CTHE-brootity Divines sun

Voter h-"Cant the pet on the rimh

 To Mary Mark 10: 9; Joban 20: 14.

 the evening, tou of tho apostes weing present Joun $20: 19-13$ ). At ths ti ve, part of the d 20, probais period, theough there erlier part of thast hase been an interval of some leogsth be tween the last appearance at Jerasalem and this oue. Simon Peter, Thomse, Patuos.

Nathanel, James and John, and two omew); our Lord Isctinsms. - Sev go a fisiung;" they all agree to go vits himo and "pend tha niggt in fruit ess habor. At daybreak Josas stood on the beach, dod spoke to the, but on on the beach, and spoke to them, bat whe not recognized; he bids them cost the net on tue right side of the boat. uto the gearm the ots and cars bring thi boolf ith the bot la d apon it. Jesus bils them bring of the fobl withect they have etaken. The he kive them fod. The evengelisi explains that this is the third appearancee to the discoiples. (The number of these epiphaies is variously callou. lated. 1 here were at least ten; and Acts $1: 3$ seems to indicate that there were jet others not specified), thogh There iin po parallel passage, some nave sought to irdentify this with one or another of the appearance narrated by the other evangelists.
$\qquad$ pher's famous maxime. Durimg the birst course the thighs went out and there arpeared two phonetic voices:

As ye are now so once were we,
As we are now so shall ye be. In the darkness a globe of gola fish on the table was illuminted, and the anatomy of the fish beeame visible. tiny eloctric light inserted in its stomach and bonnetod by tiny harlike wire pasing tro gh its throat Iater the floral decorations overbead fell in tached to each flower had hitherto held them in poituon attracted by magnet At 11 oclok, Frankin Eignifianatly remarked: remarked: Early to Karly to bed and early to rise, Makkes one heantily, weal iny and wise.
And the gueste arose to depart. - Ex.
$\qquad$
 athired in full dress; Benjamin Disraells writing room. wherein ho wroto his earliar novels. wrot his arrilier novels, was extrava-Eathy furaileded, and ho himseot was olothed to maloh, as ho wrote Mra.

