred Mexican soldiers twelve miles from Mier, on the road to Guerrero. Catarino stoutly held his ground, scattering his proclamations.

A volley was fired at his force at close range, which was returned by the revolutionists, causing the death of three soldiers and one badly wounded, who is now in the Mier hospital. The government force fell back in disorder. Garza has not been out of Mexico since he entered it on the 15th of September, but has been working up a revolutionary feeling in the states of Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon, with the above results.

Minister Porter at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Ex-Governor Porter, our minister to Italy, who arrived from Europe on Saturday, is now in this city. He has not yet called at the state department. He was granted leave of absence with permission to visit the United States, so his visit to Washington is regarded to have no special significance, as it is customary for ministers on their return from abroad to call and pay their respects to the secretary of state, and receive any instructions he may wish to give them.

Almy Pleads Guilty.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 17.—Frank C. Almy yesterday afternoon retracted his former plea, and pleaded guilty to the murder of Christie Warden. Almy's fate—imprisonment or death—will be known within the next three days. The government and the defense will bring forth their witnesses, and the case will go on as though before a jury. If the judges find that murder has been committed in the first degree Almy must hang, but if in the second degree the maximum penalty is thirty years in state prison.

A Mother's Fearful Crime.
