CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JAN. 21.

CHURCH SUIT.

Long Brothers Sued to Recover $100 by the Campmeeting Association.

The Evangelical church near Farmers Mills, brought suit before Esp. Rishel on a claim against Samuel and Jesse Long, proprietors of the cave, for $100, which the Church committee alleges the Longs promised to contribute to said church, on condition they located the camp-meeting, held there last fall, in the woods near Long's cave hotel.

The Long Bros., we understand, think of appealing the case to court. The hotel and cave did a profitable business during camp-meeting.

The General Obedient Orders.

In the department of war articles in the Democrat and Sentinel of November 6th, was one under heading, "McClellan's Way," taken from the Youth's Companion, which detailed an incident to show why the soldiers loved Gen. McClellan. It told how, when a party of the Army of the Potomac was crossing a creek on the march from Harrison's Landing to Newport News, the men were trying to get over a single log, thus making slow progress and putting the rear of the army in danger.

The above incident we learn has something of a local interest, because the soldier who ordered the general to do the first wading was John Rosenberg, of McVeytown, then a member of Company K, 49th Penna. Volunteers. J. C. Ross, of Lewistown, of the same company was present and remembers the occurrence very distinctly. The only correction he would make in the story was that John used some emphatic words that are not given above.—Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel.

Wright and Harrity.

The Democratic State Committee met at Harrisburg on Wednesday and elected Wright, of Lehigh, as Chairman, and Harrity, of Philadelphia to fill the vacancy in the committee caused by the death of W. L. Scott. This is a victory for the friends of Cleveland. A warm contest was waged the past two weeks for these positions, Kerr and Guffy being supported by the opponents of Wright and Harrity.

Rumored Robbery.

We hear a rumor of an alleged robbery near Tusseyville. John H. Runkle, tax collector for 1891, claims he had $300 of tax money in a trunk, which was left in a room down stairs, the family sleeping upstairs, and that Thursday night of last week a thief got into the house, broke open the trunk and went off with the booty hidden away therein.

On Friday and Saturday, January 22nd and 23rd, the teachers of Miles, Penn, Gregg and Haines townships, and Millheim borough, will convene in Millheim to hold a local institute, with three sessions daily, in the town hall on Penn street.

Rev. W. E. Fischer, pastor of the Lutheran church, who was confined to the house in consequence of an attack of the grip and not able to fill his appointments in the different churches in the valley for two weeks, recovered sufficiently to allow him to keep his appointments last Sabbath.

Married.

A Tribute to Samuel Hess.

Died, at his home near Pine Grove Mills, in Ferguson township, Samuel Hess, aged ninety-two years, eight months and twenty-seven days.

Mr. Hess was born near Woodward, in Haines township, April 11th, A. D. 1799, on the farm at that time owned by his father, Michael Hess, and which still remains in the family, being now owned by Michael Hess, a nephew of the deceased.

Mr. Hess left the old homestead and settled on the farm, which was ever after his home, in Ferguson township, in the spring of the year 1831. In the winter of 1834 he was married, the maiden name of his wife being Mary Ann Musser, a daughter of Jacob Musser, of Haines township. This union was blessed with six children, of whom four, viz: Michael Hess, of Harris township; Jonathan, of Williamsport; Mary, wife of P. J. Bottorf, and Lydia Stover are living, while two, Samuel and Sarah preceded their father to the great beyond. Thirteen grand children and five great grand children also survive him. In May A. D. 1856 his wife died.

One of the remarkable incidents of the long and beautiful life of the deceased is the fact, that from early childhood he was a faithful and devout member of the Lutheran church. In his allegiance to the church he never faltered. He was the last of the nine members who founded and organized the Lutheran congregation at Pine Grove Mills, perhaps sixty years ago. His religion was the kind described by James the Apostle when he says "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself spotless from the world."

"A mighty man, a prince has fallen" and yet he knew it not. A more modest, humble and devout man never lived. He did not sound a trumpet to let the world know that he was doing and yet he let his "light shine." It is not possible that he had an enemy in the world, yet he was a man of positive convictions. "Whether the tide was running high or low you always knew where to find him." In all things you could depend on him, as one who would be found on the side of right. He was one of those men who constitute the backbone of the church to which they belong and the community in which they live.

In 1849 he was elected County Commissioner over Peter Wilson, of Spring Mills, who also lived to a great age, by a majority of seven hundred and thirty-five. In politics, during all his life, Mr. Hess was an earnest, faithful Democrat. Beginning with the November election in 1820, at which he voted for James Monroe, he voted at every presidential election down to 1888, a period of sixty-eight years.

He was born before Centre county was erected. The Republic was but fairly started on its career among the nations of the earth at the time of his birth. He witnessed all its struggles and lived to see it the best, most powerful, and wonderful nation in the world. He long outlived the generation he started in life with, and but for his genial and generous disposition, which made people, of other and younger generations delight in his friendship and company, he must have felt that while he was surrounded by the living he was alone in the world. The best however of this long life, is the legacy he has left behind him. Not in magnificent houses, or great wealth. Better than much riches is the remembrance of the noble and exalted character that he left, and the pure life he lived. Almost a century of life, and no stain to mar or spoil its beauty, or deface its glory.

On Tuesday morning, January 12th, 1892, the dear old man was laid to rest, in the little cemetery at the foot of the mountain, among the people of his day and generation, who had long since crossed the divide between time and eternity. D. F. F.

Singular Creature.

A fourteen-year old boy at school wrote this sentence in an exercise: "Ten men and four woman." His teacher pointed to him the sentence with the remark: "Is it possible that you do not know, after all these years at school, that plural of woman is women?" The boy scratched his head in a somewhat disconcerted way. "Well," he said, "I've often heard my father say that woman is a singular creature, and I guess that he knows."

No More Grip.

A new remedy has been discovered for the grip. A Derry man says the disease spread rapidly in his family and they were all cured by eating hickory nuts. He claims that the oil in the "goggles" loosened the cough and that they all got well in a short time. It is an easy medicine and should be given a trial.

A New Postoffice.

Shingletown, above Boalsburg, has been made a postoffice, and we guess all are happy there now. It is the only Shingletown in the U. S.

—Powers, Bellefonte, handles all grades of heavy winter boots and shoes and as for prices, no cheaper can be purchased anywhere else. A trial is asked.

SPRING MILLS.

Mrs. James Hanna of Georges Valley, who is suffering from typhoid fever is recovering slowly.

Porter Moyer, who had been carpentering at Bellwood this summer, is now at home with his parents.

The Spring Mills Literary Society is not: it was stopped by the director refusing to let its meetings be held in the school house.

The protracted meeting conducted by Rev. Hunter, of Lewisburg, in the Evangelical church, is still in progress. Thus far seven have been converted.

The grip is still here, Mrs. W. P. Alexander, Miss Sue Miller and Mr. A. J. Shook being its latest victims. It, together with reported cases of diphtheria caused a poor attendance in the public schools.

Miss Sue Long who had been visiting friends in Altoona, Tyrone and Bellefonte for the last few weeks, is again at home. She reports a very nice time, and as it is now leap year her visit may have been of more than ordinary interest.

The second set of viewers appointed by the Court to view the site for the proposed road beginning in front of Bible's store, thence along the creek to the public road near Reuben Kline's house, attended to their duties last week, but no decision has yet been reported. Much interest was manifested in the affair by the people of this township, and a great many arguments were produced for and against the new road. There is no little speculation as to what the viewers will decide. The road is all the talk here, and Chill, Botkin, or Prince Albert Victor don't bother us.

FARMERS MILLS.

Dr. J. W. Stem, of Millheim, is having auction here once about every fortnight.

A Miss Stover, of Unionville, is visiting here at present, at her uncle Jerry Stover's.

Miss Annie White, of near the cave, went to Zion for medical treatment, under Dr. Fisher.

La grippe, sore throat, diphtheria, etc., are quite prevalent in the surrounding country.

W. S. Hettiger and wife recently returned from a few weeks' visit with friends in York county, Pa.

A child of George Winebleck's died about a fortnight ago and was taken to Haines township for burial.

Rev. S. C. Stover, of Bedford county, Pa., is here visiting his sick and aged mother, who has a severe attack of la grippe.

Some of the effects of our late camp-meeting are now showing themselves in the form of litigations over misunderstandings.

Jacob Homan Sr. also has an attack of grip, and his recovery is doubtful. His son Solomon, of Williamsport, is here rendering his aged parents all the assistance possible.

Corra A. Luse, second daughter of William Luse, near here, died on the 10th inst., aged sixteen years, eleven months and eleven days. Interment was made in the Union cemetery, on the 10th inst. She was a fine young lady, but that dreadful disease, diphtheria, rushed her into eternity.

COBURN.

Some of our people will go a-Courting next week.

Mexchant J. W. Glasgow was called away to attend the funeral of his sister, at Tusseyville.

Charles Reber, of Haines township, has moved into the house vacated by G. W. Swingle in the spring.

Mrs. Lyde Rishell and Mrs. Hulda Meyer have just returned from a weeks' visit to Williamsport and other places.

Quite a large number of our people are suffering with the La Grippe. W. O. Reaick and whole family being of the number.

As usual our efficient landlord W. Rishell is the first to have his ice house filled with ice, having done so on Saturday last. The ice on the race was then five inches thick.

News has reached here of another serious accident at Pardee, in which a man by the name of William Jordan has lost his life, caused by being crushed by a truck during a wreck.

George Rumberger, who had been employed in the railroad station at this place for the last six months or more severed his connections here and is now located at Phillipsburg, this county, having a similar position.

The money order system has been established at this postoffice; which will be a great convenience to our people. T. W. Hosterman our postmaster received notice from the department last week that such was the case, and he immediately entered into bonds for its faithful performance.

Slightly Mixed.

One of our exchanges is responsible for the statement that a printer who "picked up" the trade, in making up the forms for the first time got a marriage and grocer's notice sandwiched as to read: "Mr. John Smith and Miss Ida Quay were united in the holy bonds of sauerkraut, which will be sold by the quart or barrel. Mr. Smith is an esteemed cod fish at 20 cents a pound, while the bride has many hams for sale at a shilling a pound. Rev. Brown officiating."

—Sell your pork and beef to C. P. Long, Spring Mills.

To The Ladies of Centre County.

Ladies who are interested in the art of dress cutting should call at Mrs. G. S. Clements, agent and teacher at Centre Hall, for Newton's French and Tailor System of dress cutting, and receive thorough instructions without the use of patterns; also teach economy in drafting seams. This chart when understood by the seamstress, will enable her with the measurement and chart to cut any garment in ladies' and children's wear, to fit without busting it up and trying the garment on. I will also do all kinds of sewing in ladies' wear, dresses and coats and children's wear.

Mrs. G. S. CLEMENTS.

What Am I To Do?

This is the oft expression of the weary sufferer with Rheumatism, Neuralgia and other painful diseases. The whole human frame is tortured and racked with its pain. It is well to remember no known medicine equals Red Flag Oil for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains and Bruises. Price 25 cents at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Warned In Time.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The House of Health sends a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree that with proper precautions the disease may be prevented. Aged and infirm persons, in fact any one whose system is run down, require a healthful stimulant just now. The medical faculty are a unit upon this point. Kinder's "Silver Age" and "Duquenne" rye whiskeys which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the purest and best stimulants known. The most skilled practitioners in the country endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively. Major Klein also sells Gockenheimer, Fleisch, Gilson, Overholt and Bear Creek at $1 per quart or six quarts for $5. His establishments are the headquarters for everything in the liquor line: goods export every where. Send for Catalogue, mentioning this paper, to MAX KLEIN 82 Federal St. Allegheny City, Pa.
