TWO FATAL MISTAKES.
A Student Poisons His Friend—A Drug Clerk's Fatal Error.
CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 23.—Edmund W.
Greener, of Baltimore, for a year past student at the Crozer Theological seminary, had a severe attack of neuralgia. A young medical student from Philadelphia, who was an intimate friend of young Greener, made up a dose of medicine in which he put part of a grain of alcohol of acetic. The first dose did not have any effect, and three other doses were administered. The four doses combined, however, proved fatal, and Greener died within two hours. When the medical student saw the effects of his doctoring he was nearly crazed with grief.
Coroner Jeffries was notified, and on investigating the case, he decided that an inquest was unnecessary, as he con sidered that the poisoning was purely accidental.

The remains of the dead student were taken down to Baltimore for interment.
Deceased was a graduate of the Johns Hopkins university, and was a great favorite with his fellow students. He leaves a young wife.
COLUMBIA, Pa., Nov. 23.—The mis take of a drug clerk caused the death of little Mand Lindsay, the 5-year-old daughter of Rev. Dr. W. C. Lindsay, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, and one of the most eminent divines in his denomination in the south. The child had a slight fever and her parents determined to give her some quinine.
The father went to W. C. Fisher's drug store to purchase the quinine. The clerk, W. L. Bratton, put up three doses of three grains each of what he supposed was the right medicine.
At the child's usual bedtime Mrs.
Lindsay gave her one of the powders.
The parents left the little girl in bed and went to church. When they returned they found the child cold in death.
An examination of the remaining pow ders showed that they were morphine.

W. H. SHEPHERD RETURNS.
The Wealthy Wilkesbarre Contractor Now Under $10,000 Bail.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 23.—W. H.
Shepherd, a wealthy contractor of this city, whose mysterious disappearance from home last January created a sensa tion throughout the whole country, ar rived here late Saturday night, after eleven months absence. His coming was awaited, but in some manner he eluded those who were watching for him and went quietly to his home.
At 5 o'clock yesterday morning he was aroused from his slumbers by three de tectives. He was at once placed under arrest and taken to the office of Justice Davidson, where he was charged with alienating the affections of Mayor Sut ton's wife. The prisoner refused to make any statement, and was held in $10,000 bail for trial.

The arrest has caused a decided sensa tion. For five months after Shepherd's disappearance it was thought he was dead, and had been the victim of foul play. One day in May last he started the whole community by sending a tele gram to a friend, stating that he was alive and living in Indianapolis. A friend went to that city and found Shep herd lying ill at one of the hotels. Then it was found that there was a woman in the case, which fact, as well as the cause of his long absence, was made ap parent yesterday.

Stabbed Twenty-two Times.
PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—The body of Daniel Van Yensing, a former Pennsylv ania, passed through Pittsburgh en route to Clarion, Pa., in charge of his brother, Yensing, superintendent of the Gruenberg Mining Company at Mon terey City, Mexico, and was mur dered last Friday by three discharged Mexican employes. The assassins en tered the sleeping apartments of Yensing, and after securely binding and gagging William Davis, his room-mate, stabbed Yensing twenty-two times. Yensing fought desperately, but was finally overpowered. When found in the morning Davis was still bound and Yensing was alive, but he died soon after. Fourteen Mexicans are now in jail awaiting identification. Mr. Yen sing will return to Mexico after the funeral to push the case.

Siberian Methods Near Home.
PITTSBURG, Nov. 21.—A man who spent two days in Snowden mines con firms the report that over one hundred colored men were brought from Vir ginia under false representations and are now compelled to work. The igno rance of one cost him his life, and his terrified companions were driven back to their work with pick handles. They owe the company money, and guards are there to keep them from running away. They are handcuffed, and re volvers are fired over their heads to intimidate them.

Depositors Lament.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Another Italian banker skipped yesterday with a big chunk of the funds of his confid ing countrymen. He was Giacinto Epi fania, and he conducted his banking business in connection with a steam ship agency and a jewelry store at 842 Carpenter street. Many hundreds of depositors and a number of business men who loaned him considerable sums of money lament his disappearance, and the amount of cash carted away is vari ously estimated at from $50,000 to $75,000.

Supreme Court Candidates.
LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 24.—The Lan caster bar will present the name of Hon.

of Charles Hunsicker, a member of the Norrstown bar, is prominently men tioned as the probable successor of the late Judge Elias Moorhead, Clark, of the su preme court of Pennsylvania.

Sewerage System Condemned.
POTTSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 23.—Dr. W. B.
Atkinson, of Philadelphia, inspector of the state board of health, was here and condemned the system of sewerage, say ing that it would some time cause a plague.
Lumberman Holt Acquitted.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 23.—After a most sensational trial D. W. Holt, of this place, was acquitted on the charge of burning his lumber yards in order to secure $125,000 of insurance.

FIERCE WIND STORM

Washington, Baltimore and Other Cities in Its Path.

SEVERAL KILLED AND INJURED.

Three Killed and Many Injured at the National Capital—Workmen's Miraculous Escape at Baltimore.
School Buildings Blown Down and a Number of Pupils Injured.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Suddenly, without a moment's warning, the most terrific and devastating storm ever ex perienced in Washington broke over the city yesterday afternoon, carrying death and destruction in its path.
The cyclonic storm came up the coast from the south and was accompanied by sheets of hail and fierce gusts of wind.
Inside of a minute after it made its ap pearance it had attained its full force.

Telegraph poles were snapped off and blown down. The telegraph wires are all down, while the local telephone wires are in a muddled condition. Numbers of houses were unroofed.

In its devastating path it struck Met zerott's music hall, at 1011 Twelfth street, knocking in the wall, and carry ing with it the rear wall of Straebler par-ger's clothing store, which adjoined it.
Three men were killed by the falling walls, and two more are buried in the ruins. George White, a habit maker, is among the killed, while his wife was so seriously injured as to be beyond recov ery. In addition there were several pup ils injured by the falling walls, making a total, so far as can be learned, of three deaths and eight or ten persons more or less seriously injured.

A section of the stone balustrade around the roof of the White House was blown down during the storm and crashed through the roof of the portico at the eastern entrance of the basement.
Washington gas reservoir was struck by lightning and burned. Loss $50,000.
Total loss in this vicinity more than $100,000.

The Storm at Baltimore.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 24.—A disastrous storm passed over Baltimore yesterday afternoon. It came up suddenly and over in a few minutes. But it left ruin and wreck in its wake. There have been no deaths reported, but several per sons were injured, some of whom may die.

In the central portion of the city the rain poured down in torrents and the wind blew a gale. The roof of the Malty building, at the foot of West Falls avenue, was torn off and dropped thirty feet away. The upper floor of the structure was occupied as a sail loft by Thomas Gibbons, who had thirteen men at work at the time the roof was carried away. All of them escaped unhurt, ex cept Fred Lathert, the foreman, S. E.
Mitchell and Howard Yearley. They were badly cut up.

Yearley's experience was a startling one. He was lifted bodily and thrown into the river forty feet below. He was rescued by a passing tug.

At Pittsburgh and Vicinity.
PITTSBURG, Nov. 24.—Heavy rains and cyclone in this city yesterday. Sev eral houses were demolished, and one at Temperanceville burying a woman be neath it.
In the east end of the city great dam age is reported. Finley's run, which flows into the Allegheny river at Brill iant Station, an insignificant stream, was transformed into a raging torrent, and several houses near its mouth were either carried away bodily or shifted from their foundations. At Shadyside, in the Twentieth ward, the water came down the hill covering the streets sev eral feet deep with mud and water, and bursting the sewers in several instances.
The water also rushed down Second avenue in such volumes as to stop the electric cars, and in the lower part of the city business was entirely suspen ded.

Over in Allegheny City great alarm was felt and persons living in the vicin ity of Butcher's run—the scene of the disaster of 1874, when twenty or more persons were drowned—began moving their household effects. However, no great damage has been caused in that vicinity, although in the district along the river cellars were flooded and com munication was only possible along River street in boats. The neighborhood of Woods' run was also partly under water and dwellers on the south side were deluged by torrents of water.

Many Pupils Injured.
CARLEISLE, Pa., Nov. 24.—A terrific rain, wind and thunder storm passed over this section of the Cumberland Valley yesterday afternoon, doing con siderable damage to property and prob able loss of life. In the surrounding country the storm was much more se vere. Many roofs were blown off, build ings blown down and trees uprooted.
The roof of the Graham school house was blown off while the school was in session, the walls falling in. As far as can be ascertained at present the follow ing were injured: Miss Bertha Rudy, teacher, right leg broken in two places by a falling shutter; Sallie Fisher, pupil, left side of face cut by falling glass; Loris Wilson, pupil, nose broken by falling timber; James Gills, pupil, face cut, and another pupil, name unknown, arm injured. About eight others were slightly injured.
The Sunnyside school house was par tially blown down, and a number of the pupils are reported more or less injured.

The Storm in the Lehigh Valley.
BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 24.—The most severe wind and rain storm of the sea son struck this place yesterday after noon. The rain which came from the south southeast was terrific in its force and took fences, signs, telegraph and telephone poles and wires to the ground.
Many houses were unroofed in coun ty districts along the Lehigh and Lacka wanna railroad.
Heavy. All the trains are late and news is hard to get. Along the Reading road the storm was very severe. Telegraph communication is almost entirely cut off.

The Damage at Cape May.
CAPE MAY, Nov. 24.—The heaviest blow of the fall occurred yesterday. The lower deck of the Ocean Pier was washed away by the breakers. The pier has been heavily against the beach at Cape May Point, and is cutting down the bluff.

Damage to Craft.
NYACK, N. Y., Nov. 24.—A terrific rain storm and gale prevailed along the lower Hudson river yesterday afternoon which caused much damage to property.
J. O. Davidson's steam yacht Princess and many smaller craft were sunk.
